Educational Services/Kelley Dillon	An increase cost of $17,500	July 29, 2021 - June 30, 2022			5800	CTC Grant + ESSER III Funding
Description of Services		Consideration			Evaluation and Metrics
Training for pre-service teachers in content-agnostic and STEM specific training, including induction support. Building a community of support in STEM education to implement best practices that promote social justice, equity and student voice.		SRCS, through district and CTC grant funding, supports the North Bay Teacher Residency program including stipends for mentors. This increase in funding is not an increase in the overall commitment to the program but a redistribution of funds to Trellis who will pay the mentor stipends directly to mentors. This is in place of payment being made through the District.			100% of all pre-service teachers will complete a portfolio.

Description of Services		Consideration			Evaluation and Metrics
Forget Me Not Farm Children Services will collaborate with Learning House staff to provide students with a total of 5 visits to their outdoor education facility. This partnership with Learning House began last year and the desire is to continue this opportunity for students to participate in outdoor, hands-on educational experiences.		Forget Me Not Farm Children Services is a local non-profit that offers a variety of environmental and outdoor education programs. Students will participate in a outdoor education program that offers rich learning about plant life, animal husbandry and environmental education. Students explore local ecosystems and engage in hands-on learning in the outdoors.			At each field visit, students will engage in lessons/activities that are aligned to the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS).
