Description of Services		Consideration			Evaluation and Metrics
UC Berkeley's the Bay Area Writing Project (BAWP) will partner with Santa Rosa City Schools to offer a professional development series focused on teacher inquiry into improving teaching and learning for English Learners (ELs) in Academic Language Development (ALD) classes to increase writing proficiency, and ultimately, reclassification rates across the district. Teachers who commit to joining this PLC will engage in workshops, lesson study, and reflection on effective practices in relation to ELs in ALD classes.		BAWP is expanding on the work done already in the District with supporting teachers to engage students in the writing process.			Pre and Post Data will be collected prior to all PD sessions to show an increase of writing projects in all discipline areas and shared with department chairs.

Description of Services		Consideration			Evaluation and Metrics
Lexia Reading supports teachers in providing differentiated learning in the area of systematic reading instruction targeting skill gaps. The online platform provides individual literacy instruction for students and lends itself to a blended learning model. It provides teachers resources they need to provide direct instruction and intervention.		The contract is to include Charter School for the Arts to support reading instruction and learning loss due to COVID as our other elementary schools are using Lexia.			Initial assessment to place students in the program will occur first and then ongoing assessments will continue through the year to monitor progress towards grade level benchmarks, reading gains, time needed to master skill sand individual usage. Pre and Post data will be presented quarterly at grade level meetings.

Description of Services		Consideration				Evaluation and Metrics
Santa Rosa City Schools will collaborate with CAP Sonoma and conduct AVANCE Parent-Child Education Program at Via Esperanza and 1 1/2 Hour Pasitos Program during the fall and spring semesters. AVANCE National organization will conduct site visit(s) to monitor implementation. CAP will conduct door-to-door outreach in the in Santa Rosa City Schools attendance areas. This partnership provides opportunities for families to learn foundational skills for both parents and students prior to entering the K-12 system.		CAP Sonoma will provide programs for our parents in training them to help support their 0-5 age children in accessing early education so that they are prepared for our K-12 system.				A pre and post test will be administered to families to assess learnings regarding school readiness, language development, child development and positive parenting strategies. Additionally, students entering kindergarten who participated in AVANCE/ Pasitos and who take the KSEP (kinder readiness) assessment will be compared to those who did not participate in AVANCE to evaluate the effectiveness of the programs.
