

RethinkEd Behavior Training Series

THE POWER OF Creating a Safe and Caring Classroom

A safe and caring classroom environment is essential for students to feel secure, valued, and ready to learn. Approaching student behaviors with empathy, respect and an open mind is essential. Clearly communicate your intention to help students succeed, and provide information on how you can assist with academic or personal struggles.

Key Takeaways to Create a Safe and Caring Classroom

- Provide clear expectations and facilitate student connections.
- Seek to understand the underlying causes of behaviors before responding.
- Teach and model safe, respectful behaviors. Provide behavior-specific feedback when you notice these behaviors.
- Maintain consistent expectations to provide structure and stability.

Behavior Training Topics

Understanding
Behavior

Teaching
Behavior Skills

Managing
Behavior

Creating Positive
School Environments

Discover RethinkEd's innovative strategies for student behavior and classroom management.

