Description of Services		Consideration			Evaluation and Metrics
The Seidlitz Education contract will support our commitment to facilitating the continued implementation of evidence-based strategies aimed at fostering the development of academic language across all subject areas. These approaches are designed to benefit Multilingual learners and align with the objectives outlined in the Santa Rosa City Schools English Learner Master Plan. Our professional development initiative is informed by research, data, and student needs.		Seidlitz consultant, Dr. Mary Heath, will lead this professional development. This learning opportunity will address the needs of Multilingual learner students and strengthen the instructional strategies of our teaching staff. The asset-based professional development will focus on Tier 1 best first instructional strategies.			This contract will support the professional development of teachers to revisit, review and implement best first instructional strategies (Tier 1) in classrooms. This action aims to promote access to grade-level curriculum for Multilingual learners of all proficiency levels across all content areas, support teaching staff, increase academic achievement and reclassification rates of students. 2024-25 will be a baseline year.
