In August of 2023, with the support of Desert Sands and ELOP, About Families created a space dedicated to school-age students and their families through an enrichment program. This program is an inclusive setting that offers both structured and free-choice opportunities with an emphasis on safe and healthy activities including music classes, yoga sessions, cooking projects, gardening and animal care and art instruction. We strive to create an environment that facilitates social emotional wellness. Our program promotes mindful and intentional practices and how to implement these in our community and families.
