Professional Personnel Resignation

Employment contracts issued pursuant O.C.G.A. § 20-2-211 between the Forsyth County Board of Education ("Board") and certain certificated employees are for a specified term. An employee who has accepted a contract of employment for a specified term may not resign from the contract without breaching his/her contract unless there is a mutual agreement between the employee and the Board to the release from the contract.
The Superintendent ~~of Schools~~ or Superintendent's designee shall be authorized to accept or reject resignations, on behalf of the Forsyth County Board of Education, from all employees of the school system. If a contracted employee's resignation is rejected, and he/she refuses to return to the District, that employee is in breach of his or her contract.
