Only College Board-approved accommodations are permitted. Students who use accommodated test materials without College Board's prior approval may not receive scores or may otherwise have their scores cancelled or invalidated, and that cannot be reported to colleges, scholarship programs and other designated score recipients. Client allowed accommodations that prevent reportable scores cannot be reported to colleges, scholarship programs, and other designated score recipients. Should an event occur that would require Participating School(s) to close for reasons beyond the reasonable control of such Participating School(s) (for example, including, but not limited to, severe weather, extended power outages, or a teacher's strike) (a 'Delay Event'), the Participating School(s) should adjust testing until later in the Testing Window.

Client understands that by selecting the last week of a Testing Window as their main administration date, if there is a Delay Event, there may be no additional SAT School Day test dates. In such cases, this Agreement remains in full force and effect. No additional administration of the assessment will be made available after the Testing Window.
