

The following texts were requested by teachers of the listed courses. Teacher requests were reviewed using the Supplemental Materials Approval Criteria including : alignment with Common Core State Standards, age appropriateness, alignment with essential knowledge, skills required in the content areas, educational, social and artistic value, alignment with the core curriculum, historical accuracy, accurate representation of historically underrepresented groups, fair and objective representation of issues and appropriate format, vocabulary and concepts.

Stamped: Antiracism, Racism and You by Ibram X. Kendi and Jason Reynolds

Course: 9th Introduction to Ethnic Studies

Note: The text is currently approved as a supplemental for 9th English. If approved for 9th Ethnic Studies, it will be removed from the 9th English supplemental list.

Wake: The Hidden History of Women Led Slave Revolts by Rebecca Hall

Course: 9th Introduction to Ethnic Studies

Can't Stop, Won't Stop by Jeff Chang

Course: United States Ethnic Studies History (11th or 12th)

First Gen: A Memoir by Alejandra Campoverdi

Course: United States Ethnic Studies History (11th or 12th)

Kitchen by Banana Yoshimoto

Course: 12th IB HL and SL Language and Literature

The Thing Around Your Neck by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

Course: 11th IB HL and SL Language and Literature

Changes to Currently Approved Texts:

American Born Chinese by Gene Luen Yang

Currently approved as a Supplemental Text for 9th Introduction to Ethnic Studies.

Recommended to move to a Core text for 9th Introduction to Ethnic Studies.

They Called Us Enemy by George Takei

Currently Approved for 9th Introduction to Ethnic Studies as supplemental

Recommended to move to a supplemental text for United States Ethnic Studies History(11th or 12th).