Coach Jackson –

Our sole source packet is attached. There's a lot here so hopefully this can cut down on the bid process. In the meantime, can you see if you can find out how long the standard process is for putting something like this out for bid?

Mr. Jackson,

We have reviewed the document and believe that it can be considered a sole source vendor. The attached form must accompany the letter from the vendor when submitting a requisition. If you still need to discuss, we will be glad to talk with you.
