

PROCLAMATION

— Parent & Family Engagement Month —

- WHEREAS: November has been officially recognized as Family Engagement Month by the DeKalb County School District Board of Education; and
- WHEREAS: Families are their children's first and most impactful teachers, providing a foundation essential for their children to thrive, become lifelong learners, and grow into valued members of society; and
- WHEREAS: Families who actively partner with schools and engage in their children's education from early childhood through college support their children's success, fostering an understanding that education is the gateway to brighter futures and bridges the gaps along the way; and
- WHEREAS: The DeKalb County School District is committed to ensuring every student has access to an excellent education by building and maintaining strong lines of communication between families, schools, and business partners within the community. We work together to support student success by promoting meaningful family engagement in the learning process; and
- WHEREAS: Strong partnerships are vital to educational success, and Family Engagement Month emphasizes the importance of families working closely with schools and educators to support their children's learning.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the DeKalb County School District Board of Education proclaims November as Parent & Family Engagement Month in DeKalb County, with November 21st designated as Parent & Family Engagement Day: and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that DeKalb County Board of Education encourages parents to remain actively involved in their children's education.
