Called BOE Meeting
October 7, 2022

A blue-tinted background image showing a group of students in a classroom. In the foreground, a young boy is looking towards the right. Behind him, other students are visible, some looking at a computer monitor on the right side of the frame. The overall scene suggests a collaborative learning environment.

ENROLLMENT FLOW

DCSD Enrollment Flow: October 2020 – October 2021

This chart shows the flow of students in and out of the DeKalb County School District for the 2021 school year. Out of 93,674 students enrolled in Fall 2020, 69,296 returned in Fall 2021. The 24,378 students who did not return include 5,351 graduating seniors, 2,768 moved out of DCSD, 4,557 who left for unknown reasons, and 9,832 who were “No-shows” at the beginning of school in Fall 2021. In the Fall of 2021, 24,407 new students enrolled including 7,701 four and five-year-olds who had never attended school before, 7,571 moved in from other districts, 4,051 move in from another state, 2,111 moved in from another country, and 2,973 moved in for other reasons.

DCSD Enrollment Flow: October 2020 – October 2021

This chart shows the flow of students from year-to-year, October 2016 to October 2021. The flows from the top show the number of new students coming into the district each year. The orange flows towards the bottom show the flow of students out of the district each year.

MOBILITY RATES VS YOY TURN-OVER

"Mobility 2021" is the number of students who enroll or withdraw at a school (Oct 5 - May 1) divided by the October 2021 enrollment. "%YOY Turn-Over 2021" is the inverse percentage of students who were enrolled in both Oct 2020 and Oct 2021. The "Category" fields designate the school as "Low" if the metric is more than a 1/2 a standard deviation below the median and "Very Low" if the metric is more than 1 standard deviation below the median. The "Category" fields designate the school as "High" if the metric is more than a 1/2 a standard deviation above the median and "Very Low" if the metric is more than 1 standard deviation above the median. Centers and alternative schools are excluded.
