EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Santa Rosa Accelerated Charter School (SRACS or Charter School) hereby respectfully submits to the Santa Rosa High School District’s Board of Education this Charter Renewal for the term of July 1, 2026 - July 1, 2033. The outline below follows the sequence and content requirements of Board of Education Policy 0420.4.

The initial charter proposal for SRACS was presented to the Board of Education on December 11, 2002. The authorization granted by the Board was for a period of three years. Since that time the Santa Rosa Accelerated Charter has grown to 128 students and has consistently had a waiting list of about 40% - 50% of the total enrollment capacity of the school. The 2026-2027 lottery resulted in a waiting list of 64 5th and 6th grade students (50% of capacity). Based on 2024-2025 data, SRACS performed better than 98% of elementary schools in both California and the United States according to Neighborhood Scout. Also of import, during the 2024-2025, 80% of applicants were from outside of SRCS elementary school district.

The Charter for the Santa Rosa Accelerated Charter School (SRACS) is set to expire on June 30, 2026. The Charter School complies with the legal requirements for renewal as set forth in Education Code Section 47607(c). SRACS has received the two highest performance levels schoolwide on all state indicators included in the evaluation rubrics adopted pursuant to Section 52064.5 for which it receives its performance levels. (Ed. Code § 47607(c)(2)(A).) In accordance with the Charter Schools Act of 1992, SRACS hereby respectfully petitions Santa Rosa High School District (“the District”) to renew the charter for the Charter School for a seven-year period, from July 1, 2026 through June 30, 2033.

The Charter Schools Act of 1992 states that:

It is the intent of the Legislature . . . to provide opportunities for teachers, parents, pupils, and community members to establish and maintain schools that operate independently from the existing school district structure, as a method to accomplish all of the following:

- (a) Improve pupil learning.*
- (b) Increase learning opportunities for all pupils, with special emphasis on expanded learning experiences for pupils who are identified as academically low achieving.*
- (c) Encourage the use of different and innovative teaching methods.*
- (d) Create new professional opportunities for teachers, including the opportunity to be responsible for the learning program at the Charter School site.*
- (e) Provide parents and pupils with expanded choices in the types of educational opportunities that are available within the public school system.*
- (f) Hold the Charter Schools established under this part accountable for meeting measurable pupil outcomes and provide the Charter Schools with a method to change from rule-based to performance-based accountability systems.*
- (g) Provide vigorous competition within the public school system to stimulate continual improvements in all public schools.*

EC 47601

SRACS has made, and will continue to make, important contributions to the legislative goals outlined above. By granting this renewal, the District will help fulfill the intent of the Charter Schools Act, while ensuring the continuity of a program designed to engage students who have an interest in or need for an accelerated education.

As the proposal details below, the SRACS concept was designed to serve fifth and sixth grade students who have the interest and motivation to succeed in an academically-accelerated educational environment.¹ The core academic program of SRACS is centered in two classrooms, one focused on math and science, the other focused on social science and English Language Arts. Locating on a middle school campus provides students with additional academic resources (e.g., middle school library, middle school enrichment such as MathCounts), as well as accelerated opportunities and secondary facilities for music and PE, which are not available in a typical elementary school setting. Recess and play periods will be planned and supervised to provide time and/or geographic separation from the general middle school student population.

Projected 2026/2027 enrollment at the SRACS site is 128. This enrollment figure of 128 (4 classes) has remained consistent since 2007.

¹ The SRACS community has discussed expanding the program to serve students in fourth grade; however, SRACS acknowledges that if it decides to move forward with such an expansion, it must submit to the District a request for a material revision to its charter, and must be located within the boundaries of the Santa Rosa Elementary District.

Governance of SRACS will rest with the Board of Education of the Santa Rosa High School District, which shall comply with the requirements of Education Code section 47604.1 in matters pertaining to governance of the Charter School. Details concerning the Charter School Advisory Committee are included as part of Element D below.

In addition to the expertise of the Lead Applicant, the SRACS community, including administrators, staff, the SFPO parent group, involved community members at large, alumni and the SRACS Advisory Council, have extensive experience, credentials, and expertise to continue the operation of this highly successful charter school. Our program is based on extensive research, the experience of our founding team of teachers, and over 20 years of community input.

- Daryl Coryell, Advisory Committee Chairperson
- Kim Walls, Advisory Committee Vice Chairperson and Elementary School Lead Teacher
- Nancy Blair, Elementary School Lead Teacher
- Steve Williams, Community Member at Large and Retired Founding Teacher
- Kimberly Roper, 5th Grade Parent
- Kilee Willson, 6th Grade Parent
- Jessica Clifton, 6th Grade Parent
- Alyssa Keeney-Roe, 5th Grade Parent
- Ren Chandi, 5th Grade Parent

It is imperative that, should the District decide to recreate the SRACS program elsewhere in the District, the District know that the Teachers at SRACS are trained in the curriculum development, pedagogy, and methodology of the Gifted and Talented Education Framework and the Building Thinking Classrooms Framework as applied within the Common Core State Standards and the Next Generation Science Standards. SRACS teachers commit yearly to intensive and ongoing staff development and self-reflection. The teachers of SRACS have played an integral part in SRACS' conception, initiation, and ongoing success. Additionally, SRACS teachers have multiple credentials and/or Master's degrees in Education. These include the following:

- Kim Walls, Elementary School Lead Teacher
- Nancy Blair, Elementary School Lead Teacher
- Eric Brockway, Elementary School Teacher
- Kerah Hilkey, Elementary School Teacher

Funds generated by SRACS' average daily attendance will compensate the District for facilities use, custodial services, and maintenance of the classrooms utilized in any SRACS program. Classrooms will fully conform to all construction, maintenance and safety standards, which pertain to the non-charter schools of the District. As such, the Board of Education will have assurance that the SRACS facilities will be safe, habitable and well suited for the education programs described in this charter. As noted above, facility maintenance of the SRACS classrooms will be accomplished through a fee-based arrangement with the District.

Funds generated by SRACS' average daily attendance will compensate the District for both the site-level and District level administrative services. On a continuing basis, the Superintendent will report to the Board of Education regarding services/fees for SRACS. These services/fees will be in accordance with services/fees given/charged to the other charter schools in the District. Basic administrative services for SRACS will be by agreement between SRACS Advisory Committee and the District. Additional services may be necessary and provided in a variety of ways. For example, SRACS relies on an Instructional Assistant that is shared among the 4 classrooms and is utilized in support of services such as Designated ELD, among other things. SRACS would benefit from an additional .5 FTE Administrator (Assistant Principal) to oversee the day-to-day operations of SRACS.

LCAP goals will be evaluated by the SRACS Advisory Committee using surveys of parents/guardians, students, teachers and administrators. On a yearly basis, the Advisory Committee will determine if changes need to be made to meet the LCAP goals and objectives of the charter. Proposals for changes will be presented to the district and submitted to the Board of Education for approval.

The operational budgets called for in Board Policy 0420.4 are included as Appendix B.

SRACS' budget will be constructed such that money not used for basic services accumulates in the charter school funds.

Charter Renewal Criteria

Pursuant to Education Code Section 47607, and the addition of Education Code Section 47607.2 by Assembly Bill 1505 (2019), at the time of charter renewal, a chartering authority shall consider the performance of the charter school on the state and local indicators reported on the California School Dashboard (“Dashboard”), and in some circumstances, the performance of the charter school on assessment deemed to be verified data.

In addition to the shift toward assessing Dashboard data, Assembly Bill 1505 also created a three-tiered system of evaluating charter schools’ performance, plus a separate category for Dashboard Alternative School Status schools. Each of the three tiers has unique qualifying criteria.

According to the Charter School Performance Category Data File most recently published by the California Department of Education, SRACS falls into the high-performing category. As clearly demonstrated by the evidence below, SRACS meets the criteria for charter renewal and is eligible for a renewal term of five to seven years.

California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASPP)

2024-2025 California Standards Test data indicate that the students at SRACS are making above average student achievement. SRACS is accelerating the learning of their students. Annual summary analysis of student academic performance will continue to be measured through state assessments and the district benchmark tests. The state required annual assessments include the California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASPP), CELDT, and the English Language Proficiency Assessment for California (ELPAC). CAASPP, CELDT, ELPAC, and benchmark assessment results will be mailed home to parents/guardians/students annually.

ELEMENT A: DESCRIPTION OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

"The educational program of the school, designed, among other things, to describe what the school intends to accomplish, to identify those whom the school is attempting to educate, what it means to be an 'educated person' in the 21st century and how learning best occurs. The goals identified in that program shall include the objective of enabling students to become self motivated, competent and lifelong learners." From Education Code 47605(c)(5)(A)(i)

Mission Statement

The Santa Rosa Accelerated Charter School is an existing dependent charter school formed to serve students who show the interest in an academically challenging and specialized setting. Students will be provided high-interest, standards-based, real-world experiences for learning at the level in which growth proceeds most effectively. Integration of technology and making connections across disciplines will be key elements of the educational experience. These experiences will provide students with opportunities to become self-motivated, competent and life-long learners.

Student Population to Be Served

SRACS, a National Blue Ribbon School in 2016, is designed to serve students in a District-approved setting such that students can transition from a self-contained K-4th environment to thrive in a secondary setting. This intentional transitional program helps students develop independence, responsibility, task-commitment, and time management skills to set them up for success in middle school and high school. The Charter School will be open to all students in grades that the Charter School serves who live in California, subject to capacity. The intention is for SRACS to serve students who live in Santa Rosa and the surrounding areas. Our program attracts a very diverse student population with students who are interested in or actively working toward becoming bilingual or for whom languages other than English are spoken at home. In 2024-2025, SRACS students and parents spoke the following languages: Russian, Tagalog, Spanish, Korean, Hindi, Mandarin, Cantonese, Romanian, Portuguese, English. The teachers and curriculum actively cultivate a strong community that is culturally responsive to the evolving demographic of the families that are being served.

Vision

The fundamental belief of SRACS is that all students can learn with depth and complexity, if provided meaningful learning experiences that tap into those areas in which students have significant interest, passion, or talents. Therefore, SRACS provides a basic framework for a challenging standards-based core curriculum that infuses technology into its daily work. The lens through which students make meaning of that curriculum will be an area of focus that is determined by student needs and interests.

At SRACS, our goal is to provide each child with a rigorous and challenging curriculum in an environment that is safe and affirming. Students are asked to extend themselves as learners, to take intellectual risks, to struggle sometimes as beginners as they enter an environment of abstract ideas and a system of learning that goes beyond the facts and the basics. Students are provided ample opportunities to collaborate and work with other students in teams. Students will use "Universal Themes" or overarching ideas that connect across the disciplines such as Power, Relationships, Change, Patterns, and Systems. Understanding and applying these concepts to the study of history, literature, math and science is the cornerstone of our unique curriculum.

In addition, the program emphasizes music, technology, art, and community involvement. Hands-on and real-world experiences are visible in all parts of the program, including indoor and outdoor science labs, offsite field studies, and a 3-day outdoor educational experience with NatureBridge at the Marin Headlands. We emphasize inquiry, modeling, designing solutions to problems, and communicating and reasoning with evidence. This framework allows children to form complex understandings of the subjects and provides a system to understand new content with depth and complexity.

As mentioned above, SRACS was designed to be housed on a middle school campus and that the power of the program comes from its use of depth, complexity, novelty, and differentiation for all students. Being housed on a middle school campus provides access to a breadth of curriculum options, access to a middle school library, and opportunities for after-school enrichment that are not available at a traditional elementary school campus.

In addition, students have the unique opportunity to experience a seamless educational transition to their 7th grade year, since students will slowly acculturate to the middle school through sharing resources and in participating in appropriate courses and co-curricular options throughout their charter school experience.

Students who enter the charter school will have the following transition options upon completing their 6th grade year with the charter:

- Remaining in the District program for that attendance area
- Returning to the District program of the student's attendance zone
- Applying for open enrollment, subject to the regulations defined within that process.

Finally, we have worked for over 20 years to create a partnership with our immediate community and the SRACS students' benefit from experiencing participation in a larger community including the neighboring pre-school, parks, creeks, regional library, local businesses, host middle school and high school that is walking distance away. SRACS endeavors to involve all stakeholders in meaningful participation and contribution to the community. SRACS provides parent training on how to support their students in addition to providing many ways for parents to volunteer. Parents, students, faculty, administration, and local community partners are engaged in the continuous process of improvement of the community as a whole in addition to the success of the school. Community members model for students engaged in citizenship in a variety of ways and students practice participation in the process of community engagement and improvement. For example, students and parents write letters to board members. Students and parents both advise on the school's Advisory Committee. Students produce a newspaper. Alumni students mentor SRACS students and SRACS students mentor pre-school students.

What it means to be an educated person in the 21st century

The 21st century will be characterized by an expanding, technology driven, complex and changing global community. Students will need to be at home with technology, be creative thinkers, and develop critical thinking and problem solving skills as well as flexibility and adaptability. Educating students in preparation for this complex world best occurs when students:

- work collaboratively,
- incorporate technology,
- generate their own questions
- learn with both depth and breadth,
- engage in self-reflection,
- enjoy challenging curriculum in a safe and affirming environment,
- engage in interactive projects,
- and explore many learning modalities.

After two years at SRACS, students make solid progress toward becoming “self-motivated, competent, and lifelong learners” that are prepared for the evolving world of the 21st century.

Challenges

SRACS's pupil outcomes consistently compare favorably to comparable schools both in the district, in the state and nationally. SRACS accomplishes this success despite having the following challenges that appear annually in surveys of parents and staff. For the purposes of the Charter Renewal process, a town hall meeting was held that utilized a Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats (SWOT) protocol to collect input from 2025-2026 families, alumni families, and the community at large. (See Appendix F.) Attendance was robust at the Town Hall, which was followed by the distribution of an online Google survey for the 2025-2026 families that could not attend in person. (See Appendix G.) There were 51 respondents to the Google survey.

The most common weakness cited in both sets of data was that the leadership that includes administration and lead teachers who handle the day to day operation of the school are in general “stretched thin.” Secondly, parents cited “Communication gaps / transparency issues” and “Staffing shortages and resource” shortages.

During most of the past 20 or so years, the school has needed a full time, dedicated administrator. This scenario has never been feasible for budget reasons. As such some aspects of the SRACS mission and vision cannot be fully realized. During some years, the school has benefited from having a dedicated half-time (0.4 or 0.5 FTE) administrator. The school has certainly better accomplished its mission and fulfilled the vision of the charter in the years where a half time administrator is provided in the budget for the school in addition to the support of the host school's principal.

In conclusion, the community values SRACS's rigorous academic program, dedicated staff, and collaborative environment and seeks to preserve these core strengths. The feedback summarized in the reports will inform next steps with regard to facility needs, and resource planning. Continued engagement with staff, families, and district partners will be essential to ensuring that any changes align with SRACS's mission and maintain the high-quality educational experience that staff, families and students have come to expect.

Curriculum and Instruction

SRACS's target population is those students who would benefit from a more challenging curriculum that asks them to think deeply about the standards that are being covered. SRACS is limited to 64 students at each grade level. As stated previously, the fundamental belief of SRACS is that all students can learn with depth and complexity, if provided meaningful learning experiences that tap into those areas in which students have significant interest, passion, or talents. Therefore, SRACS provides a basic framework for a challenging standards-based core curriculum that infuses technology and teamwork into its daily work. The core content areas will be standards-based (Common Core and NGSS); thus students transitioning from the charter to the feeder middle school will receive similar content as their peers. The teachers see the grade level standards as the floor from which they build upon rather than as a ceiling which students need not surpass. Core teachers are specialists across strongly connected discipline areas: they are either focused on Math and Science (STEM) or they are focused on English Language Arts and History (the Humanities). Additionally, the teachers plan for integration and inquiry across their discipline areas and encourage students to "Think Like Disciplinarians" which is but one of the facets of the Depth and Complexity Framework. Units of study encourage each student's thinking, problem solving, and performance tasks toward the highest stages of Bloom's Taxonomy (synthesis, analysis, and evaluation).

Technology and making connections across disciplines are key elements of the educational experience. Students are engaged in high interest, standards-based, real-world experiences that promote individualized learning through depth and complexity. Students are challenged to grow in areas where they have weaknesses and push through the discomfort of uncertainty. We feel this opportunity is critical for some students to be able to grapple with the problems and complexities of our planet by helping them to understand our changing world and their place in it. We feel that it is this engagement with complexity and a willingness to explore possibilities and work in teams that makes for both a lifelong learner as well as a 21st century learner.

The uniqueness of SRACS is not only in the embedded use of technology in students' daily learning, but in the following ways in which the charter believes learning best occurs:

- The teaching and learning of core content standards will focus on breadth and depth of understanding of the overarching standards. Standards-based instruction will not simply be a "covering" of those standards on the part of the teacher, but of students working together to apply their conceptual understanding of those standards in various and meaningful ways.
- Students have the opportunity to choose the lens through which they explore and make meaning of the core curriculum. At SRACS, each child is provided a rigorous challenging curriculum in a safe and affirming environment allowing children to form complex understandings of the subjects. They are provided a system to understand new content with acceleration, depth, complexity and novelty.

Overview of The Frameworks

At SRACS, the instructional design across the discipline areas is based on the work of Dr. Sandra Kaplan, Dr. Lynn Erickson, Dr. Carol Ann Tomlinson, and Dr. Joyce VanTassel-Baska. The staff refer to this instructional design as the Framework. For context, three school districts in California that also use the same instructional design framework are Oak Park Unified School District K-8, Long Beach Unified School District K-8, and Rosedale Union School District.

Each lesson is linked to an overarching big idea or concept. Concepts are explored using the work of Hilda Taba to help students make sense of the categories that exist within concepts. Lessons are varied with both inductive and deductive approaches. Problem based learning is incorporated where students are given open problems to solve with no one correct answer. The ideas of Acceleration, Depth, Complexity and Novelty as outlined below are key to our instruction. Thinking Like a Disciplinarian is also integrated into the units of study. Instructional design in math is additionally inspired by the work of Dr. Peter Liljedahl's Building Thinking Classrooms Framework (BTC) and Dr. Jo Boaler's Big Ideas Framework. Big ideas in math and creating a culture of thinking and collaboration with a community of mathematicians are key components.

Accomplishing the goals described in the mission, vision, and curriculum is most empowered with the support of an administrator who is highly collaborative, dedicated to the Frameworks described in the charter, interested in attending professional development related to the Frameworks, able to reach out to the community to build partnerships with the school, and experienced with coaching students who are adjusting to the challenges of the program both academically and in terms of social/emotional growth.

Acceleration

- Acceleration encompasses more than simply moving gifted or high ability learners through the curriculum at a faster pace or providing a second grade student with fourth grade work. Acceleration focuses on how we can orient a student towards “accelerated levels of thinking and levels of knowing” (California Association for the Gifted, 1994, 2005).

- Acceleration of thinking and knowing involves differentiating the core curriculum to provide challenge and opportunities above and beyond grade-level content. Instructional strategies to differentiate the core curriculum through acceleration include: (a) connections to Universal Concepts: POWER, CHANGE, PATTERNS, SYSTEMS, STRUCTURE, RELATIONSHIPS, CONFLICT, ORDER vs. CHAOS, and (b) the teaching of the disciplines or “Thinking Like a Disciplinarian” -- viewing the same topic from different disciplinary perspectives: economy, geography, linguistics, sociology, psychology to see the interdisciplinary connections of a single topic, theme, or event.

Depth

- Differentiation using “depth” refers to approaching something or studying something from the following patterns to pursue the topic in greater detail and to a greater understanding: (a) from the concrete to the abstract and from the abstract to the concrete, (b) from the familiar to the unfamiliar and from the unfamiliar to the familiar, and (c) from the known to the unknown and from the unknown to the known.
- Delving deeper into content requires students to examine topics by determining the facts, concepts, generalizations, principles, and theories related to them. Key words such as: language of the discipline, patterns, details, trends, ethics, big ideas, unanswered questions, and rules represent the means by which students elaborate on their thinking and understanding of a topic. According to CAG (2005), depth is moving from patterns to trends; it proceeds from rules to structure to ethics, from simple “pragmatism to speculation.” As students move through the different patterns of thinking, they form large conceptual foundations of subject matter.

Complexity

- Differentiation using “complexity” involves moving students beyond a surface level understanding, from an analysis of what is intended to what is inferential. Complex thinking requires students to view the implications of something NOW and something OVER TIME -- to see its connections and applications across the spectrum in a fluid rather than a static orientation.
- Differentiating the complexity of the core curriculum can be accomplished by extending the content to the study of issues, problems, and themes. Complexity involves making relationships between and among ideas, connecting to other concepts, and bridges to other disciplines. Key words of complexity consist of: overtime, multiple perspectives, and interdisciplinarity.
- The teacher’s challenge in differentiating the complexity of a task or subject matter is to assist the student in seeing the myriad of facets that the topic consists of: to see associations among diverse subjects, to find multiple solutions to the problem, and to analyze or evaluate those solutions from multiple points of view (CAG, 2005).

Novelty

- Providing advanced learning with differentiation through novelty depends upon the students' perceptions and responses. Novelty means that teachers can stimulate students in the following ways: (a) the use of critical thinking, creative thinking, and problem solving skills, (b) encouraging students to seek original interpretations of existing information, and (c) encouraging the development of aptitude or interest-based learning experiences. Students can explore their own interests and passions through self-directed ancillary projects.
- According to CAG (California Association for Gifted- 2005), novelty complements depth and complexity by providing inquiry and exploration into seemingly disparate and incongruent topics that lead students to create new, original, and/or reorganized knowledge structures. Key words of novelty include: irony, paradox, origin, parallel, contribution and convergence. These higher level concepts can be used in conjunction with discipline specific concepts to help students engage in unique inquiries.

These increased options provide students with enriched educational opportunities far beyond the traditional elementary school setting while simultaneously providing the unique prospect of becoming true stewards of their own learning.

Furthermore, SRACS believes that learning in isolation is not a reflection of the society in which our students are contributing members. Therefore, program development will be based upon collaboration, metacognition, and connectivity. Collaboration will occur between and among teachers, students, parents/guardians, and community stakeholders. Students will be provided myriad opportunities for teamwork, self-reflection and assessment, through a curriculum that values the learning process equally to that of finished products. As a result, students will develop the critical thinking and metacognitive skills necessary to guide their own learning. Whenever feasible, the curriculum will be interdisciplinary and provide students with real-world application of their learning.

SRACS is located on a middle school campus, giving it access not only to facilities but also to staff trained in discipline-specific education. Students move between discipline-specific classrooms—usually one focused on ELA and History and another focused on Math and Science. This environment gives students:

- Daily music education from specialized secondary school music teachers
- Physical education taught by specialized teachers
- Access to a more robust middle school library
- Opportunities for vertical teaming for learning
- A seamless transition to secondary school
- Preparation to enter, and be ready for, the accelerated core classes in the next grades.
- Greater course offerings, clubs, and activities while at SRACS

SRACS also utilizes outdoor environments as part of their educational space. This incorporation of the outdoors in the teaching at SRACS helps students to feel connected to the natural world.

The instructional approach at SRACS focuses on two key ideas.

- Not all students learn in the same way nor equally well from the same sources so there will be a use of differentiated curriculum in content, process and product.
- The school's educational program recognizes that children are variously gifted, and subscribes that there are many learning modalities, such as, linguistic, mathematical/ logical, intrapersonal (self), interpersonal (others), bodily-kinesthetic, spatial, and musical that all students should experience. With this in mind, all students engage regularly in not only the four core subject areas and physical education but also in art and music.

Therefore, at SRACS the lessons can be differentiated for each student based on readiness, novelty, learning style and/or interest. The goal of this framework for teaching will provide students with a ladder on which they can climb as high as they wish. Instruction will be provided by highly qualified staff that will employ a wide range of engaging instructional strategies that support attainment of high academic standards. All SRACS educators also embrace collaboration and ongoing professional development.

At SRACS we believe that struggle is part of the learning process; thus incorrect answers are seen as opportunities for growth. All students work to correct and revise work to a higher level. Struggling students are given multiple opportunities to show mastery of standards. This is accomplished through spiraling of the curriculum. Students are frequently given opportunities to work in small groups with peers and the teacher to help clarify and reinforce concepts. Digital communication is used consistently with parents. When the need arises, teachers use physical planners that are signed both at school and at home to help communicate with and work with parents/guardians to assist students struggling with academic and social skills. In addition to in class assistance, SRACS offers an intensive after school tutoring session known as "Academic Workshop" which supports both students who are achieving below grade level and students who are achieving above expectations or desire more challenge.

Adhering to the Frameworks for the differentiated instructional planning described above allows teachers to successfully meet the needs of all students in all subgroups: English Learners, Socio-Economically Disadvantaged, Special Education, Under-Achieving, Non-Proficient, and General Education.

Professional Development Plan

Professional development planning is a high priority in our annual planning from self-reflection, the LCAP, budgets, fund raising, recruitment, and staff evaluation and collaboration. The staff and Advisory Committee analyze data (iReady, CAASSP, Panarama, YouthTruth, teacher selected surveys and/or observations), identify needs and brainstorm solutions to concerns, and each SRACS teacher engages in professional development each year. The SRACS program has evolved over the years inspired by the approaches, philosophy, and curriculum associated with Dr Lynn Erickson, Dr. Carol Ann Tomlinson, Dr. Sandra Kaplan, Dr. Lucy Caulkins, Dr. Joe Renzulli, Dr. Jo Boaler and more recently Dr. Peter Liljedahl. As such, staff frequent professional development annually at events organized by the California Association for the Gifted, Stanford CSET, NSTA, California Mathematics Council, ASCD, and Sonoma County Office of Education. In 2024-2025 and 2025-2026, at least one teacher from each department and at least one teacher for each of the grade levels has attended the CAG Conference. In previous years, teachers received training through the SRCS and SCOE on Norman Webb’s Depth of Knowledge Framework, Carol Dweck’s Growth Mindset, Laurence Hall of Science BaySci, and Dr. Boaler’s Mathematical Mindsets, to name a few. Additionally, SRACS staff have a history of giving back to the District through providing professional development opportunities at District-organized professional development events, joining District curriculum design collaboratives, writing grants for professional development, and participating on a variety of program committees.

Bell Schedule and Instructional Calendar

At SRACS students spend equal time in two core curriculum classrooms each day. Math and Science are taught by one specialized teacher in each grade and English Language Arts and History-Social Science are taught by another specialized teacher. Students also participate in daily music instruction. PE is taught 2-3 times a week. Students alternate the class in which they begin the day every other day.

In order to accomplish its course objectives, SRACS has a unique, ten-day schedule (see the sample schedule above) that allows for equal instructional hours in each core curriculum subject in both morning and afternoon hours over the course of ten educational days. This schedule allows students opportunities to spend time in each core class when they are most ready to learn. It also provides students with additional novelty and variety in the school experience. SRACS meets or exceeds the required minutes of the State of California. The school day begins at 8:20 a.m. and ends at 2:45 p.m. On Mondays, there is an early release day with a 1:45 dismissal to allow for staff meetings and collaboration.

As with other schools within Santa Rosa City High School District, the academic calendar is determined by agreement between the District and Santa Rosa Teachers Association (SRTA).

Daily student attendance shall be monitored and recorded in accordance with all requirements of the District’s attendance recording system. Students, parents and guardians understand that daily attendance is expected. SRACS staff and administration have set a goal of 98% overall average daily attendance. In the 2024-2025 academic school year, the average daily attendance was 96.73%. In rare instances of chronic absenteeism, letters are sent home, and parents and guardians will have a conference with the principal.

The SRCS 2025-2026 Instructional Calendar, on the next page, is an example of the annual instructional calendar. The instructional minutes guiding the charter school operation are in line with those required of other California schools, a minimum of 54,000 minutes per instructional year for grades 4 through 6.

Meeting the Needs of All Students: English Language Learners

Identification

A Home Language Survey (HLS) is used to identify potential English Language Learners (ELLs). ELLs are identified using the English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC), which is administered by a designated Family Engagement Facilitator. SRACS utilizes the Initial ELPAC upon student entry (unless their CELDT or ELPAC record is available from their previous California public school) and annually, as required, using the Summative ELPAC. This process will enable the school to assess both the placement and the progress of English Learners. SRACS annually administers the ELPAC (English Language Proficiency Assessment for California) for ELLs to determine the language proficiency of English Language Learners and identify students who should be designated Reclassified Fluent English Proficient (RFEP). The Family Engagement Facilitator provides ongoing testing and monitoring of EL Learners. Following District policy, SRACS then provides appropriate language services and programs to meet the needs of individual students.

Students who achieve the State “English Proficient” standard (Level 4) for the ELPAC may be considered for reclassification according to criteria determined by the District and the California Department of Education that will include SBAC performance in ELA, teacher evaluations, and parent consultation. SRACS staff will adhere to District guidelines for reclassification. Students who are reclassified as RFEP will continue to be monitored for academic progress for at least four years to determine that they have not been prematurely exited, that any academic deficit they incurred as a result of participation in the EL program has been remedied, and that students are meaningfully participating in the standard instructional program comparable to their English Only (EO) peers.

At SRACS advanced learners who are ELLs are effectively served through performance based evaluation, nonverbal assignments and evaluations, and student conferencing. All students are given some choice in how they are evaluated allowing them to demonstrate their knowledge and understanding using their talents. Differentiating for our advanced ELLs will include a spectrum of social, emotional, artistic, cognitive, logical reasoning and linguistic factors. Inquiry approach and interdisciplinary curriculum will be available to our advanced ELLs.

Appropriately Qualified Staff

All administrators and teaching personnel hold appropriate certifications, such as CLAD, BCLAD, or equivalent, to provide necessary instructional services to ELLs.

Services and Programs

Because SRACS includes 5th and 6th grades, students who were identified at a younger age have often exited the program by the time they enter SRACS. If an EL student comes to SRACS needing support, SRACS is prepared to provide the required base program for ELs, the English Language Acceleration Program (ELAP). The ELAP instructional program focuses on building disciplinary and general academic language. SRACS English language program delivers grade-level ELD instruction in Designated ELD and Integrated ELD. This ELD instruction is considered at the Tier 1 level under the MTSS system and is standard for all learners.

Designated ELD instruction

All students study roots, prefixes, and suffixes to support the decoding of words and additionally utilize Membean, an individualized, adaptive, root-based language training software. In disciplines, students get direct instruction in vocabulary using graphic organizers such as word webs and Frayer models.

Our English language program reserves and protects the daily required minutes to comply with Designated ELD instruction. Our Certificated Teachers work with individual students to meet the daily required minutes. The teacher in collaboration with an Instructional Assistant will engage students with specific ELD lessons from our regular curriculum. This includes TCI social studies, FOSS science, Everyday Math, Common Lit, and CPM. These lessons incorporate vocabulary, reading, writing, speaking and listening.

Integrated ELD Instruction

In addition to Designated ELD, grade-level English content is integrated into the core curriculum through daily EL teaching strategies. The SRACS ELD teachers will continue to attain professional development to improve their skills at delivering effective ELD strategies. SRACS will maintain the ELD program through purposeful planning, cooperative learning, appropriate scaffolding, and incorporating the principles of Universal Design for Learning, and by adhering to the California Common Core ELD standards. The joint effort and commitment between teachers and administration to monitor the progress of RFEP students and to reduce the number of LTELs (Long Term English Language Learners) is a priority.

Meeting the Needs of All Students: MTSS and General Education Student Support Services

Students at SRACS in need of academic or behavioral support will enter into the MTSS process (Multi-Tiered System of Support). The MTSS process is first initiated by a SRACS certificated staff member who fills out an academic or behavioral referral form. A designated MTSS team then meets to review these referral forms and to advise what next steps need to be taken within the tiers of support. Areas of concern at this stage are under the general education branch. These areas are student-centered as we strive for: academic success (struggling learners, gifted learners, EL learners), behavioral success, and social-emotional success.

When necessary, a Student Study Team consisting of: principal, teachers, support staff, and parents/guardians will meet to design a Student Action Plan. This collaborative team meets to discuss student strengths and needs in order to determine and align high-quality, differentiated interventions required to support the student in need. These determinations are then set into an Action Plan.

The Student Study Team also determines: the duration and frequency of the intervention, who is in charge of the intervention, how the intervention will be progress monitored, and how data will be collected and measured to gauge the validity or weakness of the intervention. The team will later review the collected data to either maintain or adjust the existing intervention.

Students who are substantially below grade level and not making adequate progress will be referred to a variety of support services including, but not limited to, Academic Workshop, which is an afterschool program designed to support students who need additional challenge, access to technology for adaptive practice with IXL, for example, or who need one-on-one reteaching.

If all three tiers are exhausted and the intervention has been unsuccessful, as shown by data, consultation with specialized services will be considered to determine next steps.

Specialized Student Needs: Special Education

SRACS shall adhere to all provisions of federal law related to students with disabilities including, but not limited to, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504), Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 (IDEA), and their implementing regulations, as well as state special education law and its implementing regulations. SRACS shall ensure that no student otherwise eligible to enroll in the Charter School shall be denied, directly or indirectly, admission or encouraged or counseled out of its program due to a disability or to SRACS' inability to provide necessary services. SRACS acknowledges that policies and procedures are in place to ensure the recruitment, enrollment, service, and retention of students with disabilities at SRACS.

SRACS understands its responsibility to ensure that all children with disabilities who need special education and related services are identified, located, and evaluated, regardless of the severity of the disability. For students who are struggling academically, the following process is in place. The student's teachers will meet with the parents/guardians before requesting an SST meeting. An SST/MTSS referral form, describing student challenges and interventions already tried and/or in place, will be submitted to the Principal. A Student Study Team (SST) consisting of teachers, Principal, counselor or psychologist, parents/guardians and other concerned staff will convene to discuss student needs. A multi-tiered model of service delivery including interventions will be recommended by the team and then monitored by the team.

The assessment referral process shall include Student Study Team (SST) meetings to review prior interventions, accommodations and modifications, and to recommend further interventions as appropriate. The referral process shall be supported by the Response to Intervention (RtI) model approach using data to identify student strengths and weaknesses. Upon review of accumulated data, observation and review of records, SRACS may determine that assessment is necessary to determine possible eligibility for special education programs and related services.

Additionally, upon a parent's request for assessment, the SRACS team will convene an SST meeting to review and discuss the request in light of student records, acquired data and student performance to agree with or deny the request for assessment. If SRACS determines that assessment for special education eligibility is not warranted, prior written notice must be given to the parent/guardian with a clear rationale for such refusal within 15 days of the request. If SRACS concludes that there are suspected disabilities, it must develop an assessment plan to assess in all areas of suspected disabilities. The assessment plan will describe the types of assessments that may be used to determine the eligibility of students for special education instruction and services.

After receiving parents/guardians' written consent, SRACS will conduct comprehensive assessments in all areas of suspected disability, which will include parent, teacher, and when appropriate, student input. Assessments will meet all legal requirements and be completed within legal timelines.

Following the conclusion of the assessment and within the required timeline, SRACS shall convene an individualized education program (IEP) team meeting that includes required team members, including parents/guardians, a SRACS administrator/representative, a general education teacher, a special education teacher or provider, and individuals who can interpret the assessments, within mandated timelines to discuss results, determine eligibility, and (if eligible) develop a written IEP. Eligibility shall be a decision made by the IEP team, which shall consider assessment data and determine whether a student meets the criteria for one or more of the eligibility categories under the IDEA and whether, as a result of the disability(ies), the student requires special education and related services to access the general education curriculum. The IEP team will consider data regarding Student's present levels of academic and functional performance and develop measurable annual goals—and if needed, short-term objectives. The IEP team will also consider and determine program and placement, and identify any accommodations, modifications, or other supports for the student, as well as related services. Parents must consent to an initial IEP for SRACS to begin implementation.

For students who qualify for special education and related services, SRACS will conduct an annual review of each student's IEP by convening an IEP team with all required team members and will conduct triennial reevaluations of students in accordance with the law. Additionally, SRACS will provide parents/guardians with progress reports in accordance with the IEP regarding student's progress towards meeting annual goals .

To exit a student from special education, the IEP team must consider recent assessment data and determine that the student no longer meets criteria under any of the eligibility categories or that the student no longer requires special education and related services to access the general education curriculum. .

Every attempt will be made to provide needed services at SRACS through the assistance of Special Services and/or other specialists such as a Speech and Language therapist. However, if the needs cannot be accommodated at the site, other alternatives, such as a contract with outside agencies, may be explored.

Students at SRACS in need of Special Education services are assured support. As a dependent District charter school, SRACS will be served by the SRCS Department of Special Services and Sonoma County Special Education Local Plan Area (SELPA) through Sonoma County Office of Education.² A Program Manager, who monitors the legal concerns as well as the educational program, is responsible for programmatic needs and benefits for the school at large, and will adhere to all requirements of federal law as found in Individuals with Disabilities Educational Act (IDEA). SRACS will use District forms to develop, maintain, and review assessments and IEPs in the format required by the District. SRACS will maintain copies of assessments and IEP materials for District review. SRACS will submit to the District all required reports in a timely manner as necessary to comply with state and federal requirements. SRACS will participate in the state quality assurance process for special education (i.e., verification reviews, coordinated compliance self-reviews, complaints monitoring, procedural safeguards, and the local plan.) Proactive intervention will be implemented on a school-wide basis so that a problem-solving model for assistance (as opposed to a deficit model) is employed. Other possible interventions, for response to other needs, may include assistance from a school psychologist, a speech and language specialist, an occupational therapist or a behavior specialist. A Resource teacher will be available at SRACS to deliver SAI (Specialized Academic Instruction) minutes.

Parents/guardians of students with IEPs at SRACS must be included in the decision-making process and development regarding their child's IEP. SRACS understands the requirement under the IDEA to follow procedures to provide access to due process and the protections conferred by the IDEA procedural safeguards and shall provide parents with such copy of procedural safeguards as required by law.

SRACS will follow District adopted policies and procedures for the investigation and resolution of and response to parental concerns or complaints related to special education services including alleged violation of federal or state laws governing educational programs. Parents/guardians have the right to initiate a due process hearing to challenge a decision regarding the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of, or provision of a free and appropriate public education to, their child. SRACS acknowledges its responsibility to resolve disputes or defend due process complaints arising as a result of the any alleged failure to provide FAPE to students enrolled in the SRACS.

Section 504

SRACS will comply with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and all Office of Civil Rights mandates for students enrolled in SRACS. SRACS will ensure that no qualified student with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program offered through SRACS. SRACS will meet the needs of students with disabling conditions under Section 504.

The principal or other designated site administrator shall assemble a 504 team, which shall include the parent/guardian, teacher(s), student (where appropriate), and other qualified persons knowledgeable about the student. The 504 team shall review the student's existing records, including academic, social and behavioral records, as well as any new information provided to the team, and is responsible for making a determination as to whether an evaluation for Section 504 services is appropriate. If the student has already been evaluated under the IDEA but found ineligible for special education instruction or related services under the IDEA, those evaluations may be used to help determine eligibility under Section 504. The evaluation for eligibility for a Section 504 plan shall be carried out by the 504 team, which shall evaluate the nature of the student's disability and the impact upon the student's education.

This evaluation shall include consideration of any behaviors that interfere with regular participation in the educational program and/or activities. The 504 team may also consider the following information in its evaluation:

- Tests and other evaluation materials that have been validated for the specific purpose for which they are used and are administered by trained personnel.
- Tests and other evaluation materials including those tailored to assess specific areas of educational need, and not merely those which are designed to provide a single general intelligence quotient.
- Tests are selected and administered to ensure that when a test is administered to a student with impaired sensory, manual or speaking skills, the test results accurately reflect the student's aptitude or achievement level, or whatever factor the test purports to measure, rather than reflecting the student's impaired sensory, manual or speaking skills.

The final determination of whether the student is eligible for accommodations under Section 504 must be made by the 504 team in writing. Written notice of such determination and a copy of procedural safeguards available must be provided to the parents/guardians of the student in their primary language.

If during the evaluation the 504 team obtains information indicating possible eligibility of the student for special education under the IDEA, a referral for assessment under the IDEA shall be made by the 504 team.

If the student is found by the 504 team to have a disability under Section 504, the 504 team shall be responsible for determining what, if any, accommodations or services are needed to ensure that the student receives a free appropriate public education (“FAPE”). In developing the 504 plans, the 504 team shall consider all relevant information utilized during the evaluation of the student. The 504 Plan shall describe the Section 504 disability and any program accommodations, modifications or services that may be necessary.

All 504 team participants, parents/guardians, teachers, and any other participants in the student’s education, including substitutes and tutors, must have access to a copy of each student’s 504 plan. The principal shall ensure that substitutes have copies of students’ 504 plans. A copy of the 504 plans shall be maintained in the student’s cumulative file. Each student’s 504 plan shall be reviewed at least once per year to determine the appropriateness of the plan, needed modifications to the plan, and continued eligibility.

Meeting the Needs of All Students: SRACS Students Benefit from Community Involvement

Parent and community volunteers provide valuable support for SRACS programs and activities. Parent volunteers coach sports and Odyssey of the Mind teams. Lego Robotics is a popular afterschool activity led by former teacher and SRACS founder, Steve Williams. Other clubs and art instruction are led by teachers and other community members. Students can also participate in Mathcounts in coordination with the middle school that shares its campus. Parents staff the Advisory Committee and Student Faculty Parent Organization and provide support in classrooms and as chaperones on field trips. Parents also organize schoolwide activities and fundraising opportunities.

SRACS students also benefit from many links to the broader community. Music mentors from Maria Carrillo High School come to campus to assist SRACS music students twice a week. Students hold music performances in the high school auditorium and hear high school ensembles play. The 6th grade students at SRACS mentor a preschool buddy from the nursery school across the street. SRACS students have also enjoyed participating in food drives for community organizations. Local businesses have an impact by supporting school activities, SFPO Dine and Donate fundraisers at local restaurants, and programs such as the Keysight Volunteering program.

Meeting the Needs of All Students: The Role of the Parents/Guardians

This charter recognizes that students and schools are more successful when parents/guardians, staff, students, and the community work together to support and foster learning for students. Therefore, at SRACS, the education of each child is a joint venture among the parent, student, community and school. To support this goal:

1. Parents/guardians, staff, and community partners will be elected to serve on the school's Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee will meet 6-8 times per year and be responsible for how monies are spent from the budget, providing direction for the school, being a link between the teachers, administration and parents/guardians as well as advocating for the school's needs with SRCS district administration such that the vision and mission of the school continues to move into the future. One of the members will be a liaison to the SFPO (parent club) and make a report at the SFPO meeting.
2. Parents/guardians are encouraged to volunteer their time. Any time that a parent can give to the school community is appreciated. However, parent/guardian involvement is not a condition of admission, enrollment, or a student's good standing. Parents/guardians are also encouraged to volunteer their area of expertise in both in-classroom and after-school activities (coaching, basketball, art, Odyssey of the Mind, Lego Robotics). Such service hours must be flexible and varied so as not to create barriers for a diverse student population. In addition, for parents/guardians who have difficulty with participation, creativity is encouraged, suggestions are welcome, and the school community strives to ignite the passions of all parents so that all students can observe their parents being actively engaged in the school community at some point during the year. Other options can include mentoring or community support. Varied service opportunities could include such things as classroom assistance, field trip transportation, event planning, fundraising support, advisory committee work, tutoring, helping with science labs, joining a judges panel, and reading with students.
3. Staff and the SFPO volunteer coordinator will provide outreach to students and their parents/guardians to create two way communication and will use a variety of methods to reach out to families including, but not limited to, ParentSquare weekly newsletters, announcements for monthly Advisory Committee and Parent Organization meetings, notes for the family in student planners, and fliers sent home with students according to the District policy for fliers. Opportunities for engagement as a community will be encouraged and might include:
 - Parent Education Nights
 - Family-Fun Nights or Trivia Night
 - Movie Nights
 - Pi Night
 - Whole School Halloween Party
 - Beginning of Year BBQ in the Park
 - End of Year Talent Show
 - End of Year Picnic in the Park

- Dine and Donate Events on and off Campus

ELEMENT B: MEASURABLE STUDENT OUTCOMES

The measurable pupil outcomes identified for use by the charter school. "Pupil outcomes," for purposes of this part, means the extent to which all pupils of the school demonstrate that they have attained the skills, knowledge, and attitudes specified as goals in the school's educational program. Pupil outcomes shall include outcomes that address increases in pupil academic achievement both schoolwide and for all groups of pupils served by the charter school, as that term is defined in subdivision (a) of Section 52052. The pupil outcomes shall align with the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served by the charter school.

Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(B).

Standardized Testing

SRACS agrees to comply with and adhere to state requirements for participation and administration of all state mandated tests, including computer-based assessments. SRACS shall test with the District and adhere to District testing calendars and procedures for all state mandated assessments. SRACS shall submit and maintain up-to-date and accurate school and student data used or required by the District. SRACS is committed to improving outcomes for students.

Measurable Goals

The California Common Core Standards (CCSS) for ELA and Math, California ELD Standards, Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS) and the California State Standards for Social Studies-History (collectively, "Standards") provide the guide for measurable student outcomes in the core subject areas, and these Standards will be the basis for all teaching and learning at SRACS. Furthermore, SRACS sees the grade level Standards as the "floor" and not the "ceiling" in terms of learning outcomes.

The Standards serve as a benchmark or guide for what students at each grade level need to learn and they provide a guide for teachers, parents and students in terms of the specific, basic knowledge and skills the student must endeavor to master. From this foundation, at SRACS, we like to say that next, the students "will shoot for the stars." Cross curricular, hands-on, problem-based and inquiry activities built on the Depth and Complexity Framework and the Building Thinking Classrooms Framework and will meet or exceed the State Standards. This perspective on the state standards also applies to our work with PE, Art, and Music and is only made possible due to our strong integration with our middle school host site and the middle school teachers that we partner with. Our goal is to provide a challenging, 21st Century curriculum that will not only meet but also exceed the minimum thresholds established by the District and the State.

If students are going to be held to high standards, they need teachers who are experts in their subject areas and how to teach them using the most current approaches. For this reason, SRACS endeavors to attract and retain teachers who have multiple teaching credentials and/or Master's Degrees in Education. The program planning prioritizes on-going teacher professional development. Teachers will be proficient at evaluating student academic achievement through a variety of comprehensive academic assessments. These include performance and technology-based academic assessments, computer adaptive assessments, projects, and extended performance task assessments.

The SRACS 2024-2025 Local Control and Accountability Plan \(LCAP\) outlines the eight state priorities and our commitment to meeting the goals outlined within the LCAP. The most recent LCAP is provided as an attachment to this charter renewal in Appendix E. Furthermore, SRACS acknowledges and agrees that it must comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to AB 97 (Local Control Funding Formula), in accordance with District policies and procedures, as may be amended from time to time.

In addition to the above discussion of The Standards, SRACS students are expected to develop the habits of mind (Scholarly Traits) and the skills and abilities listed in the following table:

Academic Goals	Benchmark

ELEMENT C: METHODS TO ASSESS STUDENT PROGRESS TOWARDS MEETING OUTCOMES

"The method by which pupil progress in meeting those pupil outcomes is to be measured. To the extent practicable, the method for measuring pupil outcomes for state priorities shall be consistent with the way information is reported on a school accountability report card."

Education Code 47605(c)(5)(C)

Students at SRACS are successful due to the program design. Because the program design values students' interests and real world connections, the program evolves to meet the needs of each class of students. Additionally, the teachers are always looking outwardly at innovation and new ideas in order to refine the program based on research. The program is successful because of the collaboration between the teachers and the community as well as because of the ongoing collaboration with each individual student.

SRACS affirms that its methods for measuring pupil outcomes shall be consistent with the way information is reported on the SRACS School Accountability Report Card ("SARC") in accordance with Education Code section 47605(c) and that SRACS is committed to improving outcomes for students. Additionally, the SRACS 2024-2025 Local Control and Accountability Plan \(LCAP\) outlines the state priorities and our commitment to meeting the goals outlined within the LCAP. The most recent LCAP is provided as an attachment to this charter renewal petition in Appendix E.

Students in SRACS are expected to demonstrate progress in meeting or exceeding the District's academic standards in English-language arts, mathematics, science, and social science. Student competence is measured by students "meeting or exceeding" grade level standards. The school's progress is measured by BP 0500 District and School Performance Objectives and the state's guidelines from Public School Accountability Act 1999.

In the development of lifelong learners, the charter values the learning process equally to content and product. Therefore, the assessment system at SRACS is a combination of formative and summative assessments to provide regular feedback to staff, students and parents/guardians regarding student progress. This varied feedback will include many of the following: daily work, homework, comprehensive classroom assessments, portfolios, presentations, district benchmark assessments, and state assessments.

In addition to informal and regular feedback, parents/guardians and students receive standards-based report cards three times each year that provide insight into the academic performance level of the student. SRACS currently utilizes a similar standards based report card used by Santa Rosa City Schools that the Charter School staff refined to better meet the needs of parents/guardians, students, and staff.

Standardized Testing

SRACS agrees to comply with state requirements for participation and administration of all state-mandated tests, including computer-based assessments (CAASPP, CAST, ELPAC) as well as California Alternate Assessments for qualifying students with disabilities (“CAA”). This data is used at the beginning of the year to help teachers understand the baseline achievement of their students. SRACS shall submit complete, accurate, and up-to-date data in accordance with the requirements of California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 861 with the assistance of the District. SRACS will use the Interim Assessments to support teaching and learning and preparation for the CAASPP, monitoring progress throughout the year on the Common Core Standards.

SRACS endeavors to maintain overall scores on the Smarter Balanced Assessment that are in the top 10% and our goal is for all subgroups to exceed the rates of the District and State achievement percentages.

The SRACS overall school goal is to have 85% or greater of SRACS students scoring proficient or advanced in English Language Arts and Math. Fewer than 4% of students will score Standard Not Met in English Language Arts and Math. Additionally, SRACS will endeavor to have the 5th grade students who take the California Science Test achieve overall with 90% or greater of the students proficient or advanced. With regard to English Language Learners, SRACS’s goal is to have all students acquire English proficiency before leaving SRACS and continuing to middle school, as measured by the ELPAC.

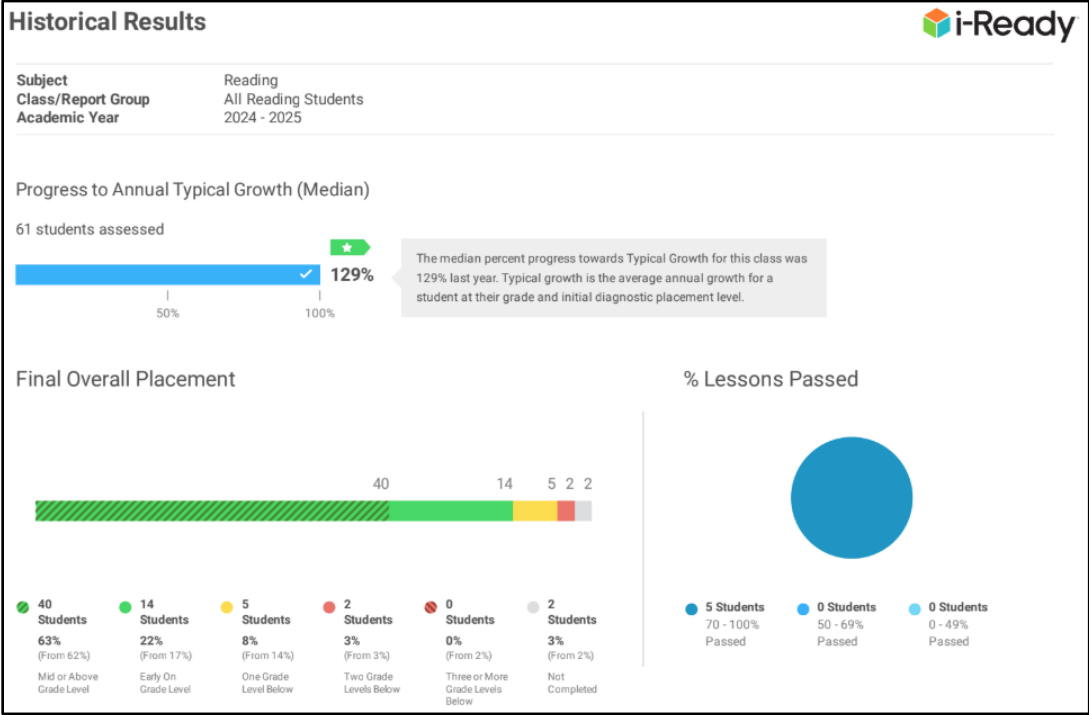

District Benchmark Assessments

Santa Rosa City Schools utilizes the i-Ready computer adaptive assessment at three points during the school year. 2024-2025 was the first year for this benchmark in SRCS. SRACS will utilize i-Ready to communicate with families, to monitor progress, and identify students who need additional support.

Standardized tests, interim assessments, and district benchmark assessments like iReady give teachers a common measure of student performance as well as an indication of what may need to be reviewed. Students that are not making typical or expected progress with regard to the grade level standards can be provided additional support and participate in more frequent and shortened progress monitoring tasks in order to more frequently check to see if supports are successful. One example, students might retake quizzes and be offered alternative ways to show progress on specific standards that are more interest based or project oriented.

In general, SRACS teachers are looking for one year or more of growth in each student regardless of where each student is scoring when given the iReady assessments at the beginning of the year. As the report below demonstrates, the median growth of the 2024-2025 class of 5th grade students was 93% progress toward typical one year growth in reading and median growth of 78% progress toward typical one year growth in math. Staff are using this data for the first time during the 2025-2026 Academic Year in order to reflect on the program and make refinements in order to demonstrate progress toward this goal in the future. There will not be data for the 6th grade class until the completion of the 2025-2026 Academic Year.

Measuring the SRACS Frameworks

In addition to the above, the expectation is that students will develop the habits of mind (Scholarly Traits) and the skills and abilities, which are listed in the table above in Element B. SRACS will utilize specific measurable outcomes, assessment tools, in-class performance tasks and rubrics designed by or selected by the faculty to track students’ progress and provide data about the efficacy of the SRACS Depth and Complexity Framework and the Building Thinking Classrooms Framework. This data will be used to drive decisions about program and curriculum refinements, communicate with families about student progress, as well as inform ongoing professional development planning. These authentic assessments may include: portfolios of significant work, journals, in and out-of-class work samples, homework, teacher-created tests or quizzes, teacher observations, checklists, rubrics, presentations, products, and projects. These types of assessments allow for meaningful application of the skills and knowledge on the part of the students as well as meaningful student samples for evaluating the SRACS program of teaching and learning by the staff. These authentic assessments and performance assessments in conjunction with standardized assessments and district benchmark assessments provide a more comprehensive view of a student's strengths and weaknesses for the parents.

SRACS teachers were members of two Santa Rosa City Schools district committees (Collaborative Curriculum Design \(CCD\) Committee and the Advanced Learners Program and Services Committee). Teachers worked collaboratively for many years as a professional learning community to design curriculum, formative assessments, performance projects and summative assessments that are available district-wide with a wide range of differentiation and assessment options embedded in the 5th and 6th grade units. Portions of the CCD Units of Study that utilize the Depth and Complexity Framework or are aligned well with our mission are utilized to measure students progress with regard to the Common Core Standards, Next Generation Science Standards, and the 21st Century Skills. Each teacher's goal is to select or design curriculum and learning opportunities that are engaging for all students, reveal novel ideas and experiences, expose important Big Ideas, and explore real-world problems while providing student-choice where possible. Teachers use assessment practices that are designed to inspire students to think, create, and learn with depth and complexity while demonstrating their growth in the areas listed in the chart in Element B.

Analyzing Student Outcome Data and Sharing Results with the Community

SRACS values data-based decision making. SRACS endeavors to meet the needs of all students, monitor the school's overall progress, and establish future plans. Each teacher will be responsible for monitoring their students in their classes and the students' ongoing progress both academically as well as social/emotional development. Teachers will continually differentiate the teaching and learning to meet the needs of the students. District benchmark results and progress on the goals for the SRACS program described in Element B are communicated to parents at least three times during the academic year. When there are concerns observed by the teachers, they are communicated with parents and at Staff Meetings more frequently. The principal and teachers will analyze available data at least monthly including but not limited to behavior, academic performance, community engagement, benchmark assessments, and student surveys (Youth Truth, Panorama, Teacher Selected Interest Surveys and Academic Disposition Questionnaires). All such data will also be reviewed and analyzed at the SRACS Advisory Committee Meetings and shared with the entire school community and all interested educational partners.

Grading and Report Cards

Teachers are accountable for assessing their students' achievements with regard to standards-based, grade-level work as well as skills for success on a district aligned triennial report card. The skills for success include:

- following rules, procedures, and directions
- accepts responsibility for actions
- contributes to group work
- perseveres through challenging tasks
- completes work on time

Additionally, SRACS uses a 4-point scoring system (See below) for the core subject areas that is defined specifically for our program by SRACS teachers and is slightly more rigorous than the one used in the District. This SRACS Grading Scale can be found in the school's Handbook. In particular, there are high expectations for students' progress in developing task commitment and building independence with regard to the Scholarly Traits. The Scholarly Traits are a part of the Depth and Complexity Framework and include the following: Intellectual Risk Taking, Use of Varied Resources, Save Ideas, Perseverance, Curiosity, Prepared, Academic Humility, Vision/Goals, Multiple Perspectives, Excellence, Ponder, Compassion.

SRACS Grading Scale

Standards-based Grade— 4 “Exceeding”

Exceeds Trimester Expectations. The student is doing all assigned work, the quality of a student's work is consistently outstanding, and the student is mastering state and district standards for the grade level. Higher order thinking is evident, and students demonstrate in-depth knowledge and application that go beyond what was taught.

Standards-based Grade—3 “Meeting”

Meets Trimester Expectations. The student completes all assigned work. The quality of a student's work is frequently above average, and the student is mastering state and district standards for the grade level. Students are able to complete tasks independently, without teacher support.

Standards-based Grade—2 “Approaching”

Partially Meets Trimester Expectations. The student completes most assigned work. The quality of a student's work is generally satisfactory, and the student is mastering and/or making significant progress towards mastering state and district standards for the grade level. Students needed guidance or support in order to complete the task.

Standards-based Grade—1 “Emerging”

Does Not Meet Trimester Expectations. The quality of student's work is frequently below average, and the student is having difficulty mastering state and district standards for the grade level. The student is not completing most assigned work. Students made minimal effort or little learning evident. Students were unable to complete tasks independently.

N/A—Not Assessed at the time

*Note some work is graded using various point rubrics that do not necessarily align with these grade scales. In these cases, grades will be assigned separately.

SRACS Grading Policy

We will accept late work; however, there will be a grade penalty unless a student has an excused absence. With excused absences, students will receive as many days as they were gone to complete the work. All late assignments will be marked at 2 or below. Students who are absent will be provided a list of work which needs to be made up.

- It is the student’s responsibility to remember what assignments remain outstanding.
- If students are missing more than 3 assignments, they will be asked to complete missing work during the independent work time in the school day.
- All class work & homework is assigned to help students learn and practice the lessons taught. When homework is not completed, the students are behind for the next day’s lesson.

An example of a SRACS report card for fifth grade is provided below. The Common Core standards are slightly different for 6th grade.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

SRACS including its administrators, other employees, and representatives, shall comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) at all times.

Criminal Background Checks and Fingerprinting

As a District-affiliated charter school, in order to guarantee the health and safety of pupils and staff, SRACS shall ensure that all employees and volunteers adhere to the policies and procedures of the District related to fingerprinting and criminal background checks, including requiring each employee to furnish the charter school with a criminal record summary as described in Education Code section 44237.

Immunization and Health Screening Requirements

As a District-affiliated charter school, in order to guarantee the health and safety of pupils and staff, SRACS shall ensure that all employees and volunteers adhere to the policies and procedures of the District related to tuberculosis examination and clearance. SRACS shall comply with and implement all District policies and procedures related to the immunization and health screening of its students, including, but not limited to, the immunization of students as a condition of attendance and screening for vision, hearing, and scoliosis.

Menstrual Products and All-Gender Restroom

SRACS will stock the restrooms at all times with an adequate supply of menstrual products, available and accessible, free of cost, in all women's restrooms and all-gender restrooms, and in at least one men's restroom. SRACS shall post a notice regarding the requirements of this section in a prominent and conspicuous location in every restroom required to stock menstrual products, available and accessible, free of cost, pursuant to this section. This notice shall include the text of this section and contact information, including an email address and telephone number, for a designated individual responsible for maintaining the requisite supply of menstrual products.

SRACS shall provide and maintain at least one all-gender restroom for voluntary student use at each school site that has more than one female restroom and more than one male restroom designated exclusively for student use. The restroom shall have signage identifying the bathroom as being open to all genders, it shall remain unlocked, unobstructed, and easily accessible by any student, and be available during school hours and school functions when students are present. SRACS shall designate a staff member to serve as a point of contact and to post a notice regarding these requirements.

Title IX

SRACS will comply with the requirements of Education Code section 221.61 addressing the rights of a student and the public, and the responsibilities of the charter school under Title IX.

ELEMENT G: STUDENT POPULATION BALANCE

"The means by which the charter school will achieve a balance of racial and ethnic pupils, special education pupils, and English learner pupils, including redesignated fluent English proficient pupils, as defined by the evaluation rubrics in Section 52064.5, that is reflective of the general population residing within the territorial jurisdiction of the school District to which the charter petition is submitted." Education Code 47605(c)(5)(G)

SRACS welcomes all applicants and does not discriminate on the basis of the characteristics listed in Education Code section 220 (actual or perceived disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, favorite color, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in Section 422.55 of the Penal Code or association with an individual who has any of the aforementioned characteristics.) [Ref. Education Code Section 47605 (d) (1).]

The SRACS program has an open enrollment policy and strives to achieve a balance of racial and ethnic, special education, and English Learner students among all enrolled students that is reflective of the general population within the District. The means by which this balance will be achieved will include targeted, native language notification and outreach to prospective parents/guardians in different community clusters, such as various industries in the region, and open houses to the community at large. Outreach includes parent information nights, school tours, flyers and participation in community events to promote the school. As a public charter school, we also comply with state laws governing admissions of charter schools.

The annual report submitted to the Board of Education will report on the progress toward achieving a balance of student groups that is reflective of the District. The following tables demonstrate changes in enrollment by subgroup and by ethnicity.

Federal Program Compliance

As part of the District, which is a recipient of federal funds, SRACS shall meet all programmatic, fiscal, and other regulatory requirements of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

ELEMENT H: ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

“Admission requirements, if applicable.” Education Code 47605(c)(5)(H)

Admission shall be open to all pupils who wish to attend the school. Parents/guardians are encouraged to familiarize themselves with, and commit to, the educational program. Enrollment will be limited only by the capacity of the Charter School in any given year.

SRACS shall post a notice developed by the California Department of Education reflecting the following requirements on its website:

- SRACS shall not discourage a student from enrolling or seeking to enroll in the charter school for any reason, including, but not limited to, academic performance of the student or because the student exhibits any of the characteristics described in Education Code section 47605(d)(2)(B)(iii) (e.g., students with disabilities, academically low-achieving students, etc.)
- SRACS shall not request a student’s records or require a parent/guardian or student to submit the student’s records to the charter school before enrollment.
- SRACS shall not encourage a student currently attending the charter school to disenroll from the charter school or transfer to another school for any reason.

SRACS shall also provide the parent/guardian with a copy of the notice when the parent/guardian or student inquires about enrollment, before conducting an enrollment lottery, and before disenrollment of a student. Each type of admission preference shall be approved by the District at a public hearing. Preferences shall be consistent with federal law, the California Constitution, and Education Code section 200. Preferences shall not result in limiting enrollment access for pupils with disabilities, academically low-achieving pupils, English learners, neglected or delinquent pupils, homeless pupils, or pupils who are economically disadvantaged, as determined by eligibility for any free or reduced-price meal program, foster youth, or pupils based on nationality, race, ethnicity, or sexual orientation. Preferences shall not require mandatory parental volunteer hours as a criterion for admission or continued enrollment. (Education Code section 47605(c)(5)(H).)

Each year, SRACS shall set its maximum student admission cap. SRACS shall use the following admissions procedure to determine enrollment:

1. Admission Requirements: If fewer students than the maximum cap apply to enroll in SRACS by the deadline for submitting applications (“admissions deadline”), the Charter School shall admit all students who apply.
2. Deadline Requirements: SRACS shall only extend the admissions deadline should fewer than the maximum cap apply for admission before the deadline. The Charter School shall only accept applications to admit students after the admissions deadline to reach the maximum cap. After the Charter School receives applications up to the maximum cap, any remaining applicants will be placed on a waitlist and placed in order under the procedure set forth in Step 5.

3. Sibling Preferences: If the Charter School receives applications exceeding the maximum cap prior to the closing of the admissions deadline, it shall determine which students shall enroll in the school in the following manner:

All siblings of students enrolled at and attending the Charter School at the time of the lottery.

- a. If, after admitting all applicants under step 3, there are remaining spaces, the Charter School shall apply the lottery procedure set forth below, starting with Step 4(a), with respect to any remaining applicants.
 - b. In the event that, in the course of implementing step 3, there are a number of applicants who meet the sibling requirement set forth in step 3 that exceeds the maximum cap, the Charter School shall apply the lottery procedure set forth below, starting with Step 4(a), to the group of siblings only, to determine admission to the Charter School.
4. Lottery Procedure: The Charter School shall employ the following lottery procedure to determine admission to the school in the event that the number of applicants exceeds the number of available slots:

- a. The lottery shall be conducted by District personnel. The District and/or Charter School shall provide all applicants 72 hours written notice of the conduct of the lottery, and also post the time and place of the lottery at the Charter School and District Office. The lottery shall take place at a public facility at the District Office or charter school and shall be made open to the public.
- b. A slip of paper bearing the name of each applicant shall be placed into a sealed envelope. Each envelope shall be marked on the outside "Free and Reduced Eligible – in District," "Child of current Charter School employee" and "District Resident." Envelopes for applicants not falling into any of the above categories shall be marked "Other."

Each envelope shall be numbered sequentially on the outside, along with the above-identified category, for tracking purposes. No other information, such as the students' name, shall appear on the envelope.

In-District Applicants whose parents/guardians provide written verification that they are eligible for Free and Reduced lunch under that program's guidelines shall be designated "Free and Reduced Eligible." Applicants residing within the boundaries of the Santa Rosa City Schools elementary or high school districts³ shall be designated "District Resident." Applicants not meeting any of these three criteria shall be designated as "Other."

³ Families residing within the Rincon Valley Union School District, Wright Elementary School District, Piner-Olivet Union School District and Bennett Valley Union School District all fall within the enrollment boundaries of the Santa Rosa City School high school district.

In the event that an applicant falls under more than one of the above-identified categories, they shall be designated only in the first category in the order in which they appear above in the first paragraph of Subsection 4(b).

- c. The District shall place the envelopes into separate containers labeled with each of the categories listed in Step 4(b). The District will then draw envelopes in the following sequential order, and shall repeat the sequence, until all envelopes are drawn:

Draw No. 1

- Free and Reduced Eligible in-District: draw 4 times
- District Resident: draw 1 time
- Child of current Charter School employee: draw 1 time

When all of the envelopes from categories (i) and (iii) are drawn, then, if there are remaining envelopes, then the lottery shall proceed to Draw No. 2.

Draw No. 2

- Other: Continue drawing 1 time until no envelopes remain.

- d. District personnel shall then open the envelopes and record in writing the students who have been admitted, and the order in which they were selected, with no reference to the category in which the student fell. District personnel shall then provide the list of the admitted students, in order of admission, to the District Office, with a signature certifying that the results of the lottery are accurate to the best of their knowledge.
- e. The District shall take the following steps to protect the confidentiality of all pupil information: 1) During the conduct of the lottery, student names shall not be announced at any time, but, upon selection, shall be immediately recorded on the written log pursuant to Step 4(d) ; 2) Once the lottery has been completed, the student name slips and envelopes created pursuant to Step 4(b) shall be destroyed, and the list of students in order of admission created pursuant to Step 4(d) shall be retained; and 3) by the end of the next business day following the lottery, the District shall post an alphabetized list of admitted students at the District Office and at the administrative offices of the Charter School, with no reference to the category in which the student fell or order of selection.

5. Wait List:

- a. In the event that the maximum cap is reached without use of the lottery, subsequent applications from unadmitted students under Step 2 shall be placed on a waitlist in the order in which their applications were received, starting with applications received in the first enrollment window (i.e., before the deadline for applying for admission).
- b. In the event that there are applicants remaining after the conduct of the lottery in Step 4, those applicants not admitted to the school shall be placed on the waitlist in the order that their names were drawn under the process set forth in Step 4(c).

- c. District personnel shall provide the list of the waitlisted students, in the order in which they were placed on the waitlist, to the District Office, with a signature certifying that the waitlist is accurate to the best of their knowledge.
- d. To the extent that openings occur at the Charter School during the school year for which the lottery is conducted, applicants shall be offered admission in the order in which they appear on the wait list.

ELEMENT I: FINANCIAL AUDIT

"The manner in which annual, independent, financial audits shall be conducted, which shall employ generally accepted accounting principles, and the manner in which audit exceptions and deficiencies shall be resolved to the satisfaction of the chartering authority." Education Code 47605(b)(5)(1)

The financial audit(s) of SRACS(s) will be accomplished as part of the District's annual independent financial audit. The additional fees for audits of SRACS will be paid with funds generated by SRACS. Audit exceptions shall be resolved as part of the process for resolving such exceptions with respect to the District's audit process.

The District shall, as required by Education Code 47605(m), transmit a copy of the annual independent financial audit report for the preceding fiscal year to the Controller, the Sonoma County Superintendent of Schools, and the CDE by December 15 of each year.

ELEMENT J: PROCEDURES FOR SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

*"The procedures by which pupils can be suspended or expelled."
Education Code 47605(b)(5)(J)*

All District rules/processes concerning suspension or expulsion will pertain to SRACS in the same manner as for non-charter schools of the District. For more information, see the Santa Rosa City Schools Information Handbook on the Santa Rosa City School website. The SRACS Advisory Committee also discusses and develops written standards and expectations for student behavior and related consequences for violations of those expectations. Expectations for student behavior are contained in the student planner. To the extent any of the information detailed below differs from, conflicts with, or omits any District policies, procedures, or practices, the District's policies, procedures, and practices shall apply.

School Wide Rules and Expectations

Our program is based on respect, responsibility, relationship-building and relationship-repairing. It focuses on mediation and agreement rather than punishment.

SRACS administration, staff, and the Advisory Committee will:

- Provide training for administrators, teachers, and counselors, in recognizing at-risk GATE students, and how to make referrals to appropriate school personnel and external agencies.
- Identify staff and program services that support the social and emotional development of all learners to facilitate healthy self-concepts and a supportive community.
- Develop a plan for teachers to work in collaboration with guidance personnel regarding at-risk intervention strategies and provide intervention options for students in the school, at home, or in the community.
- Ensure that an intervention plan is developed for at-risk GATE students that includes counseling services and support so that students are not dropped from the program.
- Ensure that information and support are provided to parents/guardians regarding at-risk students.
- Provide students with awareness of career and college options and guidance consistent with their unique strengths, including mentoring and pre-college opportunities at the secondary level.

General Provisions

As a District-affiliated charter school, SRACS shall comply with and implement all District policies and procedures related to student discipline and behavior.

SRACS shall provide due process for all students, including adequate and timely notice to parents/guardians and students of the grounds for all suspension and expulsion recommendations and decisions and their due process rights regarding suspension and expulsion, including a fair and impartial hearing, rights of appeal, and post-expulsion placement/rehabilitation plans and services as required by law.

SRACS shall implement alternatives to suspension and expulsion, especially in response to attendance-related concerns, (e.g. truancy or excessive tardiness).

SRACS shall adopt the District's procedures by which pupils can be suspended or expelled from the charter school for disciplinary reasons or otherwise involuntarily removed from the charter school for any reason. These procedures, at a minimum, shall include an explanation of how the charter school will comply with federal and state constitutional procedural and substantive due process requirements that is consistent with all the following:

- For suspensions of fewer than 10 days, provide oral or written notice of the charges against the pupil and, if the pupil denies the charges, an explanation of the evidence that supports the charges and an opportunity for the pupil to present his or her side of the story.
- For suspensions of 10 days or more and all other expulsions for disciplinary reasons, both of the following:
 - Provide timely, written notice of the charges against the pupil and an explanation of the pupil's basic rights.
 - Provide a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer within a reasonable number of days at which the pupil has a fair opportunity to present testimony, evidence, and witnesses and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and at which the pupil has the right to bring legal counsel or an advocate.
- Contain a clear statement that no pupil shall be involuntarily removed by the charter school for any reason unless the parent or guardian of the pupil has been provided written notice of intent to remove the pupil no less than five schooldays before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the pupil or the pupil's parent or guardian or, if the pupil is a foster child or youth or a homeless child or youth, the pupil's educational rights holder, and shall inform him or her of the right to initiate the procedures specified in clause (ii) before the effective date of the action. If the pupil's parent, guardian, or educational rights holder initiates the procedures specified in clause (ii), the pupil shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the charter school issues a final decision. For purposes of this clause, "involuntarily removed" includes dis-enrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include suspensions specified in clauses (i) and (ii)." (Education Code § 47605(c)(5)(J).)

A student may be suspended or expelled for any of the acts enumerated in Education Code section 48900 related to school activity or school attendance that occurs at any time including, but not limited to:

- While on school grounds
- While going to or leaving school
- During, or traveling to or from, a school-sponsored activity

Cause For Suspension and Expulsion - Enumerated Offenses

After reviewing the lists of disciplinary offenses that apply to students attending non-charter public schools, the School has determined that the following lists of offenses, as well as the following disciplinary procedures, align with SRACS mission and vision and provide for the adequate safety of the SRACS community and serve the best interests of SRACS' students and parent/guardians:

Discretionary Suspension Offenses

A student may be recommended for suspension for any of the following reasons:

- Willfully used force or violence upon the person of another, except in self-defense • Unlawfully possessed, used, sold, or otherwise furnished, or been under the influence of, any controlled substance listed in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code, an alcoholic beverage, or an intoxicant of any kind (exception made for use or possession by a student of his or her own prescription products)
- Unlawfully offered, arranged, or negotiated to sell any controlled substance listed in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code, an alcoholic beverage, or an intoxicant of any kind, and either sold, delivered, or otherwise furnished to any person another liquid, substance, or material and represented the liquid, substance, or material as a controlled substance, alcoholic beverage, or intoxicant

This section does not prohibit the use of his or her own prescription products by a pupil.
- Committed an obscene act or engaged in habitual profanity or vulgarity • Unlawfully possessed or unlawfully offered, arranged, or negotiated to sell any drug paraphernalia, as defined in Section 11014.5 of the Health and Safety Code • Knowingly received stolen school property or private property (includes, but is not limited to, electronic files and databases)
- Possessed an imitation firearm as defined in Education Code Section 49800(m) •

- Harassed, threatened, or intimidated a student who is a complaining witness or a witness in a school disciplinary proceeding for the purpose of either preventing that student from being a witness or retaliating against that student for being a witness, or both

- Intentionally engaged in harassment, threats or intimidation directed against school personnel or students, that is sufficiently severe or pervasive to have the actual and reasonably expected effect of materially disrupting class work, creating substantial disorder, and invading the rights of either school personnel or students by creating an intimidating or hostile educational environment
- Made terrorist threats against school officials, school property, or both • Engaged in an act of bullying, including, but not limited to, bullying committed by means of an electronic act, as defined in subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 32261, directed specifically toward a pupil.

For a pupil subject to discipline under this section, SRACS's administrator designee may use his or her discretion to provide alternatives to suspension or expulsion that are age appropriate and designed to address and correct the pupil's specific misbehavior as specified in Section 48900.5. Alternatives to suspension or expulsion shall be imposed against a pupil who is truant, tardy, or otherwise absent from school activities. SRACS does not impose mandatory suspension. Rather, suspensions are discretionary. Suspension shall be imposed only when other means of correction fail to bring about proper conduct.

Depending on the severity and seriousness of the offense and past conduct of the pupil, administration may recommend an expulsion instead of a suspension. That determination is within the professional discretion of administration for the following list of discretionary expellable offenses, as well as suspension offenses.

Discretionary Expulsion Offenses

A student may be recommended for expulsion for any of the following reasons:

- Willfully used force or violence upon the person of another, except in self-defense • Unlawfully possessed, used, sold, or otherwise furnished, or been under the influence of, any controlled substance listed in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code, an alcoholic beverage, or an intoxicant of any kind (exception made for use or possession by a student of his or her own prescription products)

- Possessed or used tobacco, or any products containing tobacco or nicotine products, including, but not limited to, cigarettes, cigars, miniature cigars, clove cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, snuff, chew packets, and betel. This section does not prohibit the use of his or her own prescription products by a pupil.

Non-Discretionary Suspension Offenses

Students must be suspended and will receive a mandatory recommendation for expulsion if it is determined that the pupil:

- Possessed, sold, or otherwise furnished any firearm, knife, explosive, or other dangerous object, unless, in the case of possession of any object of this type, the student had obtained written permission to possess the item from the administration.

- Brandished a knife at another person.

- Unlawfully sold a controlled substance listed in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

Non-Discretionary Expulsion Offenses

- Students must be suspended and will receive a mandatory recommendation for expulsion if it is determined that the pupil:

- Committed or attempted to commit a sexual assault as defined in subdivision (n) of Education Code Section 48900 or committed a sexual battery as defined in subdivision (n) of Section 48900
- Possessed an explosive.

Students are subject to mandatory recommendation for expulsion from SRACS for any of the reasons as specified in the Education Code § 48915(c) and the Federal Gun-Free Schools Act of 1994. It is a federal mandate that a school expel, for a period of not less than one year (except on a case-by-case basis), any student who is determined to have brought a firearm to school or possessed a firearm at school. SRCS will refer to the criminal justice or juvenile delinquency system of any student who brings a firearm or weapon to a school.

Process For Suspension And Expulsion

Step 1: Informal Conference

Suspension shall be preceded by an informal conference conducted by administration, with the student and the student's parents. The conference may be omitted if administration determines that an emergency situation exists. An "emergency situation" involves a clear and present danger to the lives, safety or health of students or school personnel. If the student is suspended without a conference, the parents will be notified of the suspension and a conference will be conducted as soon as practicable. At the conference, the student shall be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action and the evidence against him or her and shall be given the opportunity to present his or her version and evidence in his or her defense. This conference shall be held within two school days, unless the student waives this right or is physically unable to attend for any reason including, but not limited to, incarceration or hospitalization. No penalties may be imposed on a pupil for failure of the student's parent or guardian to attend a conference with Charter School officials. Reinstatement of the suspended student shall not be contingent upon attendance by the student's parent or guardian at the conference.

Step 2: Notice to Parents

Parents and students will have due process rights with regards to suspensions and expulsions. At the time of a student's suspension, a school employee shall immediately make a reasonable effort to contact the parents by telephone, email or in person. Initial contact will be followed by a written notice within 24 hours of the suspension. This notice will state the specific offense committed by the student. In addition, the notice may also state the date and time the student may return to school. If the school officials wish to confer with the parents regarding matters pertinent to the suspension, the notice may note that the parents are required to respond without delay, and that violation of school rules can result in expulsion from the school.

Step 3: Determination of Length of Suspension

The length of the suspension will be determined by administration based on the severity of the offense(s), as evidenced by witness statements, physical evidence, and other relevant factors. Suspensions, when not including a recommendation for expulsion, shall not exceed five (5) consecutive school days per suspension. Upon a recommendation of expulsion by the SRACS administrator or designee, the pupil and the pupil's parent/guardian or representative will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the pupil should be extended pending an expulsion hearing.

This determination will be made by administration or designee upon either of the following determinations:

- the pupil's presence will be disruptive to the education process; or
- the pupil poses a threat or danger to others. Upon either determination, the pupil's suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing. In such instances when the Charter School has determined a suspension period shall be extended, such extension shall be made only after a conference is held with the pupil or the pupil's parents, unless the pupil and the pupil's parents fail to attend the conference.

Arrangements shall be made to provide the student with classroom material and current assignments to be completed at home during the length of the suspension.

Step 4: Recommendations for Expulsion

If the SRACS administrator or designee recommends expulsion, the student and the student's parents will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the student should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by administration upon either of the following findings:

- The student's presence will likely be disruptive to the educational process
- The student poses a threat or danger to others.

Upon this determination, the student's suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing.

Students will be recommended for expulsion if the Co-Director finds that at least one of the following findings may be substantiated:

- Other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct

- Due to the nature of the violation, the presence of the student causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others

Step 5: Expulsion Hearing

Students recommended for expulsion will be entitled to a hearing to determine whether or not the student should be expelled.

Written notice of the hearing will be forwarded to the student and the student's parents at least 10 calendar days before the date of the hearing. This notice will include:

- The date and place of the hearing
- A statement of the specific facts, charges and offense upon which the proposed expulsion is based
- A copy of the disciplinary rules that relate to the alleged violation
- The opportunity for the student or the student's parents to appear in person at the hearing
- The opportunity for the student to be represented by counsel at the student's parents' discretion and expense
- The right to examine and acquire copies of all documents to be used at the hearing •

The opportunity to cross-examine all witnesses that testify at the hearing

- The opportunity to present evidence and witnesses on behalf of the student. The hearing will be held within 30 days after the Co-Director determines that an act subject to expulsion has occurred. The hearing will be conducted by an ad hoc committee of the Board. A Facts and Findings document will be prepared to summarize the evidence adduced at the hearing to substantiate the expulsion decision. The hearing will be held in closed session unless the pupil makes a written request for a public hearing at least three (3) days' prior to the hearing. A transcript of the hearing shall be prepared and maintained, including a statement of specific facts and documentation that Charter School's policies and procedures were followed.

Upon a decision to expel the student by the Board, written notice will be sent within 24 hours by administration to the parents of any student who is expelled. This notice will include the following:

- The specific offense committed by the student for any of the acts listed in "Reasons for Suspension and/or Expulsion."
- Notice of the parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with SRCS.

In the event of a decision to expel a student, SRACS will work cooperatively with the district of residence, county and/or private schools to assist with the appropriate educational placement of the student who has been expelled. Any incident of violent and/or serious student behavior shall also be communicated to the district/school to which the student matriculates. If the decision is not to expel, the student will return to classes at SRACS.

The Board shall recommend a plan of rehabilitation for the student at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but not be limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. The plan may also include recommendations for improved academic performance, tutoring, special education assessments, counseling or other rehabilitative programs. Upon completion of the readmission process, SRACS may readmit the student, unless the Board makes a finding that the student has not met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or continues to pose a danger to campus safety or to other students or employees of SRACS. A description of the readmission plan shall promptly be made available to the student and the student’s parent or guardian at the time the expulsion order is entered, including any related findings.

Appeal Of Suspension Or Expulsion

The expulsion decision shall not be subject to appeal.

The suspension of a student will be at the discretion of administration. A suspension appeal may be made to Student and Family Services (SAFE) within the term of the suspension (within three days of the suspension). Following due consideration, a decision by SAFE regarding the student suspension will be considered final.

An expulsion may be appealed within ten working days and must be submitted in writing to Student and Family Services (SAFE). The student will be considered expelled until a meeting is conducted to consider the appeal (within 10 working days). The appeal will be considered by members of the Student and Family Services (SAFE), not including any of the same individuals or panel who suspended the student and recommended the expulsion. For a student who is not reinstated upon appeal, the family will be sent written notification of such, including specific reasons why reinstatement was denied, and will be given a new eligibility review date. The decision of the panel of representatives selected by the Board will be final. All District rules/processes concerning suspension or expulsion pertain to the Charter School in the same manner as for the non-charter schools of the District.

SRACS has implemented alternatives to suspension and expulsion. Such alternatives include, but are not limited to, the use of restorative practices and a social-emotional intervention. These measures allow SRACS to pursue peaceful resolution of conflicts and help create accountability and allow students to realize how others were impacted by a behavior.

Students With Disabilities

The Santa Rosa Accelerated Charter School shall implement operational and procedural guidelines ensuring compliance with federal and state laws and regulations regarding the discipline of students with disabilities. If a student is recommended for expulsion and the student receives or is eligible for special education, SRACS shall identify and provide special education programs and services at an appropriate interim educational placement, pending the completion of the expulsion process, to be coordinated with the District’s Special Education Unit.

In the case of a student who has an IEP or a 504 Plan, SRACS shall ensure that it follows correct disciplinary procedures to comply with the mandates of state and federal laws, including IDEA and Section 504. As set forth in the MOU regarding special education between the District and SRACS, a 504 or IEP team, including a District representative, will meet to conduct a manifestation determination utilizing the District’s Special Education Policies and Procedures Manual. At the meeting, the team will answer the following two questions:

- Was the misconduct caused by, or directly and substantially related to, the student’s disability?
- Was the misconduct a direct result of the SRACS’ failure to implement the Section 504 plan/IEP?

Notification of Student’s District of Residence

Upon the expulsion of any student, if the student is a resident of a school district other than the District, SRACS must notify the Superintendent of the student’s district of residence within 30 days of the expulsion. Additionally, upon request of the receiving school district, SRACS shall forward student records no later than 10 school days from the date of the request as stated in Education Code sections 49068 (a) and (b).

Outcome Data

SRACS shall gather and maintain all data related to placement, tracking, and monitoring of student suspensions, expulsions, and reinstatements, in the District’s Student Information System and shall make such outcome data readily available to the District upon request.

Readmission

SRACS shall comply with all District policies and procedures related to requests for readmission by students expelled from the school.

ELEMENT K: RETIREMENT SYSTEMS FOR STAFF MEMBERS

"The manner by which staff members of the charter schools will be covered by the State Teachers' Retirement System, the Public Employees' Retirement System, or federal social security." Education Code 47605(b)(5)(K)

Retirement systems for SRACS employees will be identical to those systems applicable to employees in non-charter schools of the District. The District shall be responsible for arranging coverage and providing the necessary reports.

ELEMENT L: PUBLIC SCHOOL ALTERNATIVES

"The public school attendance alternatives for pupils residing within the school district who choose not to attend charter schools." Education Code 47605(b)(5)(L)

Enrollment in the SRACS program will be based upon the student admissions process referenced above. Parents and guardians of each student enrolled at SRACS shall be informed that the student has no right to admission in a particular school of any local education agency (LEA) or program of any LEA as a consequence of enrolling at SRACS, except to the extent that such a right is extended by the LEA. No student will otherwise be assigned to the Charter School. District resident students choosing not to enroll in SRACS may enroll in District schools. Establishment of the SRACS will not affect the public school alternatives for other students.

ELEMENT M: EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

"A description of the rights of any employee of the school district upon leaving the employment of the school district to work in a charter school, and of any rights of return to the school district after employment at a charter school." Education Code 47605(b)(5)(M)

Except as otherwise agreed to by the exclusive representatives, transfer and assignment provisions of the collectively bargained contracts with Santa Rosa City Schools will pertain to the Charter School in the same manner as for the non-charter schools of the District. No staff member will be assigned to the Charter School except by his/her request for a transfer and/or through a formal application process.

ELEMENT N: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

"The procedures to be followed by the charter school and the entity granting the charter to resolve disputes relating to provisions of the charter." Education Code 47605(b)(5)(N)

General dispute resolution procedures between the District and SRACS will pertain to SRACS in the same manner as for the non-charter schools of the District. The District shall have no obligation to follow the dispute resolution procedures outlined in the charter to the extent that any dispute/issue concerns facts or circumstances could lead to revocation of the charter.

In the event of a dispute concerning the provisions of the approved charter, the individual(s) bringing the dispute will meet with the Superintendent or designee. A written report of the meeting will be submitted to the Board of Education. The Board will retain the final decision rights concerning any such dispute.

SRACS shall adopt a set of procedures for resolving internal disputes or complaints (e.g., staff, student, parent). SRACS will follow the District's Uniform Complaint Procedure and will make the information available to staff, parents/guardians, and the public.

ELEMENT O: PROCEDURES FOR CLOSING

“A description of the procedures to be used if the charter school closes. The procedures shall ensure a final audit of the school to determine the disposition of all assets and liabilities of the charter school, including plans for disposing of any net assets and for the maintenance and transfer of pupil records.” Education Code 47605(c)(5)(P)

Should SRACS close, all remaining assets and liabilities of the organization will be disposed of by the school’s Advisory Committee to the District or other appropriate entity or returned to the state in accordance with, District policy or applicable law. Administrative staff will be retained as long as necessary to ensure the transfer of assets, disposition of liabilities, transfer of student records, and closure of the facility.

Student records and cumulative files will be forwarded to the schools to which the students transfer or, depending upon the circumstances, will be turned over to the District Office. Personnel records also shall be transferred to the District Office. All other student and school records shall be disposed of in a way that will ensure the confidentiality of the records. It shall be the responsibility of the Advisory Committee to finalize all closing arrangements. The Executive Director of Fiscal Services for SRCS will ensure that the financial audit of the school’s assets and liabilities is performed within six months of closure and will complete any annual reports required by law. At the time of its closure, SRACS will also send notice of its closure to parents/guardians of students, the Sonoma County Office of Education, the special education local plan area (SELPA) and the California Department of Education.

Closure Action

To close SRACS, the District’s Board of Education must take a “Closure Action.” A Closure Action shall be deemed to have been automatically taken when any of the following occur: the District Board of Education revokes or denies renewal of the Charter; the District Board of Education takes specific Board action to close SRACS pursuant to the Board’s general authority and/or its unique authority as the legal governing board of Charter School pursuant to the Charter Schools Act of 1992; the Charter lapses; or the Board of Education approves a request by the Charter School to revert to a District traditional school.

The District Board may close SRACS voluntarily at any time.

APPENDIX A: LOTTERY ENROLLMENT

SRACS often has a large waitlist. Families are drawn to its rigorous curriculum, strong reputation, consistent outcomes, and maximizing readiness for advanced learning. For students, enrollment offers access to high expectations, motivated peers, and a culture that values achievement. For families it represents a trusted path toward long-term academic success. As demand for this recognized program continues to exceed the limited number of available seats, waitlists are expected to grow, reflecting both community confidence in SRACS and the strong desire for youth to be included in a respected educational environment.

LCFF Budget Overview for Parents

Local Educational Agency (LEA) Name: Santa Rosa City Schools
 CDS Code: 49709200102533
 School Year: 2025-26

School districts receive funding from different sources: state funds under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF), other state funds, local funds, and federal funds. LCFF funds include a base level of funding for all LEAs and extra funding - called "supplemental and concentration" grants - to LEAs based on the enrollment of high needs students (foster youth, English learners, and low-income students).

Budget Overview for the 2025-26 School Year

Projected Revenue by Fund Source

This chart shows the total general purpose revenue Santa Rosa City Schools expects to receive in the coming year from all sources.

The text description for the above chart is as follows: The total revenue projected for Santa Rosa City Schools is $1,489,189, of which $1,347,510 is Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF), $89,634 is other state funds, $52,045 is local funds, and $0 is federal funds. Of the $1,347,510 in LCFF Funds, $38,115 is generated based on the enrollment of high needs students (foster youth, English learner, and low-income students).

LCFF Budget Overview for Parents

The LCFF gives school districts more flexibility in deciding how to use state funds. In exchange, school districts must work with parents, educators, students, and the community to develop a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP) that shows how they will use these funds to serve students.

This chart provides a quick summary of how much Santa Rosa City Schools plans to spend for 2025-26. It shows how much of the total is tied to planned actions and services in the LCAP.

The text description of the above chart is as follows: Santa Rosa City Schools plans to spend $1,527,855 for the 2025-26 school year. Of that amount, $38,998 is tied to actions/services in the LCAP and $1,488,857 is not included in the LCAP. The budgeted expenditures that are not included in the LCAP will be used for the following:

Base instructional services i.e. core curriculum, text book adoptions, classroom teachers. Restricted categorical programs and services i.e. Title programs, other State grant programs, and locally funded grants and programs run from donations. Special Education Services. Administration i.e. Principals, Vice Principals, and school office staff. Maintenance and operations i.e. custodians, custodial supplies, grounds workers, maintenance workers, and maintenance supplies.

Increased or Improved Services for High Needs Students in the LCAP for the 2025-26 School Year

In 2025-26, Santa Rosa City Schools is projecting it will receive $38,115 based on the enrollment of foster youth, English learner, and low-income students. Santa Rosa City Schools must describe how it intends to increase or improve services for high needs students in the LCAP. Santa Rosa City Schools plans to spend $38,998 towards meeting this requirement, as described in the LCAP.

LCFF Budget Overview for Parents

Update on Increased or Improved Services for High Needs Students in 2024-25

This chart compares what Santa Rosa City Schools budgeted last year in the LCAP for actions and services that contribute to increasing or improving services for high needs students with what Santa Rosa City Schools estimates it has spent on actions and services that contribute to increasing or improving services for high needs students in the current year.

The text description of the above chart is as follows: In 2024-25, Santa Rosa City Schools's LCAP budgeted $28,833 for planned actions to increase or improve services for high needs students. Santa Rosa City Schools actually spent $32,933 for actions to increase or improve services for high needs students in 2024-25.

The difference between the budgeted and actual expenditures of $4,100 had the following impact on Santa Rosa City Schools's ability to increase or improve services for high needs students:

These additional funds were invested in the services to these students to provide additional support towards their academic achievement.

Plan Summary [2025-26]

General Information

A description of the LEA, its schools, and its students in grades transitional kindergarten–12, as applicable to the LEA. LEAs may also provide information about their strategic plan, vision, etc.

The Santa Rosa Accelerated Charter School serves students who show the interest, ability, and promise of succeeding in an academically challenging and specialized setting. Students are provided high-interest, standards-based, real-world experiences for learning at the level in which growth proceeds most effectively. Integration of technology and making connections across disciplines are key elements of the educational experience. These experiences provide students with opportunities to become intrinsically motivated, competent, and life-long learners.

SRACS students are admitted through the Charter School Lottery Process. SRACS students come from a wide variety of schools and districts around Sonoma County. Of the current 128 students, 17 are designated GATE. 4 students have IEPs and 5 have 504 plans. SRACS had one English Language Learner this school year, but he was reclassified Spring of 2025. Since SRACS is an intermediate program, most of the English Learners have been reclassified by 5th grade. SRACS is quite diverse with over 11 languages spoken in the home and over 20 ethnicities represented in the student body.

SRACS is located in Northern California where the community has been greatly impacted by fires and the pandemic. The social and emotional well-being of the whole community (students, families, and staff) is a primary focus. SRACS is supported by an involved and active parent group (SFPO). Community involvement is an important part of the program. Students engage in frequent excursions and host guest speakers from the community to engage in real-world experiences.

The SRACS Curriculum revolves around investigating the standards with Depth and Complexity. This approach is based on the work by Sandra Kaplan, USC. Students work together to apply their conceptual understanding of the standards in various and meaningful ways. The lens through which students make meaning of curriculum is an area of focus that is determined by student needs and interests. At SRACS, each child is provided a rigorous challenging curriculum in a safe and affirming environment allowing children to form complex understandings of the subjects and giving them a system to understand new content with depth and complexity. These increased options provide students with enriched educational opportunities far beyond the traditional elementary school setting while simultaneously providing the unique prospect of becoming stewards of their own learning. Program development is based on collaboration, metacognition, and connectivity. Students are provided many opportunities for self-reflection and assessment through the curriculum that values the learning process equally to that of the finished products. As a result, students develop the critical thinking and metacognitive skills necessary to guide their own learning. Whenever feasible, the curriculum is interdisciplinary and provides students with real-world applications of their learning.

Reflections: Annual Performance
