Description of Services		Consideration			Evaluation and Metrics
Contractor will work with teachers and students at all grade levels to develop and facilitate standards based curriculum. In addition to curriculum development, the Proctor Terrace Garden will also be properly maintained throughout the school year in order to provide a viable learning environment for the students upon their return to the school site in the future.		As the District is in Distance Learning there are no students on site at Proctor Terrace. The Garden Coordinator will keep up with the required maintenance in the garden and when students return to school the garden will be healthy and ready to provide a wonderful learning space for students.			Pre and Post data will be collected to assess students understanding of science standards aligned to the garden curriculum.

Description of Services		Consideration			Evaluation and Metrics
The Poetry Consultant is a poet who works for California Poets in the Classroom. Mr. Martens will teach lessons to the whole class and then will help individual students create their own poems. He will also provide lessons on performing their poems in public.		Comstock MS is looking at ways for the students to write more, to create poems that they will be proud of, and to feel more confident or comfortable when presenting their work in front of the whole class.			Students will utilize their new learnings and improve their understanding of the art of poetry.
