

Chronology for trainers

5 schools with trainers and how they were paid

Tucker HS – Partnership with Emory; No cost to the school

Druid Hills HS – Partnership with Children’s Health Care of Atlanta; No cost to the school

Lakeside HS – Partnership with Emory; No cost to the school

Dunwoody HS – Boosters and parents pay for the cost of the trainers. PT Solutions is the company that provides the service.

Chamblee HS – Boosters and parents pay for the cost of the trainers. Team Rehab is the company. The cost is 11,000 per year. The company provides 30 hours a week.

Trainers will cover all GHSA sponsored sports. The trainer will work with all students in terms of injury identification and treatment.

Northside Hospital was chosen due to their experience with working with large districts in metro-Atlanta. They are currently working with Gwinnett and Forsyth Counties.