1. Protests. A bidder may file a written protest challenging DCSD's compliance with applicable procurement procedures subject to the bidder's compliance with the provisions outlined below. Any such written protest will be resolved in accordance with these provisions.
2. Types of Challenges. Any bidder interested in and capable of responding to a competitive solicitation may file a protest with respect to the competitive solicitation process including, but not limited to, a challenge to specifications or any events or facts arising during the solicitation process. Any bidder submitting a timely bid/proposal in response to a competitive solicitation may file a protest with respect to DCSD's intended or actual contract award including, but not limited to, events or facts arising during the evaluation and/or negotiation process.

When a protest challenging an intended contract award has been timely filed, DCSD shall not proceed to actual contract award unless the Design and Construction Department makes a written determination that the issuance of a contract or performance of the contract without delay is necessary to protect the interests of DCSD. If it is determined that it is necessary to proceed with contract performance without delay, the bidder/Offeror with this contingent contract may proceed with performance and receive payment for work performed in strict accordance with the terms of the contract. The provisions of this paragraph are not applicable to a protest pertaining to events or facts arising during the solicitation process.

- 6. Protest Resolution. The Chief Operating Officer shall review and issue a written decision on the protest within seven (7) business days. This decision shall be deemed final. Available remedies for sustained protests are as follows:

 2. Such written contract or written agreement has been executed prior to the "bodily injury" or "property damage".
- B. The insurance provided to the additional insured by this endorsement is further limited as follows:
1. That person or organization is an additional insured only for liability for "bodily injury" or "property damage":
 - a. Due to your negligence and specifically caused by "your work" for the additional insured which is the subject of the written contract or agreement; and
 - b. Included within the "products-completed operations hazard".
 2. The Limits of Insurance applicable to the additional insured are those specified in the written contract or written agreement, or in the Declarations of this policy, whichever is less.  - a. The effective date of any deletion of, any removal of, or any non-continuance of, this additional insured endorsement from this policy, or
 - b. The period of time required by the written contract or written agreement.

 - a. The preparation, approval or the failure to prepare or approve maps, shop drawings, opinions, reports, surveys, field orders, change orders or drawings and specifications; or

1. The following is added to the Duties In The Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit Condition:

D. With respect to the coverage provided under this endorsement, SECTION V - DEFINITIONS: is changed as follows:

Tort liability means a liability that would be imposed by law in the absence of any contract or agreement.

Paragraph f. does not include that part of any contract or agreement:

- (1) That indemnifies a railroad for "bodily injury" or "property damage" arising out of construction or demolition operations, within 50 feet of any railroad property and affecting any railroad bridge or trestle, tracks, roadbeds, tunnel, underpass or crossing;
