APRIL 2, 2020

Funeral Held for House Representative MaryAnn Black

DURHAM, N.C. — Rep. MaryAnn Black’s fellow state lawmakers and other admirers remembered for her service as a social worker and dedication to health and human services issues.

Black, 76, passed March 26, 2020 She served on the Durham County Board of Commissioners from 1990 to 2002 before serving in the House since her 2017 appointment to the 29th District seat.

Gov. Roy Cooper tweeted: “MaryAnn Black was a strong, compassionate leader who spent her life making North Carolinians healthier and better educated. She will be sorely missed by all of us who knew her and called her a friend.”

House Speaker Tim Moore said in a statement Friday that Black “made a powerful difference in the lives of North Carolinians through decades of service.”

“I know that Rep. Black’s friends, family, and neighbors, were as proud to be represented by her in the General Assembly as she dedicated to serving them, and we send her loved ones our deepest condolences for their loss in this difficult time,” Moore said.

COVID-19 Response For North Carolina Public Schools

- The COVID-19 Response for North Carolina Public Schools, issued by the North Carolina State Board of Education and Department of Public Instruction, provides guidance to public school leaders in response to school closures resulting from the COVID-19 public health emergency.
- Gov. Roy Cooper directed the North Carolina State Board of Education (SBE) in collaboration with the Department of Public Instruction (DPI) to develop a plan to:
  - Ensure access to a quality education for students through the remainder of the school year;
  - Provide students with remote learning while school buildings are closed; and
  - Ensure that all school employees – including janitors, bus drivers, teaching assistants and cafeteria workers -- will work in safe environments and be paid.
- NCDPI COVID-19 Weekly Top Ten-Issued on Friday to superintendents and NCDPI leadership (hoping to expand reach)
