

2018 Results Highlights

More educator voices were included in the 2018 NC TWC survey than ever before! 109,453

The highest response rate ever for NC TWC was also achieved in 2018 with more than 9 out of 10 educators responding to the survey

2018 NC TWC Participants

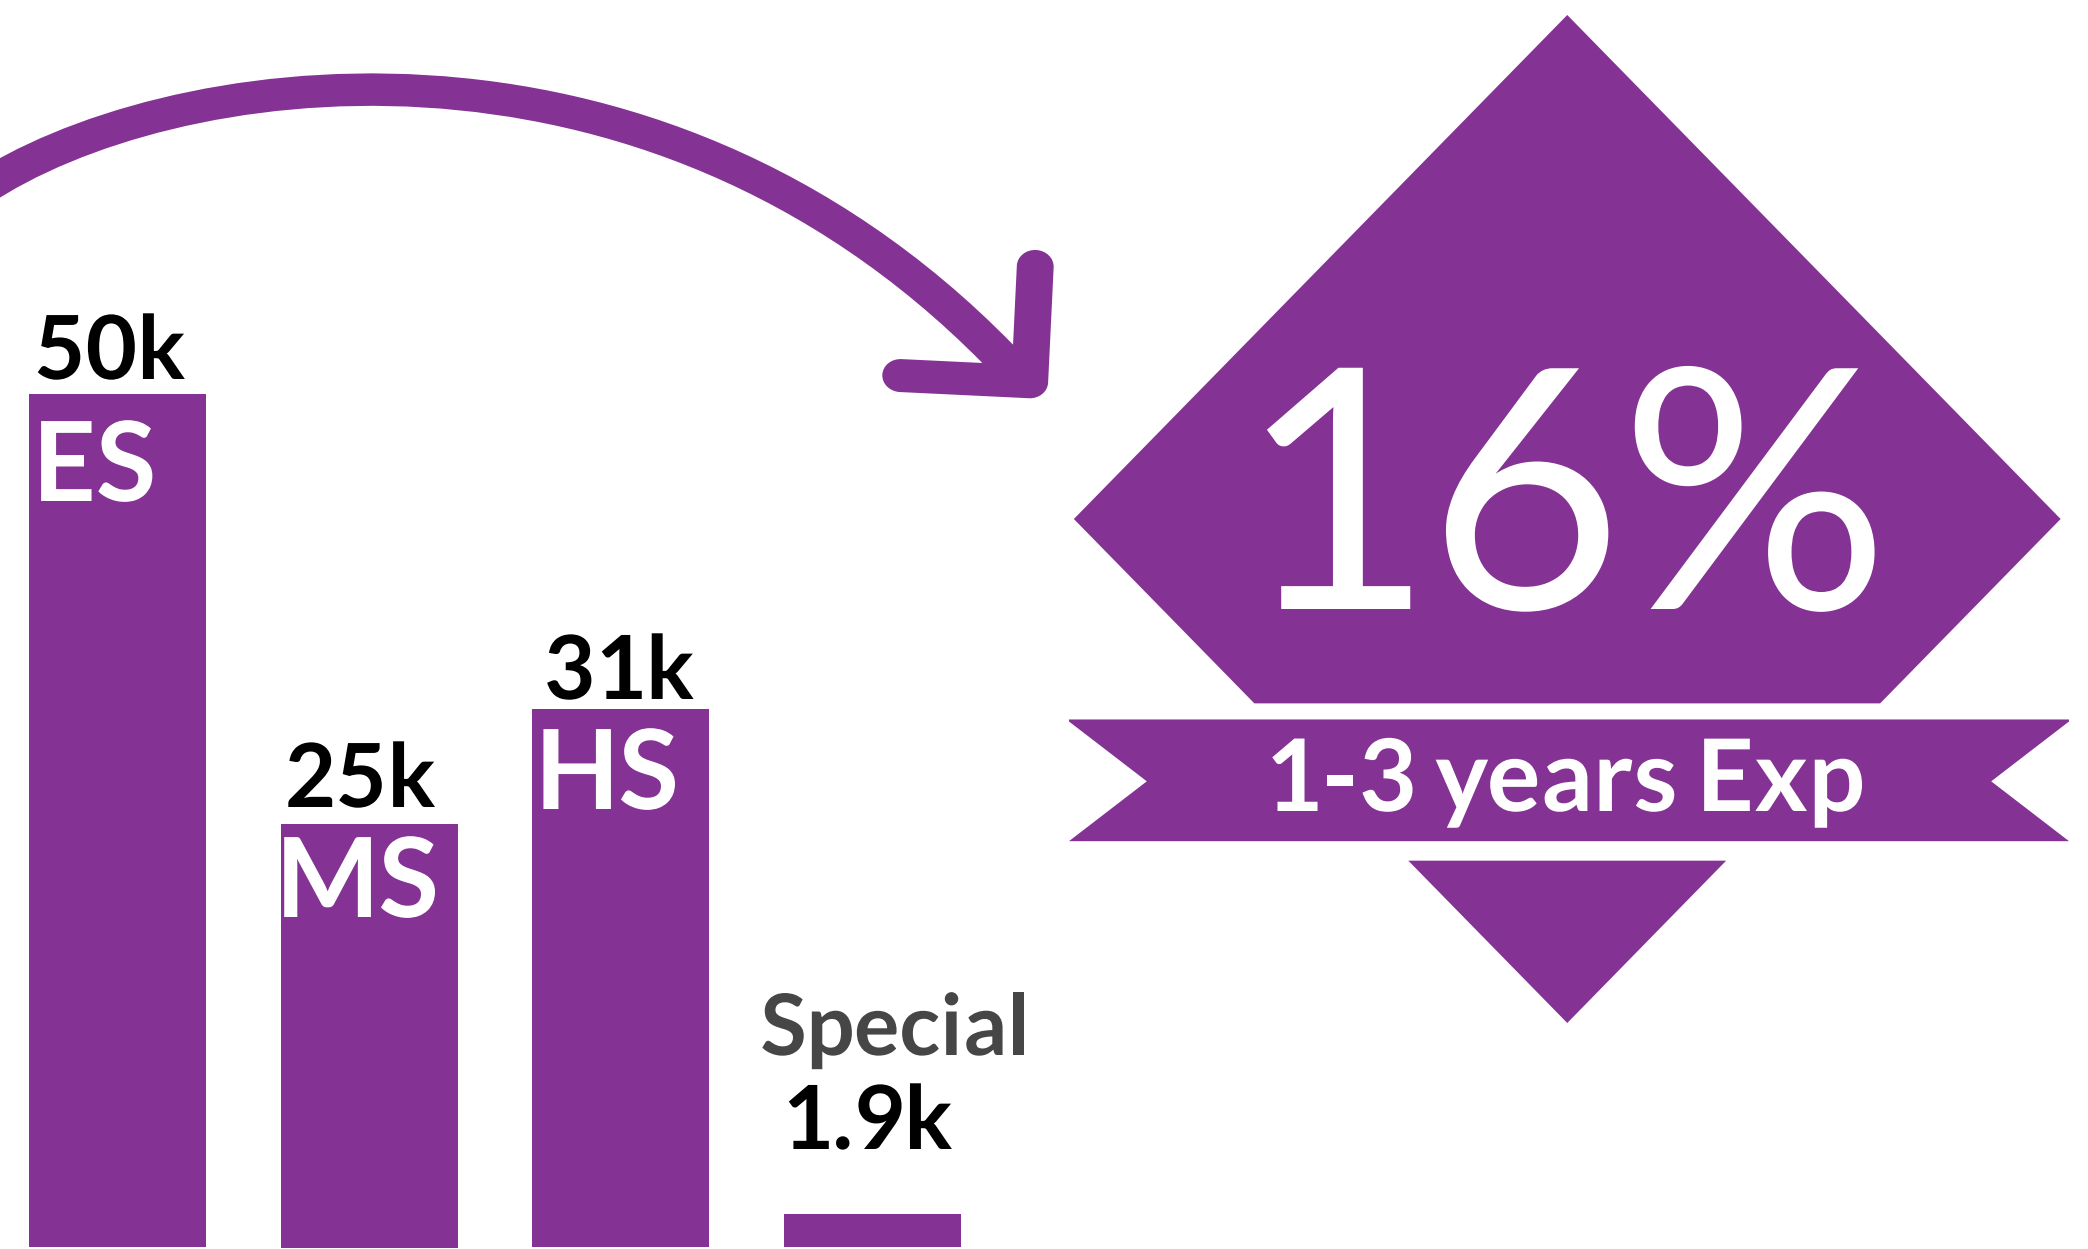

95,922 teachers

2,113 principals

2,481 assistant principals

8,910 other ed. professionals

NC TWC Constructs Rates of Agreement

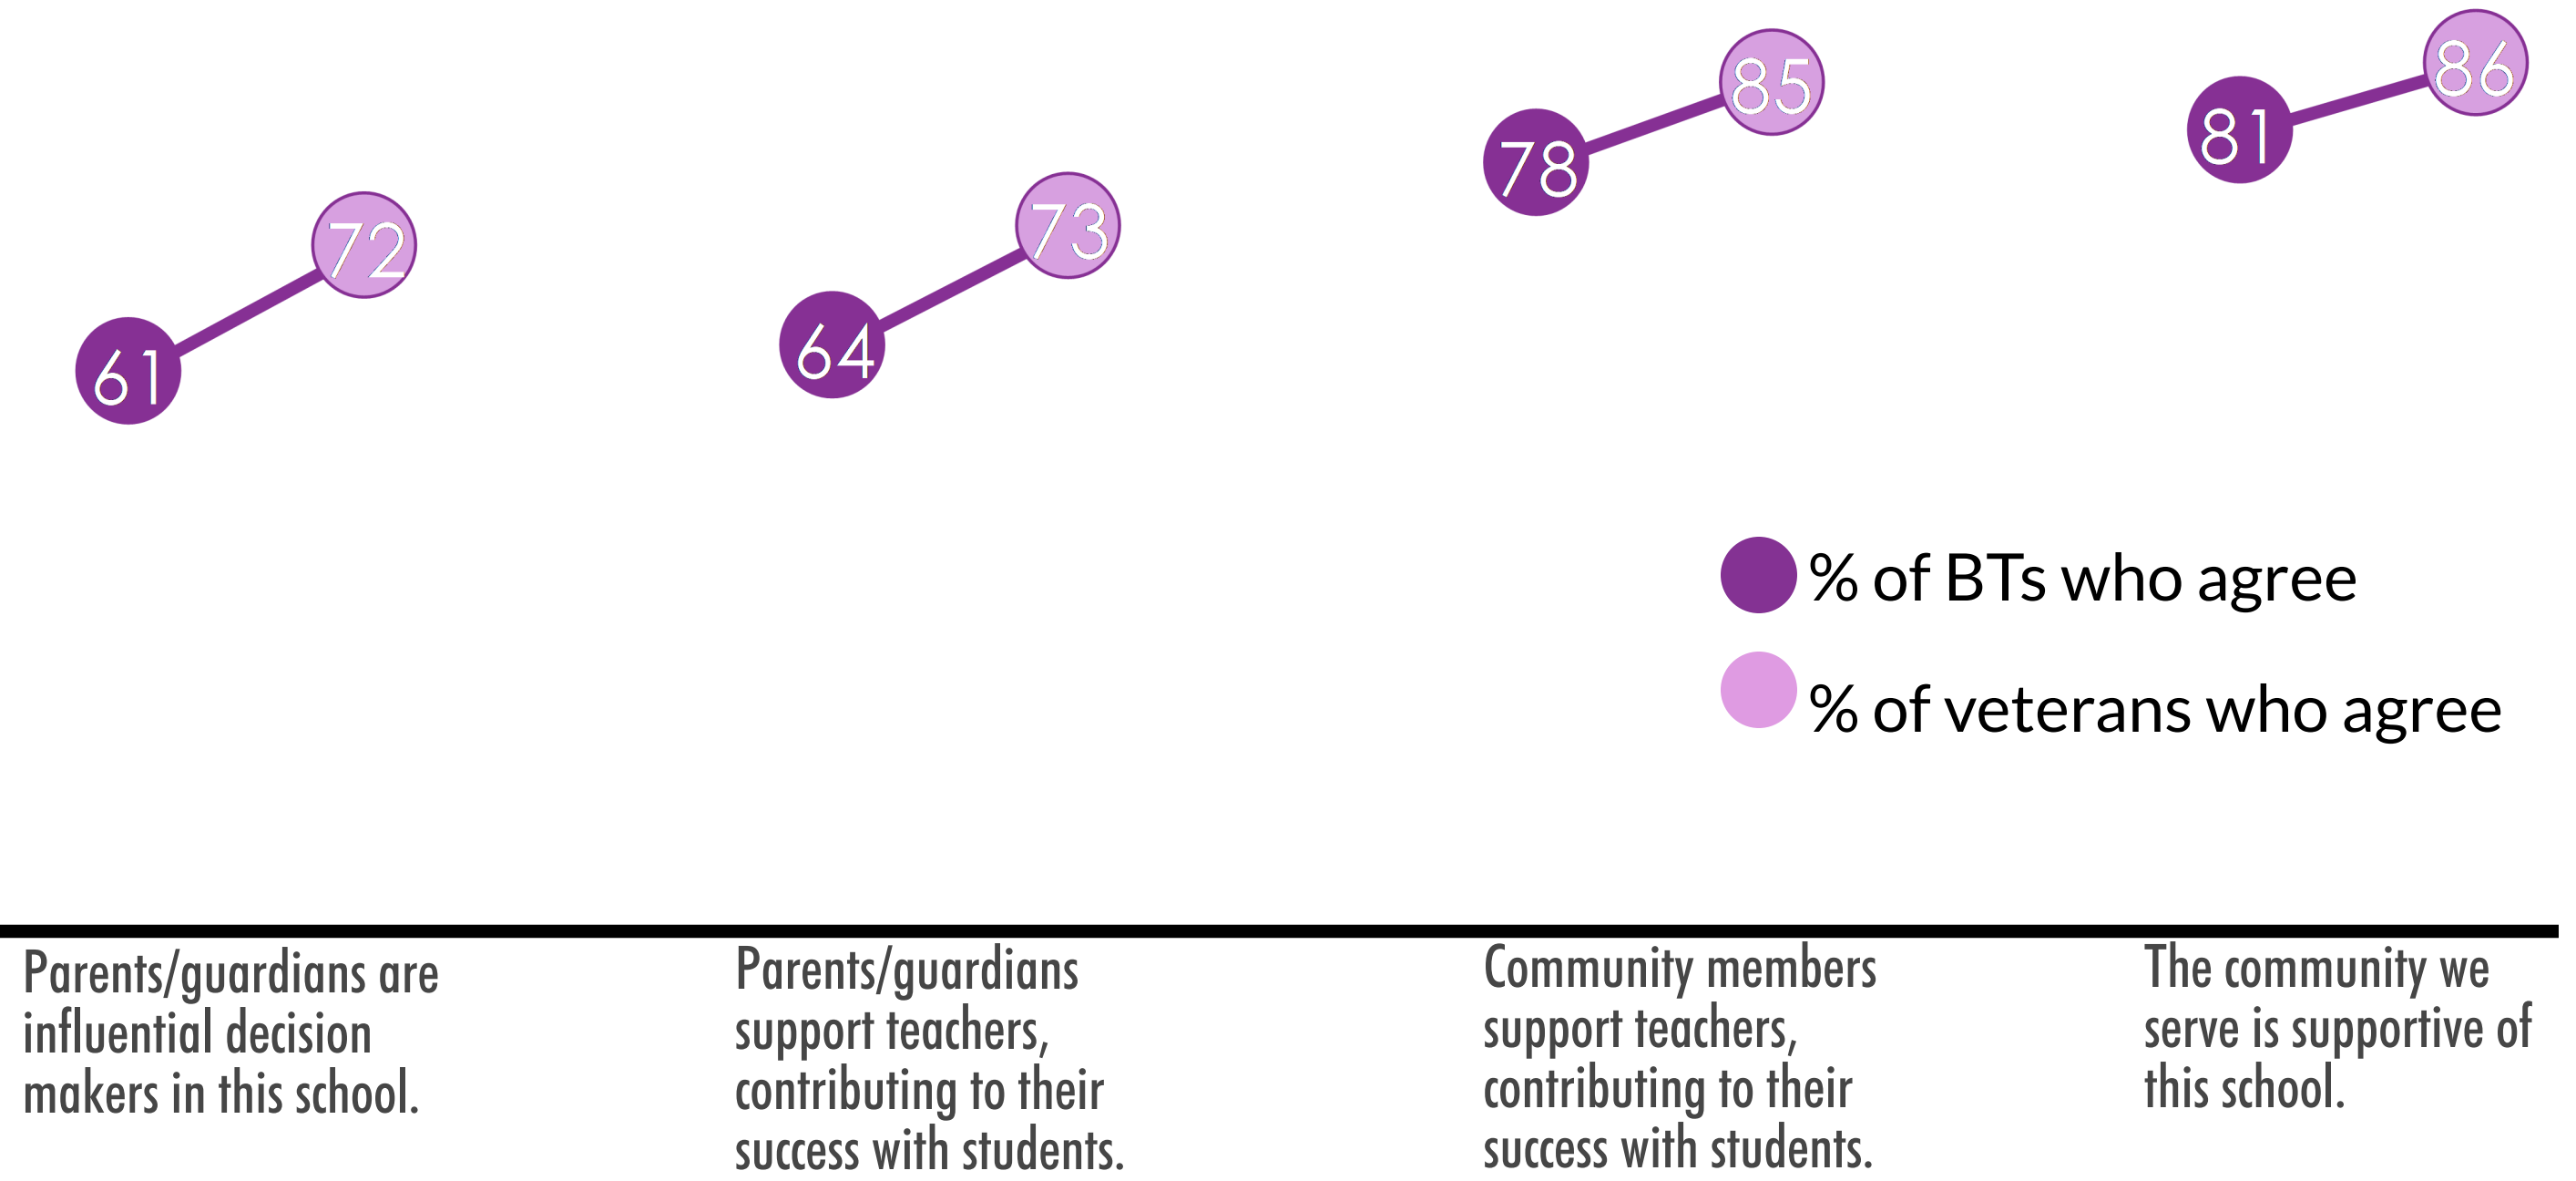

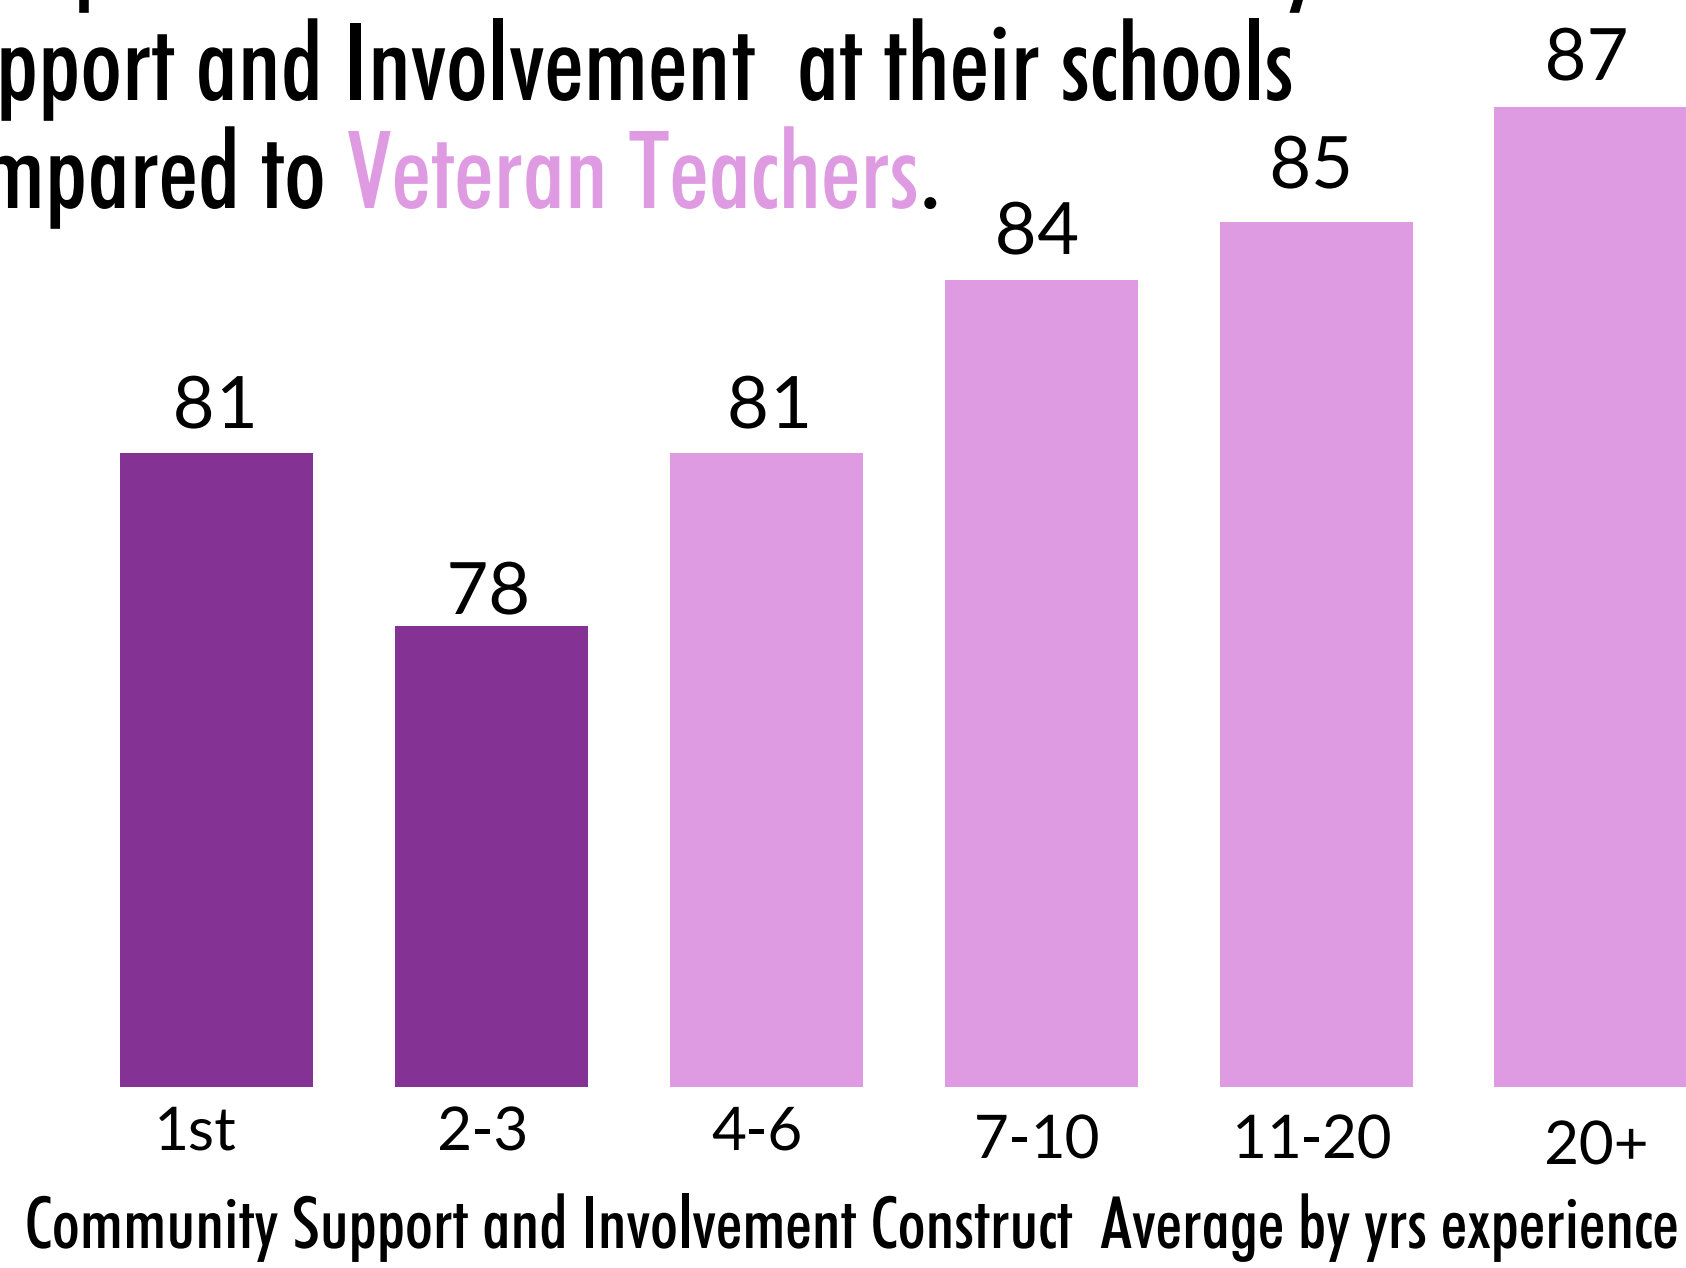

Managing Student Conduct Items with greatest drop from 2016-2018

- Students at this school follow rules of conduct. 65%
- School administrators consistently enforce rules for student conduct. 69%
- The faculty work in a school environment that is safe. 89%
- Teachers consistently enforce rules of conduct. 77%

87% of educators agree "Overall, my school is a good place to work and learn."

Teacher Experience

Beginning Teachers are less likely to agree with positive statements about Community Support and Involvement at their schools compared to Veteran Teachers.

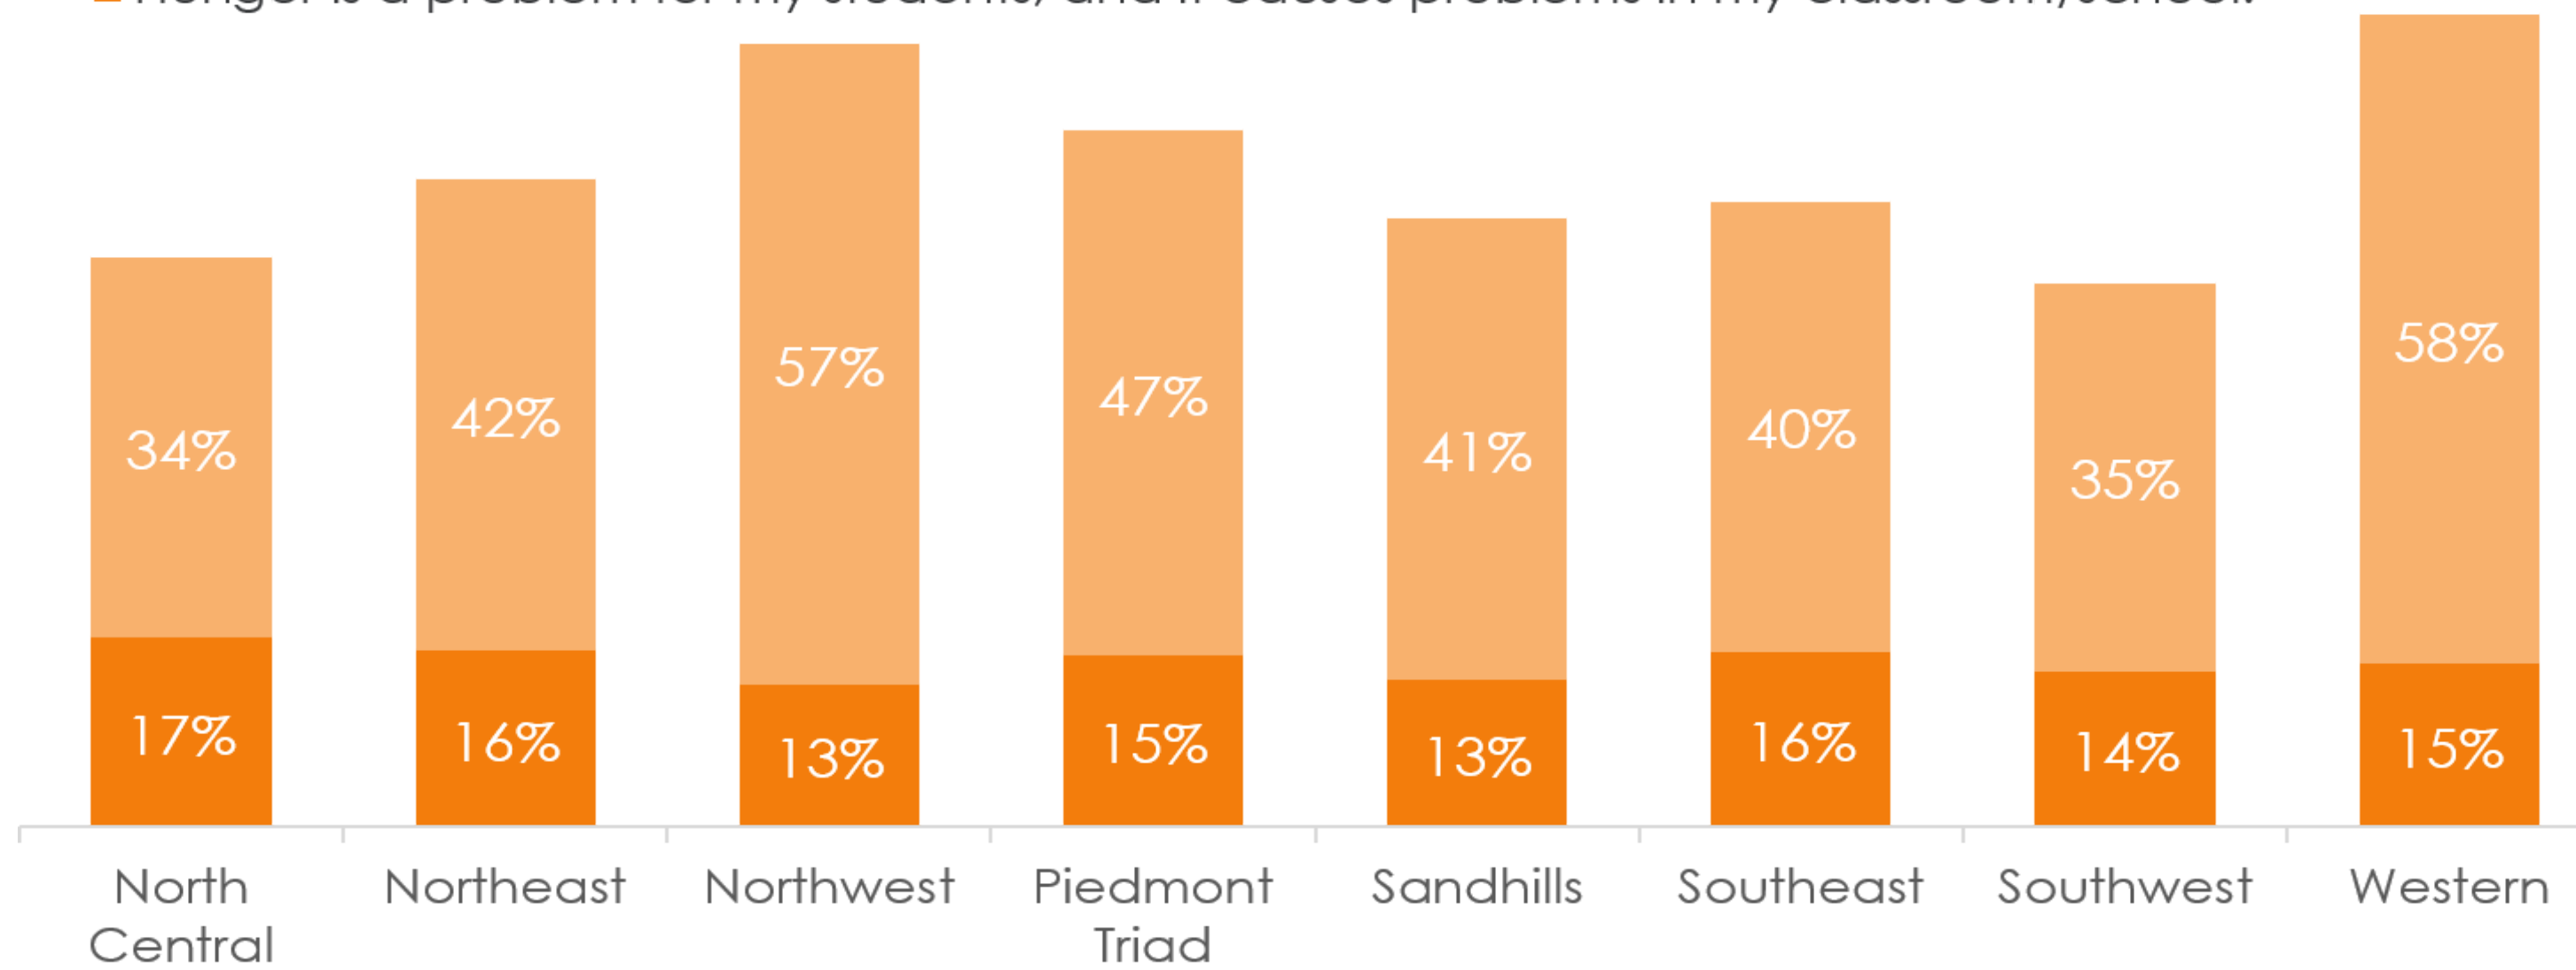

Student Hunger

New item on NC TWC in 2018.

Higher percentages of students experience hunger in Appalachia compared to other regions. However, the western regions are also using creative strategies to combat student hunger at the highest rates.

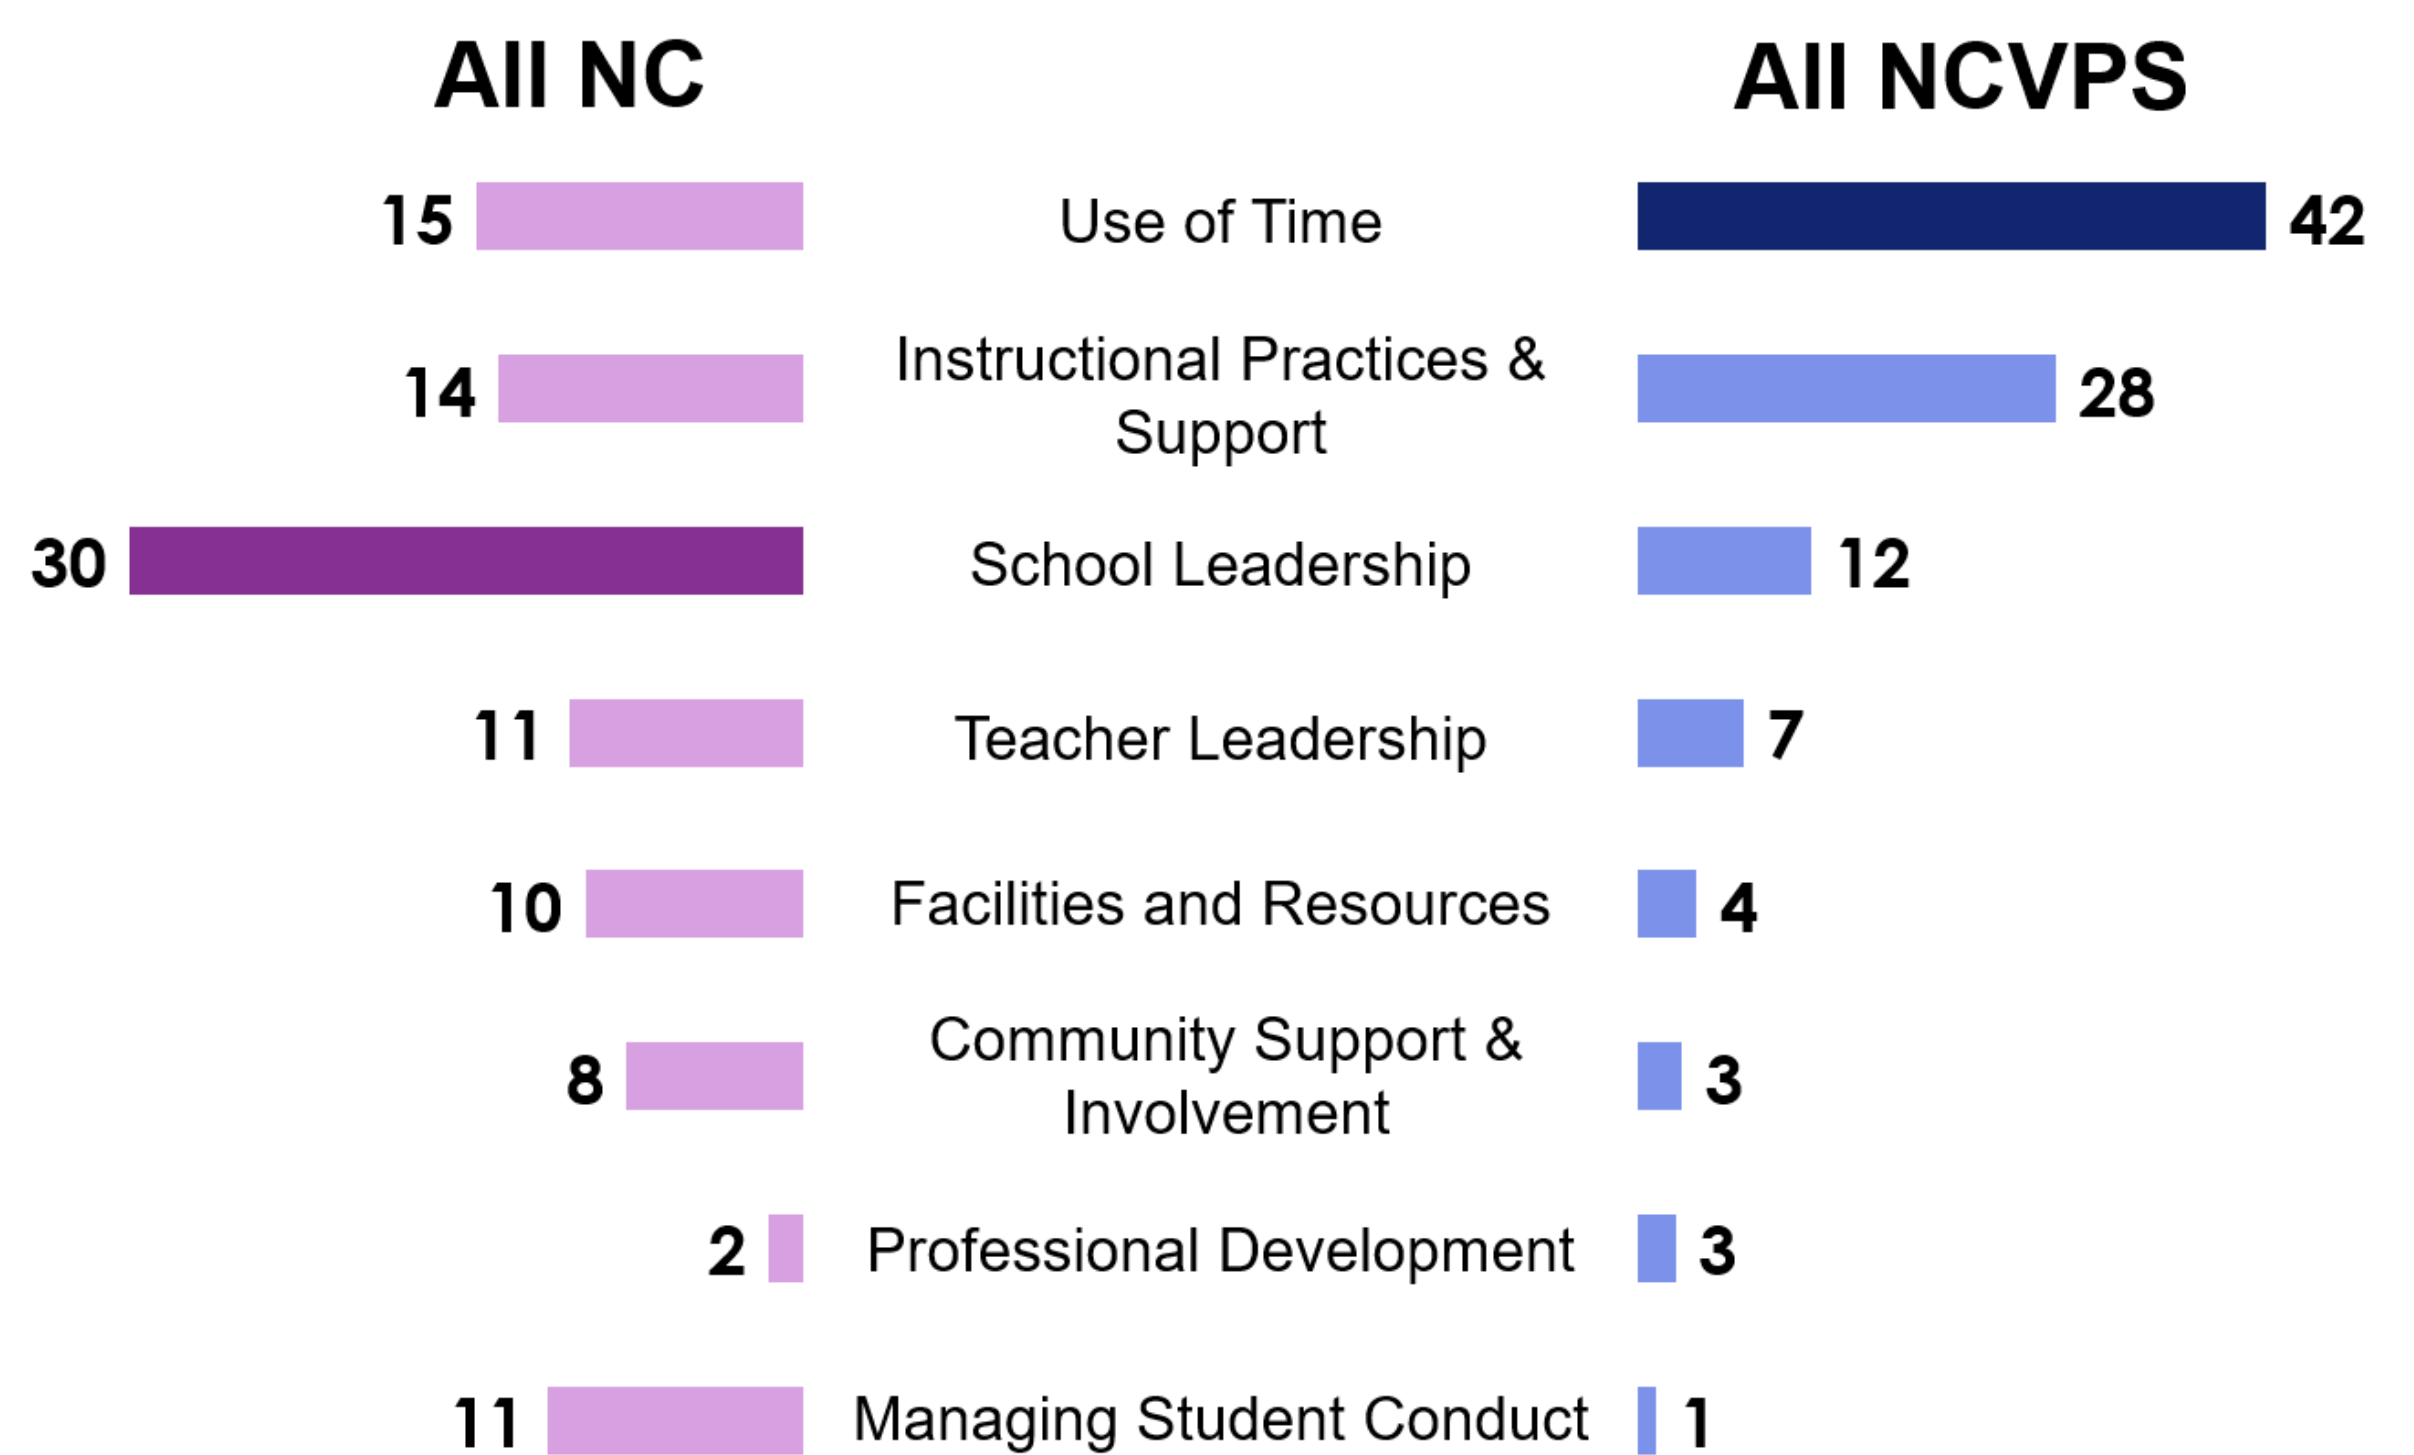

■ Hunger is a problem for my students, but my school uses creative strategies to combat it.
■ Hunger is a problem for my students, and it causes problems in my classroom/school.

NC Virtual Public Schools

NC Public Educators report that School Leadership is the most important aspect affecting their willingness to continue teaching at their current school.

NCVPS teachers report that Use of Time is the most important aspect of their teaching conditions affecting their willingness to stay.

Technology and Instruction

High school teachers assign homework that requires Internet access. compared to 60% of middle and 43% of elementary school teachers.

Percentage of high school teachers who assign homework requiring internet access, by LEA

