Supplier certifies that during the term of an award for all contracts by Sourcewell resulting from this procurement process, Supplier must comply with applicable requirements as referenced above.

E. CLEAN AIR ACT (42 U.S.C. § 7401-7671Q.) AND THE FEDERAL WATER POLLUTION CONTROL ACT (33 U.S.C. § 1251-1387). Contracts and subgrants of amounts in excess of $150,000 require the non-federal award to agree to comply with all applicable standards, orders or regulations issued pursuant to the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. § 7401- 7671q) and the Federal Water Pollution Control Act as amended (33 U.S.C. § 1251- 1387). Violations must be reported to the Federal awarding agency and the Regional Office of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). Supplier certifies that during the term of this Contract will comply with applicable requirements as referenced above.

F. DEBARMENT AND SUSPENSION (EXECUTIVE ORDERS 12549 AND 12689). A contract award (see 2 C.F.R. § 180.220) must not be made to parties listed on the government wide exclusions in the System for Award Management (SAM), in accordance with the OMB guidelines at 2 C.F.R. § 180 that implement Executive Orders 12549 (3 C.F.R. § 1986 Comp., p. 189) and 12689 (3 C.F.R. § 1989 Comp., p. 235), “Debarment and Suspension.” SAM Exclusions contains the names of parties debarred, suspended, or otherwise excluded by agencies, as well as parties declared ineligible under statutory or regulatory authority other than Executive Order 12549. Supplier certifies that neither it nor its principals are presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from participation by any federal department or agency.

G. BYRD ANTI-LOBBYING AMENDMENT, AS AMENDED (31 U.S.C. § 1352). Suppliers must file any required certifications. Suppliers must not have used federal appropriated funds to pay any person or organization for influencing or attempting to influence an officer or employee of any agency, a member of Congress, officer or employee of Congress, or an employee of a member of Congress in connection with obtaining any federal contract, grant, or any other award covered by 31 U.S.C. § 1352. Suppliers must disclose any lobbying with non-federal funds that takes place in connection with obtaining any federal award. Such disclosures are forwarded from tier to tier up to the non-federal award. Suppliers must file all certifications and disclosures required by, and otherwise comply with, the Byrd Anti-Lobbying Amendment (31 U.S.C. § 1352).

H. RECORD RETENTION REQUIREMENTS. To the extent applicable, Supplier must comply with the record retention requirements detailed in 2 C.F.R. § 200.333. The Supplier further certifies that it will retain all records as required by 2 C.F.R. § 200.333 for a period of 3 years after grantees or subgrantees submit final expenditure reports or quarterly or annual financial reports, as applicable, and all other pending matters are closed.

I. ENERGY POLICY AND CONSERVATION ACT COMPLIANCE. To the extent applicable, Supplier must comply with the mandatory standards and policies relating to energy efficiency which are contained in the state energy conservation plan issued in compliance with the Energy Policy and Conservation Act.

J. BUY AMERICAN PROVISIONS COMPLIANCE. To the extent applicable, Supplier must comply with all applicable provisions of the Buy American Act. Purchases made in accordance with the Buy American Act must follow the applicable procurement rules calling for free and open competition.

K. ACCESS TO RECORDS (2 C.F.R. § 200.336). Supplier agrees that duly authorized representatives of a federal agency must have access to any books, documents, papers and records of Supplier that are directly pertinent to Supplier's discharge of its obligations under this Contract for the purpose of making audits, examinations, excerpts, and transcriptions. The right also includes timely and reasonable access to Supplier's personnel for the purpose of interview and discussion relating to such documents.

L. PROCUREMENT OF RECOVERED MATERIALS (2 C.F.R. § 200.322). A non-federal entity that is a state agency or agency of a political subdivision of a state and its contractors must comply with Section 6002 of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, as amended by the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act. The requirements of Section 6002 include procuring only items designated in guidelines of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) at 40 C.F.R. § 247 that contain the highest percentage of recovered materials practicable, consistent with maintaining a satisfactory level of competition, where the purchase price of the item exceeds $10,000 or the value of the quantity acquired during the preceding fiscal year exceeded $10,000; procuring solid waste management services in a manner that maximizes energy and resource recovery; and establishing an affirmative procurement program for procurement of recovered materials identified in the EPA guidelines.

M. FEDERAL SEAL(S), LOGOS, AND FLAGS. The Supplier cannot use the seal(s), logos, crests, or reproductions of flags or likenesses of Federal agency officials without specific pre-approval.

N. NO OBLIGATION BY FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. The U.S. federal government is not a party to this Contract or any purchase by a Participating Entity and is not subject to any obligations or liabilities to the Participating Entity, Supplier, or any other party pertaining to any matter resulting from the Contract or any purchase by an authorized user.

O. PROGRAM FRAUD AND FALSE OR FRAUDULENT STATEMENTS OR RELATED ACTS. The Contractor acknowledges that 31 U.S.C. 38 (Administrative Remedies for False Claims and Statements) applies to the Supplier's actions pertaining to this Contract or any purchase by a Participating Entity.

P. FEDERAL DEBT. The Supplier certifies that it is non-delinquent in its repayment of any federal debt. Examples of relevant debt include delinquent payroll and other taxes, audit disallowance, and benefit overpayments.

Q. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST. The Supplier must notify the U.S. Office of General Services, Sourcewell, and Participating Entity as soon as possible if this Contract or any aspect related to the anticipated work under this Contract raises an actual or potential conflict of interest (as described in 2 C.F.R. Part 200). The Supplier must explain the actual or potential conflict in writing in sufficient detail so that the U.S. Office of General Services, Sourcewell, and Participating Entity are able to assess the actual or potential conflict; and provide any additional information as necessary or requested.

R. U.S. EXECUTIVE ORDER 13224. The Supplier, and its subcontractors, must comply with U.S. Executive Order 13224 and U.S. Laws that prohibit transactions with and provision of resources and support to individuals and organizations associated with terrorism.

S. PROHIBITION ON CERTAIN TELECOMMUNICATIONS AND VIDEO SURVEILLANCE SERVICES OR EQUIPMENT. To the extent applicable, Supplier certifies that during the term of this Contract it will comply with applicable requirements of 2 C.F.R. § 200.216.

T. DOMESTIC PREFERENCES FOR PROCUREMENTS. To the extent applicable, Supplier certifies that during the term of this Contract will comply with applicable requirements of 2 C.F.R. § 200.322.

22. CANCELLATION

Sourcwell or Supplier may cancel this Contract at any time, with or without cause, upon 60 days' written notice to the other party. However, Sourcwell may cancel this Contract immediately upon discovery of a material defect in any certification made in Supplier's Proposal. Cancellation of this Contract does not relieve either party of financial, product, or service obligations incurred or accrued prior to cancellation.

10	Provide a brief history of your company, including your company's core values, business philosophy, and industry longevity related to the requested equipment, products or services.	Gerflor USA was established in 1984 and has been continuously operating since that time, but some of the subsidiaries involved in this contract have been in business far longer. Connor Sports, the leading provider of hardwood sports surfaces, was established in 1872. Sport Court, the originator of both indoor and outdoor modular tile for sports use, was established in 1974, and added the Portafloor-brand products line in the 1990s. Gerflor's Taraflex, the original cushioned sheet-vinyl sports surface, was invented by our group in 1947. Our company's core values are an integral element of our daily work lives and provide guidance to our strategic direction and tactical decisions. We strive to improve people's lives by providing safe and creative flooring solutions that exceed their needs and contribute to a better world. We value and practice Teamwork, Respect & Integrity, Accountability & Commitment, Customer Success, and Entrepreneurship & Agility. Although the product offerings of the Gerflor Group are wide and varied across both Commercial and Sports products, for the purposes of this contract, we bring the deepest line-up of world-class sports-surfacing solutions of any company in the world. With over 150,000 successful installations worldwide, we make a legitimate claim to being the World's Largest CourtbuilderTM. Our business philosophy is to create innovative, specialized solutions that better serve the needs of our sports-flooring customers than other alternatives, and to deliver those solutions with the highest levels of support from our sales, installation, service and technical teams. In the world of sports flooring, safety and injury protection are paramount considerations, and the product offerings across all our brands help us create the safest and highest-performing places to play for our customers. Product innovation and continuous improvement are hallmarks of our operation and industry reputation, and we bring new and better products to market each year, but the trust and respect we enjoy in our various markets is representative of our long history of customer care and service, and of the durable, high-quality products we provide.	*
11	What are your company's expectations in the event of an award?	We are actively and currently engaged in promoting our involvement in group-purchasing organizations, and believe it helps us deliver the best solutions and service at fair and honest pricing to our customers. We have grown our activity and presence in this industry space over the past 10 years, with regular increases YOY in overall GPO revenues. We anticipate continuing our ongoing promotion and training of field sales personnel, both our employees and independent agents, and in aggressively growing the overall percentage of our business in the public sector through cooperative-purchasing relationships.	*
12	Demonstrate your financial strength and stability with meaningful data. This could include such items as financial statements, SEC filings, credit and bond ratings, letters of credit, and detailed reference letters. Upload supporting documents (as applicable) in the document upload section of your response.	As a privately held and self-funded enterprise, we are not much involved with SEC filings, credit/bond ratings, or letters of credit. Please find the Financial Summary and bank Reference Letter in the Upload folder.	*
13	What is your US market share for the solutions that you are proposing?	Although some segments of the indoor and outdoor sports-flooring market are not generally measured by trade associations, we do have reliable indicators of our percentage of market share in various sub-segments. For example, we are a founding member of the Maple Flooring Manufacturers Association (MFMA) and share some information about market share among member mills. While that may not cover every hardwood-floor installation in N. America, the strength of the MFMA brand means that most high school, higher education, and professional leagues specify that the maple strip used in sports flooring bears this certification. Outdoor sports flooring, by contrast, may still include (at least in some minds) non-resilient surfaces like concrete, asphalt and even hard-court surfacing which installs a thin layer of paint over a concrete substrate. None of these surfaces come close to meeting ASTM F2772 standards for sports surfacing, so they are not included in the market-share assessment here. In the indoor synthetic space, resilient vinyl and rubber are the most common materials used, and we provide those through our Taraflex (Gerflor) and Connor Sports brands. In terms of breadth and depth of product offerings, we are not aware of any other N. American manufacturer/supplier that can meet customer needs across all categories. Please refer to the Market Share document in the Upload folder for more information.	*
14	What is your Canadian market share for the solutions that you are proposing?	Please refer to the Market Share document in the Upload folder for more information.	*
15	Has your business ever petitioned for bankruptcy protection? If so, explain in detail.	No	*

16	How is your organization best described: is it a manufacturer, a distributor/dealer/reseller, or a service provider? Answer whichever question (either a) or b) just below) best applies to your organization. a) If your company is best described as a distributor/dealer/reseller (or similar entity), provide your written authorization to act as a distributor/dealer/reseller for the manufacturer of the products proposed in this RFP. If applicable, is your dealer network independent or company owned? b) If your company is best described as a manufacturer or service provider, describe your relationship with your sales and service force and with your dealer network in delivering the products and services proposed in this RFP. Are these individuals your employees, or the employees of a third party?	Gerflor USA and its North American subsidiaries are the manufacturers of all products included in this proposal. We manage and validate the raw materials provided by our suppliers and operate in ISO-certificated manufacturing facilities in the U.S. and Europe, allowing us to confirm that our products meet our highest standards of quality, functionality and performance. Our sales and distribution structure varies slightly from brand to brand, but in each case, our sales, management, operations and logistical functions are controlled by our company. We utilize both employees and non-employee agents in our sales forces, and all sales, installation, technical and service personnel are bound by well-established requirements and guidelines, and in operating to our standards of customer care. In some cases, these mandates are regulated by contract; in other cases, the strength of long-term relationships and shared business commitments provides the support and reinforcement needed to ensure that our brands are represented to our and our customers' satisfaction.
17	If applicable, provide a detailed explanation outlining the licenses and certifications that are both required to be held, and actually held, by your organization (including third parties and subcontractors that you use) in pursuit of the business contemplated by this RFP.	In our industry, most of the relevant certifications and licenses are representative of our commitment and desire to provide the best products possible for our customer, and not mandated by government or industry groups. While most of the following citations are voluntary, we believe they demonstrate our leadership in our industry, and in operating in a manner consistent with our values regarding the environment, best business practices, and in a fair and honest manner. As a European manufacturer, our Gerflor-brand products are governed by REACH (Registration, Evaluation, Authorization and Restriction of Chemicals), legislation passed by the European Union to restrict any harmful chemicals that might be used in the manufacture of construction materials. All Gerflor-brand products, including our sports surfaces, are 100% REACH-compliant. We have chosen to certify our factories under the ISO standards, ensuring quality and repeatability in our operations. Our products are FloorScore-certified, signifying the lowest levels of VOCs and ensuring Indoor Air Quality measures that exceed all governmental regulations, including the California Prop 65 standards. Our products are tested to ensure appropriate contribution to LEED and other environmental standards. Our new product development process includes the creation of a full Lifecycle Analysis, with the publishing of Environmental Product (EPD) and Health Product Declarations (HPD) where applicable. Connor Sports is a founding and charter member of the Maple Flooring Manufacturers Association (MFMA), and a member of the Forest Stewardship Council, which ensure proper management and lumber-harvesting practices, and contribute to the overall environmental health of our North American forest lands. At the local level, business- and contractor-licensing requirements vary by state and locale, but all our independent installation and service partners are required to obtain and keep current those licenses and certifications. We choose to work with only those agents and partners whose commitment to customer service and care, and proper installation and maintenance of our products, aligns with ours.
18	Provide all "Suspension or Debarment" information that has applied to your organization during the past ten years.	None of our companies/employees has been subject to any suspension or disbarment proceeding during the past ten years.

Table 3: Industry Recognition & Marketplace Success

Line Item	Question	Response *
19	Describe any relevant industry awards or recognition that your company has received in the past five years	Our Gerflor brand received the prestigious 2021 Healthcare Design Nightingale Award for new product development of Mipolam Evo, and our Clic engagement system for LVT products won the Red Dot for design excellence.	*
20	What percentage of your sales are to the governmental sector in the past three years	Across the four product brands included in this proposal, sales to government entities (federal, state, cities & towns, etc.) is approximately 12% of our total revenues.	*
21	What percentage of your sales are to the education sector in the past three years	Across the four product brands included in this proposal, sales to educational customers (higher ed, public, private, etc) is approximately 34% of our total revenues.	*
22	List any state, provincial, or cooperative purchasing contracts that you hold. What is the annual sales volume for each of these contracts over the past three years?	In addition to our current contract for Athletic Surfacing with Sourcewell—and as part of our effort to increase our involvement and activity with GPOs and cooperative-purchasing entities—we have recently won contracts with Vizient (leading healthcare organization, utilizing our commercial-flooring products) and BuyBoard. We are in our 'first steps' with BuyBoard, with no significant sales to date, but in our first partial year of operation with Vizient, have seen revenues of approximately $225,000 generated through the relationship since April 2021. We also recently joined FUZE (commercial flooring cooperative) as an authorized vendor but are still in the process of getting set up in their system. We are also a vendor member of Starnet (flooring-industry cooperative) and have been operating under a Sourcewell contract for athletic surfacing for the past eight years. Please see the Cooperative Purchasing grid in the Upload folder for more detail on these cooperative-purchasing relationships.	*
23	List any GSA contracts or Standing Offers and Supply Arrangements (SOSA) that you hold. What is the annual sales volume for each of these contracts over the past three years?	Both Gerflor USA and Connor Sport Court International held GSA contracts several years ago; however, we found less business value in these relationships than with Sourcewell and our other cooperative-purchasing contracts. In addition, many of our federal- and other-government customers seem more open to using contracts other than GSA, which can entail an inordinate amount of administrative work to manage.	*

Table 6: Ability to Sell and Deliver Service

Describe your company's capability to meet the needs of Sourcewell participating entities across the US and Canada, as applicable. Your response should address in detail at least the following areas: locations of your network of sales and service providers, the number of workers (full-time equivalents) involved in each sector, whether these workers are your direct employees (or employees of a third party), and any overlap between the sales and service functions.

Line Item	Question	Response *
26	Sales force.	Gerflor USA (and its subsidiaries in North America) are fortunate to have a large and experienced team, comprised of both employees and independent agents, that sell, install and service the products from our three sports-products brands. Across the board, the average tenure of our independent dealers is approximately 20 years of work with our business and products. Each brand has personnel living in virtually every state, province and territory, or if not physically located, positioned and actively doing business in every market. Our employee technical and sales teams provide regular, ongoing support and training, ensuring that even our less-experienced partners have the answers and information they need at their fingertips to resolve customer questions or concerns, or to address any potential issues that might arise in the installation or service of our products. It might be important to note that our three sales networks operate generally independently of each other. Each has its own sales leadership team, and there is little overlap between the network groups, which is to say that only a handful of dealers from one brand also represent any of the other brands. We see more integration each year, but it still represents a small fraction of the total numbers; in fact, these sales teams compete with each other for projects at times, presenting their best options to the customer and allowing them to make their own choices. We see this as healthy competition, and within the context of the Sourcewell contract, an element that better serves the Sourcewell member companies, because for most projects, they can get proposals from more than one of our dealers, which will provide some measure of reassurance that they are getting comparable value and competitive pricing. Each of our field agents has both sales and installation/technical personnel, and those teams are supported and supplemented by the sales directors and managers who are our employees who manage, set direction and strategy for, and oversee the work of the entire field force. Although these numbers can be seasonal and somewhat fluid, the table below provides an estimate of the total personnel involved across our brands in selling, installing and maintaining our product lines in North America. See Sales and Service Network Table in Upload folder
27	Dealer network or other distribution methods.	The Gerflor-brand sales and distribution network is roughly 50% employee Territory Sales Managers (TSM) and 50% independent Sales Agents. In addition, a team of specialized Sports Partners represent the Taraflex and Recreation brands in major markets, supplementing the efforts of the broader sales team. In our Sport Court and Connor businesses, the team is comprised primarily of non-employee Agents, who sell, install and service our products in their markets, structured to provide immediate and responsive coverage to customers wherever they reside within those markets. This team, most of whom we have worked with for over 20 years (and in some cases exceeding 40 years or more), is a capable, experienced and seasoned group that represent our brands with integrity and care. With each of the three brands, our Sales Leadership teams, comprised of segment and sales directors and regional territory managers, oversee the health and efficiency of the entire operation within these broader geographies, and provide additional resources and back-up for the field-based teams. While there is some overlap among the membership of each brands sales and service team, for the most part they operate independently of one another, which provides even greater coverage geographically and in terms of the resources available at any given time and place. Collectively, when considering our sales, sales management, technical/service, and customer-care employees, there are well over 100 people who can be called upon to support any situation with any brand in any market around the United States and Canada, in many cases without even requiring out-of-area travel to get the right resources where they are needed. With the Gerflor-brand network, our agents and TSMs partner with a trusted group of installers in each market, providing training and support, and requiring the highest standards of competence and expertise. Over the past two years, we have made an extra focus with this group to ensure that the flooring contractors we partner with are well-educated in the reporting and pricing requirements of our current contracts. In the case of the Sport Court and Connor networks, the independent companies we work with provide a complete turnkey for the customer experience, from sales to installation to maintenance and any warranty or service work that may be required. See Sales & Service Network Table in Upload folder for more detail.

28	Service force.	While this has been addressed somewhat in Questions 26 and 27, above, it may be helpful to provide additional detail on our Technical and Field Services team. Each brand (Connor, Sport Court and Gerflor) has its own dedicated personnel who specialize in the products offered by that brand, and several members of the team have cross-over experience and expertise, as well, to assist as needed with any situations that may arise in their area. Our commitment is to solve service questions as they arise with the best resources available in the marketplace—between our independent teams and our in-house specialists, we deal with service issues quickly and responsively. See Sales & Service Network Table in Upload folder for more detail.	*
29	Describe the ordering process. If orders will be handled by distributors, dealers or others, explain the respective roles of the Proposer and others.	Efficiently processing and fulfilling customer orders is the lifeblood of our sales organizations. While each brand handles the details of order fulfillment slightly differently, each of them has simplified and streamlined the process to make it as customer-facing as possible. One great advantage is that of familiarity and repeatability. Rather than trying to manage an almost-infinite number of end-user customers, the vast majority of customer orders are placed through existing and long-standing dealer/partner accounts. While those still number in the hundreds, they are a known quantity to us, with a reliable history of knowledge of our products and processes, and with a track record that enables us to do the business of each order quickly and responsively, with little delay or administrative work. Each of the brands is also served by a separate team of Customer Care professionals, who know who they are dealing with, what their history has been, and what they need from us to operate effectively—all of which further expedites the day-to-day functions of receiving, fulfilling and billing of orders. Orders may be placed online, through e-mail or established dealer portals, and are immediately received and processed as quickly as the workload allows, generally within a business day. To summarize, in most cases we are selling to a known and trusted partner, who then handles sales, installation and service with the end-user with our help and support. This helps to ensure a consistent and satisfactory experience both for our partners and for the end-users they serve.	*
30	Describe in detail the process and procedure of your customer service program, if applicable. Include your response-time capabilities and commitments, as well as any incentives that help your providers meet your stated service goals or promises.	As noted in Question 29, above, Customer Care is a full commitment with all our brands, further strengthened by the long-standing, mutually beneficial relationships developed over the past decades with many of our agents and dealers. Our Customer Service personnel know who is calling and what they need, and in many cases can not only meet but anticipate how best to manage those needs. Most orders are placed within a business day, and delivered from existing inventory within the established lead times for each product and brand. We rely on the expertise of our independent field partners to coordinate timely, successful installations, and do all we can to expedite the materials, products and assistance they need to ensure a fully satisfactory customer experience. Most challenges and potential problems are dealt with effectively and quickly by this field team, and our regional managers, technical personnel and leadership provide back-up and additional resources for the rare, more complicated issues that may arise.	*
31	Describe your ability and willingness to provide your products and services to Sourcewell participating entities in the United States.	Because we have sales, service and installation partners actively operating in every state and territory, we are able to provide the full range of our product line to each market, to any and all Sourcewell members within the market. Our pricing structure provides consideration for the size of the project and location (and varying labor and other costs) of each geographical/market location, but the product and service offering is the same, whether the customer is in New York City or Omaha.	*
32	Describe your ability and willingness to provide your products and services to Sourcewell participating entities in Canada.	Similar to the United States, we are fully staffed in the Canadian provinces, with experienced dealers and partners in place in each major market, and with the same depth of product and service offering available to all Sourcewell/Canoe members.	*
33	Identify any geographic areas of the United States or Canada that you will NOT be fully serving through the proposed contract.	We are prepared to provide the same level of service to customers anywhere in the U.S. or Canada, with the same offering of products and pricing.	*
34	Identify any Sourcewell participating entity sectors (i.e., government, education, not-for-profit) that you will NOT be fully serving through the proposed contract. Explain in detail. For example, does your company have only a regional presence, or do other cooperative purchasing contracts limit your ability to promote another contract?	We have no limitations on our ability to fully serve all of the entity sectors represented by Sourcewell members. While we have other cooperative-purchasing contracts for some of our market segments and products, none of them will infringe on our ability to fully engage in this contact with Sourcewell and provide service to its members.	*
35	Define any specific contract requirements or restrictions that would apply to our participating entities in Hawaii and Alaska and in US Territories.	We have partners and representatives physically located in Hawaii for all three brands, in Alaska for the Gerflor brand, in addition to dedicated reps assigned to manage our business opportunities in the other U.S. and Canadian provinces and territories. We don't anticipate any restrictions on our ability to fully serve Sourcewell members in these locations.	*

Table 7: Marketing Plan

Line Item	Question	Response *
36	Describe your marketing strategy for promoting this contract opportunity. Upload representative samples of your marketing materials (if applicable) in the document upload section of your response.	We actively promote our group-purchasing contracts with each brand and market segment that applies to our business. At each of our national and regional sales meetings, and for each of our brands, we include an update/training session on our Sourcewell contract and the best ways our sales personnel can leverage its advantages. Our Training Department also promotes the Sourcewell-sponsored events, and conducts several additional training webinars throughout the year to continually educate the group and introduce the contract to new members of the team. We use Sourcewell's customizable marketing materials to allow each of our dealers and agents to promote the contract with their customers, and to establish themselves as the local contact and authorized representative to conduct business under the contract. See sample of marketing flyer provided by Sourcewell in Upload folder.
37	Describe your use of technology and digital data (e.g., social media, metadata usage) to enhance marketing effectiveness.	We have found excellent success and response in using social media platforms like LinkedIn, Facebook and Instagram as a tool that our sales teams can use in featuring unique and interesting projects and introducing new product lines to our customers. While not all of the projects are Sourcewell-originated, we have developed over 500 Featured Project Stories across the three brands over the past four years, and those stories are available as tools to promote both the good work our company does (increasing our presence and credibility), and in some cases, the connection to and advantages of working these projects through the contract. In addition, our websites provide regular updates and valuable information in educating the public-sector markets on the availability and applicability of our products for their projects. This has been particularly helpful with innovative but less well-known products like the safety and performance surfacing available through our Sport Court brand. Many customers in that space are so accustomed to asphalt and concrete courts outdoors that they can be surprised to find that there are superior and safer solutions available. We have been actively promoting that aspect of our work as a specific targeted business objective over the past two years. With the business changes we've all experienced as a result of the pandemic, we see an increased reliance in all businesses and market segments on digital promotions and technology to share our story, both about our business and products, and about how contracts like Sourcewell can streamline and expedite work for our public-sector customers.
38	In your view, what is Sourcewell's role in promoting contracts arising out of this RFP? How will you integrate a Sourcewell-awarded contract into your sales process?	We appreciate all the support we get from Sourcewell's staff, in promoting our business through the website and in the new marketplace and hope to see an increasing presence there. We welcome and support the training events sponsored by Sourcewell around the country, and continue to encourage both our sales-team employees and independent agents to participate. Our goal—which we've achieved to some extent with all our brands—is for our salespeople to have the Sourcewell contract 'in their front pocket' in every engagement with a public-sector client, and our internal training will continue with that aim in mind. A sizeable percentage of our Connor sales team, and a slightly lesser portion of the Sport Court and Gerflor teams, have already adopted this mindset, and continuing to train against this objective is a key priority this year, as it has been over the past 12 – 24 months. In addition, as trade shows and other industry events continue to rebound following the pandemic, we intend to increase awareness of our contract there, and by use of the Sourcewell logo on our and our field partners' websites and social channels.
39	Are your products or services available through an e-procurement ordering process? If so, describe your e-procurement system and how governmental and educational customers have used it.	Because virtually all our products are used in the setting of a construction project, with any number of site conditions and customer preferences driving the custom design and build, we have not found an effective way to offer a 'package' online. Our field partners create unique designs, sizes and product mixes for virtually every project, and we consider that to be a significant differentiating advantage in our business, so we don't anticipate doing much to make it more generic and commoditized. We are Courtbuilders, and that term signifies both the quality products we manufacture and distribute, but equally important, the ability to create a custom installation for each customer that reflects their needs and preferences. We will continue to look for ways to leverage the expanding technology of our digital world, and to the extent possible, we anticipate creating a larger presence in at least the promotional side of the e-procurement world, but at the end of the day, we don't want to lose the unique strength of having built over 150,000 custom courts around the world, for customers with a wide range of needs.

40	Describe any product, equipment, maintenance, or operator training programs that you offer to Sourcewell participating entities. Include details, such as whether training is standard or optional, who provides training, and any costs that apply.	Gerflor USA provides frequent, in-depth training to all reps, employees and associates on product knowledge, proper installation and maintenance, best business practices, and a variety of other topics as needed. We consider all members of our team, employees or not, full partners in our efforts to promote and sell our products and deliver satisfaction to all our customers, and no charge is ever assessed to them for the training we provide. Our TechnoCenter in the Chicago suburbs is focused primarily on the proper installation and maintenance of the sheet vinyl (Gerflor-brand) line of sports products. In the interests of raising the level of all players in that segment, we train not only our own installers, but also installers who primarily install competitive products. We're fortunate to have in the Sport Court and Connor businesses installation experts in our hardwood and modular sports surfacing who do extensive, ongoing training for their teams, and are also willing to share their expertise and experience in solving in-field challenges with other members of the team. At each of our annual sales meetings, for example, members of the Sport Court network share best practices, participate in and lead installation trainings, and otherwise share freely their skills and knowledge with others in the group. Gerflor Group also has a Central office that takes the lead in developing and making available e-learning modules that can be accessed by both our employees and independent agents, to ensure they have the latest information on the features and benefits of new products, technological advancements that differentiate our products and provide superior solutions, and clear guidance on maintenance and resolution of in-field issues that may arise. We also conduct Sourcewell member-facing trainings, primarily but not exclusively through AIA and to the A&D community, that educates participants on our products and services. We are adding a new CEU course on the advantages of cooperative purchasing, that will also be offered to public-sector customers in general, and more particularly, to Sourcewell members in the parks and recreation, community/government, and educational sectors by June 2022. We anticipate that this continuing-education course will increase awareness and acceptance of cooperative purchasing in general, and of the Sourcewell opportunity in particular.
41	Describe any technological advances that your proposed products or services offer.	The Gerflor Group and its subsidiaries have a long reputation as innovators in their industries, and our product line-up reflects that commitment to continuous improvement, and new and better solutions to common challenges faced by our customers. This commitment has long been part of our corporate DNA, and in fact, we are often differentiated in the marketplace not by the size of our company or the huge numbers of individual SKUs we offer, but by the specialized and targeted solutions and technical advantages we offer. As an example, our Taraflex cushioned vinyl sports surfacing is 'the original'; prior to its launch in 1947, no other manufacturer had ever created a sheet vinyl product suitable for sports. Today, that line includes a variety of options that allow the athletic flooring to be customized for practice vs. competition spaces, level of play, size and age of athletes, and a number of other factors. Similarly, prior to the advent of Sport Court's modular surfaces in 1974, no company had ever used a modular surface outdoors to create safer, high-performance courts and play areas. Through innovations in traction, shock absorption, lateral 'give' and lock engagement, the current line-up of Sport Court products delivers the only category of outdoor surfacing with the durability, aesthetics, performance and safety required to refer to it as a true sports surface. Connor Sports is the pre-eminent provider of hardwood courts for basketball and other sports, and has been for the past decade or so the Official Floor of the Final Four, and the provider of all courts for the NCAA's March Madness for both men's and women's basketball. No other flooring provider has as many solutions for sub-floor construction and components, which is the key defining element of any hardwood performance floor. Sport Court and Taraflex have been chosen as 'official floors' of the Olympics, FIVB, the NCAA and USA Volleyball, as well, for the past 25 years. While our selection by these leaders in sport are a result of our commitment and customer care, we have also committed extensive resources to developing the technical solutions that these evolving sports require. As athletes have become more and more capable and high performing, our flooring solutions have had to evolve as well, to continue to meet their needs. We're proud of our status and reputation as the best courtbuilders in the world.

42	Describe any “green” initiatives that relate to your company or to your products or services, and include a list of the certifying agency for each.	The Gerflor Group is committed to manufacturing and delivering products that contribute to human and environmental health, and pose no threats or harm to either. Each brand and product line aligns with the ‘green-building’ and eco-friendly product assessment organizations that best align with their mission and markets, but the commitment to these values is strongly present and constantly referenced in our business decisions and direction. Some examples of our commitments to being a responsible ‘citizen of the planet’ include: • 100% compliance with the REACH standard of construction materials manufactured in Europe. • Founder/charter membership in the Maple Flooring Manufacturer’s Association and the Forest Stewardship Council, both of which are engaged in the responsible management and preservation of North American forest lands. • Incorporation of recycled materials into our products wherever possible, and to the extent allowed by our quality and performance standards for each product, with YOY targets for increasing those percentages across the product lines. • Declare label certification for applicable product lines in the Gerflor commercial brand. • FloorScore certification for all Gerflor-brand products, signifying the lowest VOC ratings in the industry, and exceeding California Prop 65 air-quality requirements by a factor of 10 – 100 times. • Creation of HPD and EPD documentation, and definition of LEED contributions our products make to projects seeking certifications under that standard • Energy reduction measures at all factories and distribution centers that will result in net-zero carbon emissions over the next 20 years. In addition, re-design of product facilities and processes have already significantly reduced emissions, and energy and water use. • Numerous other ‘green certifications’ around the globe, as defined by government and other agencies in those countries.	*
43	Identify any third-party issued eco-labels, ratings or certifications that your company has received for the equipment or products included in your Proposal related to energy efficiency or conservation, life-cycle design (cradle-to-cradle), or other green/sustainability factors.	(See details in Question 42, above, but specifically to include REACH, FloorScore, Declare, LEED, HPD Collaborative, UL Spot, mindfulMATERIALS, third-party certified HPDs, EPDs, and Lifecycle Analyses as a required element of new product development.)	*
44	Describe any Women or Minority Business Entity (WMBE), Small Business Entity (SBE), or veteran owned business certifications that your company or hub partners have obtained. Upload documentation of certification (as applicable) in the document upload section of your response.	As a manufacturer based in Europe, our company does not meet the criteria for these certifications. Among our employees here in the United States, we have about a dozen veterans of the U.S. or French military. With several hundred field partners with whom we do business—and due to some reluctance on the part of some to be ‘gathered’ in this way—we do not have a comprehensive list of which of our business partners are in each of these categories. However, a recent informal survey of our sales and installation network reveals that as much as 15% of the roughly 300 companies we work with meet the criteria for one or more of these designations. We have some Women-, Veteran- and Minority-Owned businesses in all three of our product brands, and more still qualify as Small Business Entities.	*
45	What unique attributes does your company, your products, or your services offer to Sourcewell participating entities? What makes your proposed solutions unique in your industry as it applies to Sourcewell participating entities?	Perhaps the best measure of our unique attributes can be found in the number of ‘raving fans’ our products and people attract. Flooring, like most construction products, can be a world of ‘me-too’ and commodities, but our customers generally do not see us in that way. Our Gerflor/Taralex, Sport Court and Connor products are recognized and acknowledged (even by competitors) as the ‘gold standard’ against which any other products will be measured. Sport Court has for so long been seen as the premier modular surfacing that our brand name has been in danger of becoming generic—in other words, people often refer to any modular surface as a ‘sport court’ because we are the only brand as widely recognized. Connor hardwood floors represent the highest level of innovation and product development, with more DIN-certified sub-floors than any other manufacturer. And as has been noted, the Taralex brand of cushioned vinyl sports surfacing was not only first to market, but first to virtually every significant performance innovation since, from our high-moisture installation solutions, to the ‘no-skin-burn’ features that have made this flooring so popular with the volleyball community. As much as any of our product and company attributes, our seasoned, committed and expert field sales and installation team are true partners that represent our brands as if they own them. The professionalism they exhibit, and the long-term, trusted relationships they have developed over many years in the field are evidence of a unique overall ‘product offering’ that our company enjoys in its various markets. The best measure of our uniqueness might be found in the common refrain from customers and prospects in our markets, confirming that if they need a solution to such-and-such problem, Gerflor products are often the only available option that address all their concerns at a fair-market price.	*

Table 9: Warranty

Describe in detail your manufacturer warranty program, including conditions and requirements to qualify, claims procedure, and overall structure. You may upload representative samples of your warranty materials (if applicable) in the document upload section of your response in addition to responding to the questions below.

Line Item	Question	Response *
46	Do your warranties cover all products, parts, and labor?	Our product warranties cover manufacturing defects for a variable period of time, depending on the brand/product line, ranging from 10 – 15 years from time of installation. Although our products are known for their durability and performance under a variety of conditions, there are times when defects arise that need to be redressed. When a product is found to be defective, our warranties generally provide the option to 'repair or replace' and that work is done at our expense.	*
47	Do your warranties impose usage restrictions or other limitations that adversely affect coverage?	There are some practical limitations that we would apply to most of our product lines, most of which have to do with approved/appropriate usage of the product, loads they may be subjected to without damage, etc. Flooring products typically wear over time, and as with most products exposed to long-term traffic and loads, they carry a definable lifespan under the conditions. Our warranties generally assume a depreciating value over time, based on the wear and tear they experience, and our policies for replacement or repair reflect that value over the product's lifespan.	*
48	Do your warranties cover the expense of technicians' travel time and mileage to perform warranty repairs?	When products found to be defective require onsite inspection or repair work, we cover the cost of labor, time and travel (whether employee or our field partners) involved with making those visits to rectify the problem.	*
49	Are there any geographic regions of the United States or Canada (as applicable) for which you cannot provide a certified technician to perform warranty repairs? How will Sourcewell participating entities in these regions be provided service for warranty repair?	No. We provide full coverage for all our service and sales areas listed in this proposal; specifically to include the United States and its territories, and all Canadian provinces and territories. If an appropriate, qualified field partner is not located convenient to the project, we will provide an employee technician to address any warranty claims or product problems.	*
50	Will you cover warranty service for items made by other manufacturers that are part of your proposal, or are these warranties issues typically passed on to the original equipment manufacturer?	We warranty all Gerflor-made and distributed products, which is inclusive of all the products listed in this proposal. For products we offer that are made for us by other suppliers, we partner with those suppliers to ensure that our customers have a seamless and satisfactory experience with any products that prove defective.	*
51	What are your proposed exchange and return programs and policies?	Products ordered may be returned with some exceptions. Accessories such as adhesives, weld rods, paint, primer are non-returnable once the goods have left our warehouse. Non-stocked items or special orders are also considered 'final sales' and are non-returnable. Stocking products may be returned with a return authorization number from the company, and a 30% re-stocking fee will generally apply. Customer is responsible for return freight.	*
52	Describe any service contract options for the items included in your proposal.	Gerflor (and its subsidiaries') products are generally intended to be able to be easily maintained by the facility/customer's personnel, and are further designed and manufactured with durability and long service life in mind. Additionally, the work of installation is typically done by our field partners, and in the rare case that a customer wishes to enter into a service contract, it is done with the field partner, who would set their own parameters for the agreement. Gerflor's Technical and Warranty Team stands behind all products if a question of product defect arises.	*

Table 10: Payment Terms and Financing Options

Line Item	Question	Response *
53	Describe your payment terms and accepted payment methods.	Our standard terms for payment are 30 days, although for extraordinary projects, we are able to sometimes extend terms as needed. Customers can pay via check, electronic funds transfer, or ACH/wire transfer. Customers may use established website portals for payment of pending invoices, as well.	*
54	Describe any leasing or financing options available for use by educational or governmental entities.	We generally do not lease products or finance purchases; however, we have established relationships with reputable lending institutions who can offer financing assistance with our customers as needed, including Sourcewell's leasing partner, with whom we have worked on a few projects in the past. We also partner with trusted dealers on extraordinary projects from time to time, to ensure that projects can proceed without interruption, and to help our network manage these unusual cash-flow requirements.	*
55	Describe any standard transaction documents that you propose to use in connection with an awarded contract (order forms, terms and conditions, service level agreements, etc.). Upload a sample of each (as applicable) in the document upload section of your response.	Over the past several years, we have developed registration and tracking documents that help us ensure that we are compliant with our group-purchasing obligations, and that all required reports can be gathered and organized in a timely manner, according to the requirements of each contract. As an example, the Project Registration Form helps us capture all the required information for a project pursued under the Sourcewell contract and provides a record that helps us track project details and timelines. See Upload folder for a copy of our Project Registration Form. We train our field partners to follow the requirements of the Sourcewell agreement in the formatting of their proposals and invoices, to reflect our Vendor # and the customer's Member #, and to ensure that all requirements for pricing and other criteria are followed. Each project is registered and reviewed to ensure timely and accurate reporting on the Quarterly Sales Reports submitted to Sourcewell.	*
56	Do you accept the P-card procurement and payment process? If so, is there any additional cost to Sourcewell participating entities for using this process?	Yes, at no additional cost.	*

Table 11: Pricing and Delivery

Provide detailed pricing information in the questions that follow below. Keep in mind that reasonable price and product adjustments can be made during the term of an awarded Contract as described in the RFP, the template Contract, and the Sourcewell Price and Product Change Request Form.

-----------	----------	------------	--

57	Describe your pricing model (e.g., line-item discounts or product-category discounts). Provide detailed pricing data (including standard or list pricing and the Sourcewell discounted price) on all of the items that you want Sourcewell to consider as part of your RFP response. If applicable, provide a SKU for each item in your proposal. Upload your pricing materials (if applicable) in the document upload section of your response.	With three different business units, separate sales-management teams, and the frequency of situations where our field sales force competes not only with others in the market, but with each other, our pricing models do not all follow the same pattern. First, as the manufacturer and distributor of the products included in this proposal, we do not generally set a retail or List Price for our products, particularly in the fully installed, turnkey pricing model we propose here. Each market and each brand defines their own List Pricing (or not, as the case may be) in line with the competitive marketplaces in which they do business and the market segments they pursue. Our Product and Pricing Grid, which is found in the Upload folder, lists all products offered under this proposal by all our brands (Connor Sports, Gerflor/Taraflex, Sport Court and Portafloor). In most cases—and particularly where the products are installed by our field partners—we organize the price ceilings to reflect labor and transportation costs in the market, as well as the economies of scale that might be achieved on larger projects. All of our dealers are familiar with—and daily participating in—highly competitive marketplaces where much of the business is done through project-by-project open bids. The result is that even where a retail or List Price hasn't been published, most of our public-agency customers are keenly aware of what a competitive price looks like, and our dealers recognize the importance of providing pricing that aligns with those expectations. As a result, even where we have established not-to-exceed pricing for their projects and products, the majority of their proposals rarely come within 15% of that ceiling.	*
58	Quantify the pricing discount represented by the pricing proposal in this response. For example, if the pricing in your response represents a percentage discount from MSRP or list, state the percentage or percentage range.	Although our pricing is not published with a standard discount, the pricing in our proposal reflects an average discount of 5 – 15% below what a public agency might be charged for the work outside of this contract. For each brand, the discount is less for those products that represent unique or proprietary solutions. For items that are more of a commodity, or equal to most other products generally available in the marketplace, there are greater discounts applied to the pricing. As an example, the Gerflor brand has developed moisture-mitigation products and procedures for 'wet slabs'; concrete substrates with vapor emissions higher than allowed for products to be adhered to them. These are not 'me-too' solutions, but rather unique innovations that allow the flooring to be securely placed sooner, and with virtually no risk for future adhesion issues, than anything else on the market. Our pricing for those innovations represents a lower discount, because the solutions are superior to anything else on the market, and unavailable through other channels. They save our customers time and money, making it possible for projects to be completed more quickly and at lower overall cost.	*
59	Describe any quantity or volume discounts or rebate programs that you offer.	Most of the products included in our proposal include variable pricing based on the region of the country AND on the size of the project. Understanding that a larger project may create some economies of scale, we're able to discount the pricing on a square-foot basis to some extent where the scope of the project is on a larger scale.	*
60	Propose a method of facilitating "sourced" products or related services, which may be referred to as "open market" items or "nonstandard options". For example, you may supply such items "at cost" or "at cost plus a percentage," or you may supply a quote for each such request.	Although nearly all of our projects use exclusively those products and services established on our contract, a small percentage require the acquisition of other products and services from the 'open market' to satisfactorily meet customer needs. Based on our experience—and on the fact that these open-sourced items are relatively rarely requested, we would prefer to offer these items, when requested, with a quote for each such request.	*
61	Identify any element of the total cost of acquisition that is NOT included in the pricing submitted with your response. This includes all additional charges associated with a purchase that are not directly identified as freight or shipping charges. For example, list costs for items like pre-delivery inspection, installation, set up, mandatory training, or initial inspection. Identify any parties that impose such costs and their relationship to the Proposer.	There are no other regular or significant costs for a typical project not covered by our established product and price schedule, including the specific examples listed above. We do not charge additional fees for these types of project elements.	*

62	If freight, delivery, or shipping is an additional cost to the Sourcewell participating entity, describe in detail the complete freight, shipping, and delivery program.	Shipping and logistics issues have been a hot button over the past 12 – 18 months, with unprecedented and unpredictable increases occurring on a regular basis. Our proposed pricing is intended to include standard shipping costs. We have instituted some temporary freight surcharges for certain products across our brands over the past several months, but our field partners are generally just considering them (not citing them as additional costs) in the creation of their pricing proposals to the end user. We find that most customers in our markets are aware of the unusual logistics landscape and pressures we're all facing at this time and we are collaborating with our field team to effectively manage those costs within the constraints of the contract.	*
63	Specifically describe freight, shipping, and delivery terms or programs available for Alaska, Hawaii, Canada, or any offshore delivery.	We don't anticipate the need to handle freight and shipping issues any differently with our customers in Canada, Hawaii and Alaska any differently than is described above. Offshore deliveries outside of North America may require some consideration, but as a global manufacturer and distributor, most of our products are available from distribution points outside the United States, as well.	*
64	Describe any unique distribution and/or delivery methods or options offered in your proposal.	Because flooring is generally bulky and relatively heavy, most of our shipments are handled through LTL or private carriers, although we also utilize such common freight carriers as UPS, FedEx and others as needed, and for smaller shipments and packages.	*

Table 12: Pricing Offered

Line Item	The Pricing Offered in this Proposal is: *	Comments
65	d. other than what the Proposer typically offers (please describe).	With our other GPO and public-agency arrangements (primarily with the Gerflor brand), we generally sell in a 'product-only' mode, not in partnership with our field teams to provide turnkey, fully installed pricing for their projects. Most of the variability in costs under this structure—and therefore in the pricing we are proposing here—is a result of widely different costs for labor, freight and other elements of a project, depending on where it is located. It is generally true that, in practice, our Sourcewell customers get favorable pricing when compared to the pricing offered to other GPO or public-agency customers by our field partners; however, we don't have a comprehensive comparison, primarily due to lack of data on transactions other than those under our agreement with Sourcewell.

Table 13: Audit and Administrative Fee

-----------	----------	------------

66	Specifically describe any self-audit process or program that you plan to employ to verify compliance with your proposed Contract with Sourcewell. This process includes ensuring that Sourcewell participating entities obtain the proper pricing, that the Vendor reports all sales under the Contract each quarter, and that the Vendor remits the proper administrative fee to Sourcewell. Provide sufficient detail to support your ability to report quarterly sales to Sourcewell as described in the Contract template.	We have a well-defined program to ensure that we are complete and accurate in tracking and reporting projects under the Sourcewell contract, with layers of support from our sales and service networks, the regional managers that support each brand, and our administrative practices to capture projects early on in the process, and then follow and report on each as they are completed. The first level involves ongoing training for sales and leadership teams, on a regular basis in annual sales meetings, regional meetings, and in scheduled training sessions. We have created tracking forms, FAQ and summary documents, and a flyer for our end-customers that all explain various aspects of the Sourcewell relationship and what our obligations and requirements are for compliance. These are available through our file-sharing systems, and when requested. Additionally, our program administrator is available to answer specific questions and provide documentation and other information as needed for Sourcewell members who want to use the contract but may have concerns about its applicability in their area. These kinds of interactions occur almost daily, across our brands and sales channels, and provide timely help for anyone with questions about process, pricing, or reporting. The next level is established to ensure that we are compliant in our registration, tracking and reporting functions. When a project is being considered for a Sourcewell track, either the contractor working directly with the Sourcewell member, or occasionally, the sales manager overseeing that territory and brand, fill out a Project Registration Form that provides all the information required for us to properly track the project through its completion. When that form is received, the project is entered into the Project Registry, and key dates, quantities, codes and expected invoice amounts are noted. At the end of each quarter, worksheets are sent to the responsible party for each project expected to have been completed during the previous quarter, and all projects for which an expected completion date has not been registered. The dealer/rep is then required to report on the project status, total amount invoiced, and other information required for our quarterly reporting. Finally, once that information is confirmed, the quarterly report is prepared and submitted, along with the check for the combined, collected administrative fees associated with each project that was completed in the previous quarter. We have also trained our Customer Service and sales teams to be on the lookout—and to indicate in our order-processing system, any projects where an interest or intent in pursuing the project through the Sourcewell contract has been expressed. The program administrator also talks with several salespeople each week who have questions regarding the contract, and particularly about specific projects that might be looking to use the contract, and those conversations are noted so that they can be followed up on when the next quarterly reporting period arrives. We also work with our dealers and reps to ensure that even in those rare cases where they have forgotten a specific requirement, or failed to properly register a project early on in the process, that we can adjust to ensure that they are still able to register the project and provide the required administrative fees. When those situations have arisen, we also use them as an opportunity for education and reminder of the shared responsibilities we all have with regard to the contract. See the Upload folder for sample documents used in this process.

67	If you are awarded a contract, provide a few examples of internal metrics that will be tracked to measure whether you are having success with the contract.	We track quarterly and YOY performance under the contract, measuring total projects registered, total projects won, and total invoice and administrative fee values. One of our brands, Connor Sports, has the longest and most-successful experience with our contract, and we use their successes—and the examples of the dealers for that brand that most effectively utilize the contract—to demonstrate to and teach others about the best ways to leverage the relationship. While the total amount of business conducted under the contract varies by quarter, year and economic conditions, we have been pleased to see a continuous pattern of growth in the totals, and in the level of activity by more dealers and reps across all three of our brands. We feel like we've reached a sort of critical mass in the number of our dealers who actively present the contract as part of their sales engagement process in the Connor brand, and we are actively training and working with the other networks to continue to grow awareness and activity, as well.	*
68	Identify a proposed administrative fee that you will pay to Sourcewell for facilitating, managing, and promoting the Sourcewell Contract in the event that you are awarded a Contract. This fee is typically calculated as a percentage of Vendor's sales under the Contract or as a per-unit fee; it is not a line-item addition to the Member's cost of goods. (See the RFP and template Contract for additional details.)	We propose a 2% administrative fee for this contract.	*

Table 14A: Depth and Breadth of Offered Equipment Products and Services

Line Item	Question	Response *
69	Provide a detailed description of the equipment, products, and services that you are offering in your proposal.	We propose to include all of our sports and activity flooring across all four brands (Sport Court, Connor, Gerflor and Portafloor) and the accessories associated with those products. All products will be fully installed, serviced and supported in every N. American market, through our experienced and capable teams of independent field partners. Specifically, this will include: • Our Recreation, Taraflex and Attraction lines from the Gerflor brand, and all required accessories for installation. • All Connor hardwood sub-floor systems and accessories, and the MFMA-approved northern hardrock maple strip of all grades. Elastipius, our poured urethane flooring system, will also be included, as will our hardwood portable flooring systems. • All Sport Court products designed for commercial use, including both indoor gymnasium flooring and outdoor safety and performance surfaces, commercial-grade hoops, lights, and a variety of other accessories necessary to build courts in the outdoor space. • All Portafloor products, which can be used for event or temporary flooring, or as a substitute for concrete and other substrates underneath a performance athletic surface.	*
70	Within this RFP category there may be subcategories of solutions. List subcategory titles that best describe your products and services.	See above, Question 69, for the details of product lines and brands we propose to include in our offering. As a description of sub-categories, we'd suggest the following: • Hardwood athletic flooring • Modular athletic flooring • Urethane athletic flooring • Resilient cushioned vinyl athletic flooring • Outdoor court accessories • Portable, temporary and event flooring	*

Indicate below if the listed types or classes of equipment, products, and services are offered within your proposal. Provide additional comments in the text box provided, as necessary.

Line Item	Category or Type	Offered *	Comments
71	Athletic surfacing materials such as: Hardwood, Synthetic, Rubber, Sports Vinyl and Clay.	☒ Yes ☐ No	Gerflor USA and its N. American subsidiaries Connor Sports and Sport Court provide hardwood, poured urethane (rubber), sports vinyl and synthetic modular sports flooring surfaces. Clay courts for tennis are a relatively niche product and not one of our manufactured items, but should a Sourcewell member need a clay court, we have independent partners who carry those products and have expertise in building the courts.	*
72	Equipment, options, accessories, technology and supplies complementary or incidental to the purchase of a turnkey or complete solution of the types described in 71 above.	☒ Yes ☐ No	With the exception of clay courts for tennis (as noted above), our court builders from each brand have extensive experience in every facet of building courts with these surfacing materials, from design and consultation, to construction and ongoing service. Complete turnkey solutions are their focus—to design, build, and accessorize courts from start to finish.	*
73	Services related to the offering of the solutions described in Lines 71 and 72 above, including installation, removal, disposal, refurbishment, inspection, repair, maintenance, training, and support.	☒ Yes ☐ No	Whether a project requires demolition and disposal of previous surfacing or native soils, our court builders are fully equipped to being projects from concept to completion. They are skilled in placing concrete for foundations for outside courts and accessories, in site prep of all kinds to ensure a proper fit and function for the installation of any of our sports-flooring products, and in the installation of approved sports accessories such as hoops, lights and nets. They are knowledgeable in licensing, certificates and other approvals required in their local markets, inspection requirements, and other information necessary to move a project through its various phases toward completion. They can refurbish and upgrade an old facility with surfacing, equipment and accessories, or build a new facility from the ground up. They take pride in professional, ongoing customer care, and can service, repair and maintain any of the products in our schedule. Our in-house Technical team provides an able back-up and knowledge base for any questions or challenges that may arise, and they can be deployed typically in a matter of days should the need arise.	*

74	Describe any unique advantage your product offers in relation to design, manufacturing, performance, maintenance, and product longevity.	The Gerflor Group has long been associated with innovative, problem-solving products, and the product offerings on this proposal are no exception. Some specific examples: • Gerflor's Taraflex line of cushioned-vinyl sports flooring features a best-in-class surface treatment that makes the product naturally bacterio- and viro-static; meaning that it won't foster the growth of harmful microbes, including the Covid virus. In addition, the surface treatment virtually eliminates skin burn for athletes (like volleyball players) who frequently dive onto the surface during play. • The group has launched a number of initiatives designed to reduce energy and water use at our factories, leading to a goal of complete carbon neutrality within 20 years. We have already instituted design changes such as a gravity feed system for raw materials and product processing that significantly reduces the amount of electricity required at those plants. • All of our sports-surfacing products are designed for longevity and continued performance throughout their lifespan. Hardwood floors can be refinished from time to time, and properly maintained, carry a lifespan of 35 – 40 years, making it likely that a replacement floor in some facilities will never be required. Our other products routinely provide service for 20 – 25 years in the field, making our product lines among the most durable options in the industry. • Improvements in the design of our outdoor sports surfaces represent a revolutionary leap forward, creating better wet/dry traction, reducing skin burn, and generating higher levels of shock absorption and injury protection. • We manufacture and design our products under a continuous improvement mandate, which means we are always looking for better compounds and chemicals, more environmentally friendly materials and processes, more efficient ways to produce and create our products. This might entail increasing the percentage of recycled materials used in producing a particular product or the inclusion of more rapidly renewable materials. • We have also increased our focus on creating products with an environmentally favorable, simple and cost-efficient maintenance protocol. Our wood floors are recoated every year or so, generally with water-based finishes, and require no other maintenance than a dry mop to keep them clean. Gerflor-branded products features surface treatments that resist staining and marks, making those products simple to maintain with an auto-scrubber or similar equipment. Sport Court's indoor gym surfaces also employ a proprietary surface treatment that virtually never wears out, nor does it require any in-field treatment or re-coating. These are just a few examples of our work to provide environmentally responsible products that deliver the best lifespan, durability, and low maintenance costs of any products in the industry. We are also noted for the unique problem-solving characteristics of our flooring solutions, making it possible to address situations like slab moisture in the installation of our products.
75	Describe any sustainability design features your product offers.	Some of our sustainability and green-manufacturing efforts are detailed elsewhere in the proposal, but our products are: • 100% compliant with REACH, European legislation that mandates the inclusion of no harmful chemicals in our products • 100% FloorScore certified, indicating indoor air quality performance that far exceeds the requirements of California Prop 65, and ensures no harmful VOCs are emitted through our products. • Contributory to many of the LEED requirements for 'green' building, with third-party validated Environmental and Health Product Declarations. • Manufactured in ISO-certified factories with an emphasis on the reduction of energy and water usage.

76	Describe the installation process and how it is managed from product order to completion.	Once a project has been ‘won’, the installation process across our various brands looks something like this: Our local dealer or contractor, who has discussed, negotiated and worked to design the best solution for the customer’s needs, then orders the necessary sports-flooring products and accessories from our Connor, Sport Court or Gerflor offices. Each of these brands operates independently on a day-to-day basis, although all three are managed by the same management team and guided by the same values and principles, although some specific policies may vary by brand. Lead times for the production and/or delivery of all products is established by the logistics and sales teams of each brand, so a dealer/contractor can know when to expect delivery of the required products and can coordinate the other elements of the installation or construction. Some projects (such as outdoor courts) frequently require the placement of a new concrete slab, and the contractor can coordinate that phase so that the slab is poured and cured and ready for installation when the products arrive. In other cases, such as renovations or flooring replacements indoors, the process is focused on cleaning, leveling and preparation the slab or sub-floor to receive the sports-flooring products for a flat, level and satisfactory playing experience. Once the site prep is completed and the product has arrived, the contractor can then build or install to the customer’s specifications the athletic surfacing and any accessories or equipment related to the project. The duration of an installation may vary by size and product type, but if other trades are complete and not intruding on the process, most sports-flooring products can be installed in a few days to a few weeks. Permanently installed wood floors probably take the most time, because the installation process requires installation of both the sub-floor and the maple strip, then a process of sanding and finishing the surface.
