Landpaths will designate 4 weeklong outdoor camps at several open space areas for SRCS students, ages 6-13, to attend. This includes providing the staffing and educational program supportive of social, emotional, and physical well-being.		Many classes in SRCS partner with LandPaths during the school year. Partnering in summer with LandPaths will provide students the opportunity to attend week-long outdoor day camps. This is especially valuable this summer as students have been more isolated and unable to engage in many in person learning experiences. LandPaths focuses not only on environmental stewardship but also social, emotional and physical wellness through experiences in nature.			Pre and Post data will be collected regarding engagement and increased awareness of environmental stewardship.
